To see more information regarding Darlene, you may go to her website at www.feedsacklady.com

Would everyone please wear an apron, and stand up with it on when Darlene Zimmerman is introduced at our meeting?

President's Message

A HUGE thank you to everyone who helped with and provided quilts for the October Memory Quilt

program! Shirley and I couldn't have done it without you. We are grateful to the International Quilt Study Center and Museum, the Nebraska Historical Society and Art McWilliams for their permission to use several of the photographs used in the presentation.

Most of the quilts used were from you, our members, including many of our Founding and Charter members. What a joy to meet some of you for the first time, visit with you in your home about your quilting memories and photograph your precious quilts. This group of ladies rarely show quilts at our quilt shows or Show and Tell.
We're pleased to honor members no longer with us, including Ernst Haight, Louise Howey, and Ruth Hicks. It was an unbelievable experience to meet Ernst Haight's daughter Mae Belle. I had the pleasure of making arrangements for her to see her father's quilt now at the International Quilt Study Center and Museum. The quilt was given to the Nebraska State Quilt Guild when Ernst and Grace Snyder became the first two members inducted into the NSQG Hall of Fame in 1986! Three of Ernst's quilts are in the book, Nebraska Quilts and Quiltmakers. I would love to have met him.

The stories from your quilts were humorous, taught us about the Bible or history, commemorated an event, were used in fundraising or to highlight a social cause, helped with the grieving process as they told memories of a loved one. Jackie Greenfield shared her quilt, entitled "Sarah's Quilt," made to honor and remember her daughter who died at age 3½ of smoke inhalation in a fire at their home. She used an old, unique technique to construct the quilt, tile appliqué, using pieces of Students will fill out a membership application so that we know who are members. They may enter a quilt in our show by filling out a quilt registration as other members do. Their names will not appear in the Membership Books. They will receive Plain Print by email.

Program Chair – Shirley Chaffin

Shirley made announcements about Lora Locke's machine quilting classes on October 10 and 17. There were still openings in them.

Our guild program for the November 9 meeting will be Darlene Zimmerman. Her program is entitled Treasurers in the Trunk. She tells us that all quilts have a story, if we just learn to read them! Darlene is also known as the apron lady, so I am asking everyone to wear an apron next month and when she is introduced stand and show off your aprons. The class she is presenting on Tuesday, November 10 is called Adding Pizzazz to your Quilts. Again I have class information on the back table. This class is half full so if you are interested, sign up soon.

Each person signed up to receive Plain Print by email will receive an email from PlainPrint@LincolnQuiltersGuild.org

It will have a link to click on that takes you straight to the LQG web site Newsletter page. You select the newsletter you want to print. Click on the link. It loads on Adobe Reader. You can read or print it.

IF YOU DID NOT RECEIVE YOUR PLAIN PRINT VIA THIS EMAIL METHOD, PLEASE EMAIL KATE at katequilt@yahoo.com AND LET HER KNOW.

Threads Across Nebraska

Lincoln Quilters Guild members' quilts were shown at Threads Across Nebraska in Grand Island on October 2 and 3. Quilts displayed were provided by Carolyn Garner, Leslie Reed, Kris Vierra, Shirley Chaffin, Rebecka Schaefer, Marilyn Rembolt, Bonnie Kucera and Sheila Green. Thanks to Kate Laucomer, Shirley Chaffin and Sheila Green for transporting the quilts.

Memorial Money

Has been received from the family of Ruth Hicks, a Charter member of the Lincoln Quilters Guild, who passed away in August. The book American Quilts in the Modern Age, scissors, rotary blades, a table top ironing board and various other items for Cuddle Quilts and other outreach projects have been purchased for our use. Two of Ruth's quilts were used in our "Memory Quilt" program. Ruth shared her Bible Quilt with many groups. She was very involved in her family's genealogy, writing 3 books on the subject and she made several family history quilts. She was a very giving, self-sufficient lady who never stopped learning! We thank her family.

Quilts for Community

Continues on November 7 with making Santa Socks! Join us at the International Quilt Study Center and Museum, 10:30 am to 2:00 pm. Free admission and lunch will be provided for our members. If you haven't taken part in a previous work session, we set up in the beautiful, spacious second floor reception hall! This is a great way to share our love of quilting with museum visitors. Please contact Sheila Green if you can help so we can share the names in advance with the museum.

Help is needed for

Charlie Brown's Kids

Join fellow LQG members help children who have lost a parent by making pillows. This activity will be held Thursday, November 5, 6-8 pm at Sheridan Lutheran Church, 70th & Old Cheney. You will need to bring your sewing machine. This is an experience you won't forget.

Silent Auction

Remember that pattern that you loved, bought but never quite made it to your sewing machine? What about that fabric that was so wonderful when you saw it in the fabric shop but isn't exactly right for any of your projects. These items would make great contributions to the silent auction. We can also use books, notions and any other usable quilt-related item that you no longer need. Please bring your donations to the November meeting and give them to Christy Stoner. Thanks!

2010 Quilt Show Live Auction

Please consider your donation for the Quilt Show Auction. In the past, we have had about 100 quilts, made by generous members of the Guild. The quality of the quilts has been excellent, and I'm certain that this year will be no exception! The live auction has always been very successful and makes up the bulk of the show's profits. The show profits benefit all Guild members, keeping dues low, and assisting in bringing in quality speakers for our meetings. Please let me know about your donation, and thanks in advance!

The Friendship Quilt

Quilting has led me to new friends, to interesting places, and personal satisfaction. It has brought me drawers overflowing with fabric, shelves drooping with books and magazines, corners filled with projects underway, and a mind busy with plans for the next project. It has filled my life in a very happy way. I am always busy and never bored.

fabrics she had saved from Sarah's clothing. I believe all of us have been touched by Alzheimer's disease, cancers, death of a loved one. Quilts help us heal.

I think that Show and Tell in October was the very best ever!!! I'm sorry if you left after the program and missed it! The quilts were magnificent and the stories heartfelt and inspiring! "Memory Quilts" will be presented several more times, including May 11, 2010 at the Omaha Quilters Guild meeting and October 21, 2010 at the Nebraska History Museum's Brown Bag Lunch series.

Thanks to all of you for sharing the memories we treasure!
