Lincoln Quilters Guild Announcements

From your President

I hope all had a good Labor Day even though it was a hot one. Hopefully fall will appear soon.

Our September 12th meeting will feature Ruth Green and her trunk show.

Ruth will also have a full day workshop on Tuesday, September 13th, where she will talk about her Starmazing Wall Hanging. The Kit can be purchased from Ruth at the workshop. Please sign up soon.

Other business items will also be presented at the September meeting, including:

- The Finance Committee's presentation of the December 2022 – November 2023 & December 2023 to November 2024 budget. Special thanks to the Finance Committee for all their work in reviewing the numbers, asking questions, and finalizing the presentation.
- In addition, Pat Kant Modrell will present the slate of officers for election for December 2022 – November 2023. Both the budget and officers will be confirmed at the October meeting, and the officers will be officially installed in November.

Janet Phillips will be presenting during the Tuesday Talk at the International Quilt Museum at Noon, September 27th. Janet has long been drawn to the 1930's style of quilts and will share stories behind the making of her 'new vintage' quilts. Please consider attending.

The 8th Annual Friends of IQM Art Market is coming on November 18th and 19th at the International Quilt Museum. Donations are being accepted now for the Friends table. They can be artwork, décor items, fabric, quilts, quilt tops and blocks, quilt kits, notions, aprons, and handmade fabric items such as potholders, coasters, table runners, placemats, etc. Please consider donating, and you can bring your item to our Lincoln Quilt Guild Meeting in September, October, or November. The Guild has also been good about volunteering to help with the event which will feature almost 20 artists. If you are interested in volunteering, please see Connie Soucie or Sheila Green.

Threads Across Nebraska will be in Kearney, October 7-8, 2022. Please check the Nebraska State Quilt Guild website for information. There will be a Merchants Mall, Quilt Raffle, and demonstrations. Sheila Green is the featured quilter. If you have registered your quilt for the quilt show, you can bring it to the September meeting, and a board member will be taking it to the event.

Our 2021/2022 year is winding down and it has gone by so fast. I am so pleased that we were able to be 'in-person' for the full year. Our membership attendance has averaged between 105-130 members at each meeting. The board has been actively planning for 2023, including our 50th anniversary as well as a few fundraising events to bring us all together.

As you start your fall cleaning, remember that we will again have the Isles Sale in March of 2023. We look forward to having lots of fabric to sell.
