President's Message

Well we are certainly off to a bright start to our year. Elinor Peace Bailey was such fun and she really made your creative juices flow. Even though we had some nasty weather, we quilters still ventured out to enjoy the meeting. Now it is time to get back to the things we love most about our craft and try something new. Our next speaker/teacher Carol Jones looks to be just as fantastic as the first, so don't be shy. Take a special day just for you to do something fun and different. Bring a friend because you know there is nothing like sharing this kind of moment with your BFF.

Deb Bauer-Knopp

Attention New Members

There will be a new member orientation on Tuesday, October 12th, 6:00 pm at the Bernina Sewing Studio (1501 Pine Lake Road).

Historians requesting help

Because the LQG is so active, this year's LQG co-historians, Pat Hackley and Megan Patent-Nygren, are looking for your help. Activities from small groups to service projects, classes and more need to be included. If you have some photos you would like to share or be considered for the year's scrapbooks, please pass them on to meganchristine@hotmail.com.

In your message, please identify the photographer, the name, date and location of the event and the subjects in the photo. Thank you!

Santa Socks 2010

Once again the Lincoln Quilters Guild will be collecting items that can be donated to family agencies in Lincoln for Christmas 2010. Bring your donations to the monthly meetings. These are our suggested for items.

October – Pocket calendars, note cards

November – Bring your beautiful Christmas stockings and cash to vote for your favorite stocking.

These are suggestions, feel free to donate new items of your choice. Tubs will be at each meeting to hold the items. Cash is always a wonderful donation.

*Linda Daiker, Ginny Harvey, Joan Ogle,
Joyce Pope and Barb Brown*

Minutes of the Lincoln Quilters Guild - September 13, 2010

College View Seventh-Day Adventist Church - Lincoln, Nebraska

President Deb Bauer-Knopp called meeting to order and welcomed everyone.

Two members of the Special Olympics Committee were present at our meeting. On behalf of the Special Olympics 2010 USA National Games, they accepted a check for $5138. The LQG Special Olympics Raffle Quilt Committee sold all available raffle tickets and also received some donations. All monies received were included in the check.

Vice President Rebecka Schafer introduced speaker Elinor Peace Bailey. Elinor did a trunk show with many of her wonderful dolls. She also recited marvelous poems about many of the dolls.

Deb thanked Elinor for a wonderful program.

Minutes

The minutes of the May 2010 meeting were in the September Plain Print. The minutes stand approved as printed.

Treasurer's Report

Treasurer's report was in the September Plain Print. The Treasurer's Report was remanded for audit.

Announcements – Joyce Pope, President-elect

Fall Retreat – there are still a few spots left for the fall retreat. Contact Kate Laucomer or Martha Lane. The information for those who have signed up will be going out next week.

Bags of Love – Barb Burton – The Board has approved a new community outreach project that we hope many of you will participate in. It's called Bags of Love and will be chaired by Barb Burton who is here tonight.

Alzheimer's Quilt Project – The Alzheimer's Disease Cooperative Study is distributing quilts to volunteers participating in research studies to find a cure. The project aims to express appreciation to the volunteers, all of whom have mild to moderate cognitive impairment. They are seeking lap-size, rectangular or square, between 40 and 60 inches per side. If you are interested, there is a small article on the bulletin board with the contact information or you can see Joyce after the meeting.

Alzheimer's Garden – Kate Laucomer, Past Present of LQG, had a quilt chosen to travel in the exhibit, Alzheimer's: Forgetting Piece by Piece, sponsored by the Alzheimer's Art Quilt Initiative and Ami Simms. The exhibit is on display at the Shelburne Museum in Vermont and Kate's quilt was the inspiration for a Memory Garden at the Shelburne Museum.

HOLDERS and FOLDERS – there is a clipboard going around for you to sign up for a future meeting. This is a great opportunity to see the quilts up close and personal so please consider signing up.

Paducah Show – Jim Riese has tours or bus trips to the upcoming Paducah show – the information is on the information table.

Threads Across Nebraska – LeAnne Killion needs volunteers for Threads Across Nebraska. There are many shifts and jobs available starting on Thursday, September 30 and during the show on Friday, October 1 and Saturday, October 2. Please contact LeAnne for more information. Her email is lkillion@frontier.net.

Bus Trip – The SCC bus trip to the AQS Show in Des Moines is Friday, October 8th. Call Nancy at 437-2700 for more information.

Free Quilt Stand – 55" x 30" for hand quilting. Original box and assembly instructions. See Sheila Green or contact information is on the Publicity Table.

Textile Society of American Volunteers Needed – The sessions run October 6 to 10 at various locations. Contact information for Helen Sellentin, Volunteer Coordinator, is on the Publicity Table. Look for the yellow cards!

Upcoming Quilt Show information is on the Publicity table: Des Moines Area Quilt Guild October 6th – 9th and the Fremont Prairie Peacemakers October 22nd – 23rd.

