

Lincoln Quilters Guild Announcements

Welcome to the New Year for Lincoln Quilters Guild (2020-2021)

Though our meetings don't resume until March 8, 2021, there are a few important announcements to help us get things started.

Meeting Schedule

- The meetings are scheduled with speakers and workshops according to our usual process. (See the schedule on the Programs & Workshops page.)
- We will announce any necessary changes that arise due to COVID via email.
- The current guidelines from Lincoln Lancaster County Health Department allow for meetings at 75% of room capacity with other safety measures in place.
- Our March presenter does not do ZOOM presentations. Based upon this fact, and the current health guidelines, the March 8 meeting will be in-person at the College View Adventist church location.
- The room will be arranged with social distancing in mind and hand sanitizer will be readily available.
- Mask wearing is required unless you are speaking at the podium.
- Other safety measures will be included in the early March email.
- We are currently working on a plan to see if we can simultaneously provide a ZOOM cast of the actual meeting. We will let you know if that is possible as soon as we know.
- April 2021 Presenter, Tonya Alexander, has cancelled her class and workshop. The Programs VPs are working to find another presenter and we will let you know as soon as possible.
