

LQG Announcement Regarding Next Monday's Meeting

From your President

The International Quilt Museum is undergoing resurfacing of their parking lot. Therefore, you may not be able to park there on Monday night. Parking will be available on East Campus (right across the street east) around Hardin Hall. Apologies for the late notice but we just found out today that the IQM parking lot is barricaded off.