Quilts for Community will feature the making of Santa Socks on October 23, 10:30 am to 2:00 pm at the International Quilt Study Center and Museum. To participate, all you need to do is put your name on the list for free museum admission and a light lunch. The sign up sheet is on the IQSC table or contact Sheila Green. Join us for a fun time. Last Saturday, Quilts for Community featured Quilts of Valor!

Thank you notes have been received from:

- St. Monica's and Catholic Social Services for the pillowcases donated.
- Susan and Jason Gieschen, winners of one of the three raffled Special Olympics' quilts. Jason is a SO athlete and his mom Sue is a coach. The note is on the Publicity table and includes photos of Jason with the quilt!

Thanks to Carolyn Garner, Pat Hackley, Carrol Dischner for your help with the Childhood Treasures exhibition reception to honor Mary and Roger Ghormley. Sheila Green and Sandy Anderson chairs

Mary Ghormley's exhibition

Childhood Treasures:

Doll Quilts from the Ghormley Collection

The International Quilt Study Center and Museum welcomed 283 guests for the First Friday Opening of Mary's exhibition on August 6! This was the largest attendance for a First Friday. We served strawberry shortcake, punch and coffee. Mary and Roger Ghormley were presented with a corsage and boutonniere from LQG. The exhibition will be featured at the museum from August 6 to December 12. Mary is a founding member of the Lincoln Quilters Guild and leader in the Nebraska Quilt Documentation Project. She has been collecting doll quilts for 40 years and has donated 300 doll quilts and about 60 doll beds to the museum. Thanks to Carolyn Garner, Pat Hackley and Carroll Dischner for all of your help at the reception!

Sheila Green and Sandy Anderson,
Reception Co-Chairs

Tea Party Invitation

Please join Mary

Ghormley and friends for Tea on Sunday, December 12 at 2 pm. The Tea Party, sponsored by the Lincoln Quilters Guild, will be held at the International Quilt Study Center & Museum. December 12 is the last day of the exhibition of Mary's doll quilts and beds, Childhood Treasures. Seating is limited, so don't delay in purchasing your tickets. Can you think of a better way to celebrate the Holiday season with your friends? To purchase the $10 tickets, contact Brenda Carlson (402) 430-1826 or Sheila Green (402) 483-0453.

Quilts for Community

Santa Socks and Sacks are the featured project for October 23, Quilts for Community at the International Quilt Study Center & Museum. Bring your sewing machines, basic sewing supplies and join us from 10:30 am to 2:00 pm. A light lunch will be provided. Call or email Sheila Green or sign up at the Oct. guild meeting to get your name on the list for free museum admission. This is a fun way to spend time with friends and interact with the museum visitors!

Looking ahead to November 6th, we'll be making wall hangings for new Habitat for Humanity homeowners. Don't forget to sign up!

National Quilting Day 2011

Mark your calendars for March 19, 2011 to celebrate National Quilting Day at the International Quilt Study Center & Museum. Last March, 767 guests were treated to free museum admission, great lectures, demonstrations, learned about the LQG Community Outreach projects, viewed machine quilting demonstrations and enjoyed the museum's exhibitions in the galleries. Plans are well underway for 2011. The Nebraska State Quilt Guild and AccuQuilt will help sponsor the event.

Sheila Green, Chair

Habitat for Humanity

Jan Gustafson and Sheila Green attended a Dedication on September 18 for a new home built by Habitat for Humanity. A wall hanging, made by an LQG member, was presented to the new homeowner, Rose Elembo and her five children. Sheila gifted a wall hanging to Semira Osman and her two children at their home's dedication on August 29. More wall hangings are needed! You can make wall hangings at home, or attend Quilts for Community on November 8 at the IQSC to make them with the group.

September 2010

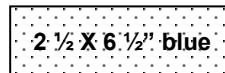

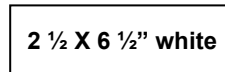

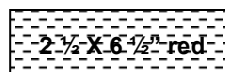

Friendship Block Exchange

Rail Fence Block

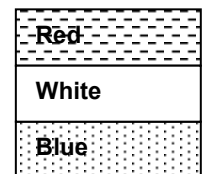

Due October/November
Drawing for blocks will be held at November meeting

We will be making a Rail Fence block from red, white/cream and blue fabrics.

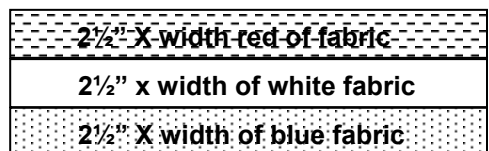

To make a rail fence block cut a 2½" X 6½" rectangle from a red, a white and a blue fabric and join. This will make a 6½" X 6½" block.

6½" X 6½" block

Or strip piece:

After joining your strips, cut them every 6½" inches to make 6½" X 6½" blocks.

If you have any questions about finishing this block, please call
