President's Message

We're coming to a busy time for LQG. I hope everyone will be able to support and participate in the LQG activities. As the saying goes, you get out what you put in! I'm so glad we have such wonderful members and such great participation in our projects and activities. We have something for everyone. I find myself wanting to do everything but have found I have to make some choices. I've had fun working with our members in a smaller group and have been so impressed with the work that is done! There is always a need and always room for more of us to join in. We can all be very proud of our guild's accomplishments!

After our March meeting and workshop it will be time for the National Quilters' Day at the ISQC on March 17. This provides another chance to shine our light, mingle with the public, tour the IQSC and enjoy the activities. If you haven't yet attended one of these special events I encourage you to do so! There will be something for everyone's interests and you can bring guests who can learn about LQG activities.

March will pass quickly and time is drawing closer to our Quilt Show in May. There has been a lot of activity by the Quilt Show committee members but we find that there is always a need for more volunteers in order for the show to be successful. It is not ALL work – it is an opportunity to support the Guild while getting to know members better and having fun! If you haven't already done so, I encourage you to contact Elizabeth Sterns to see what jobs might be perfect for you! Check with your friends to see what they are doing and work with them – it's always more fun when you do something with a friend. It is truly a wonderful and rewarding activity and very important to our Guild's success!

Joyce Pope

Done in all four seasons at night lit by a sparkling moon!. In addition to using freezer paper and needle turn appliqué, students will have the option to exchange fabric squares for leaves. The Trapunto technique will be demonstrated as an option. Intermediate appliqué skill level.

International Quilt Study
Center & Museum

Upcoming and ongoing events from IQSC

Public tours are offered free with admission Tuesdays through Saturdays at 11:00 am and on Saturdays at 1:00 pm. The museum is closed on Mondays.

2012 brings more quilts, artistry, and cultural context from the International Quilt Study Center & Museum. You may view online exhibitions and download full releases and high resolution images directly from our website, QuiltStudy.org.

1/6/12-7/29/12: Tribute to Ardis James Ardis

James loved quilts and all things about quilting. Her legacy will live on in many ways, including one of her primary passions, the International Quilt Study Center & Museum. Since the original donation of the Ardis and Robert James Collection in 1997 and the establishment of the International Quilt Study Center, Ardis remained actively informed of and involved in the workings of the center until her passing in July 2011. This exhibition will feature quilts donated in her honor by many of today's leading studio quilt artists.

3/2/12-9/2/12: Jean Ray Laury: Getting It All Together The display of many of the over 40 quilts recently donated by Laury's family to the IQSC&M celebrates the artist's full and productive life and her more than half a century of creative output in quilts, wood, paper, and other materials.

The quilts tell only part of the story. A display of some of Laury's personal records--class samples, sketchbooks, manuscripts, diaries, and photos from the University Library Archives--complete the picture of a woman who had "it all together."

1/13/12-12/2/12: What's in a Name? Inscribed Quilts Quilts bearing multiple inscriptions were made for a variety of reasons, in a variety of patterns, over a span of more than one hundred years.

Santa Socks 2012

The Lincoln Quilters Guild will once again be collecting items that can be donated to family agencies in Lincoln for Christmas 2012. Christmas may seem like a long way off but it's not too early to start thinking about purchasing items that you can bring in throughout the year. Here are some of the ideas for this calendar year.

MARCH: Note cards, envelopes, postage stamps, pens, journals

APRIL: Small stuffed animals, puzzles, story books, games and toys for young children, teens or adults

MAY: Baby items/hats, booties, bibs, blankets, soft books, baby toys

SEPTEMBER: Back to school items. Pencils/markers, drawing paper, coloring books/crayons, pocket calendars

OCTOBER: Personal items for all ages. Washcloths, small Kleenex packets, deodorant, baby wipes, lotion, soap, shampoo, conditioner, hairspray, toothbrushes, toothpaste, hand sanitizers, nail polish,

NOVEMBER: Bring your Christmas stockings and sacks, cash to vote on your favorite stocking, Christmas ornaments and stocking stuffers.

Remember, you can bring your donation to any guild meeting during the year. There will be totes near the South doors for you deposit your items in.

Thank you for your support!
Kim Weide and Joany Knight

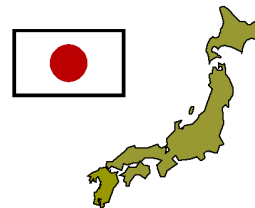

These quilts and the information garnered from careful investigation into the unique inscriptions, shed light into the lives of individuals, families and communities.

Thank you. Please contact me if you want more information OR if you do not want to receive our information in the future.

Quilts for Japan Thank You

A thank you was received from Japan from Pamela Runestad and Nao Nomura. LQG members and friends made and donated 90 wallhangings for the families of evacuated due to damage by the tsunami, earthquake and nuclear reactors. Nao and Pamela applaud our generosity and our hospitality when LQG members met with Pamela at the Quilt Museum in December. Sheila Green

Minutes of the Lincoln Quilters Guild - February 13, 2012

College View Seventh-Day Adventist Church - Lincoln, Nebraska

President Joyce Pope thanked our speaker Alice Cruz and called the meeting to order.

Joyce Pope said the Minutes of the January meeting were in the Plain Print, asked if there were any corrections or additions, and then announced them approved.

Joyce announced the December 2011 Treasurer's report was in the Plain Print, asked if there were any corrections, and then announced they will be remanded for audit.

The deadline for articles for the March Plain Print is this Wednesday, February 15.

Joyce made sure everyone had a copy of the proposed change to the LQG calendar year and then read the motion from the LQG Board stating: The LQG year will change to December 1st through November 30th. In order to facilitate the change we'll have a transition period as explained in the handout and printed in the Plain Print. The LQG Board of Officers during the LQG transition period will serve an extended term of office.

Joyce asked if there was a second to the motion. Lin Gowin-O'Brien seconded and then Joyce asked if there was any discussion. After discussion Joyce called for a vote and the motion passed. Joyce announced that the necessary Bylaw changes will be written and announced at the March meeting, printed in the April Plain Print and voted on at the April meeting.

Kate Laucomer told us about upcoming programs and class openings.

Announcements from Sandy Anderson,

President-elect:

No visitors with us tonight.

Next month is our Guild birthday so we are again asking each of you to bring a cuddle quilt to the meeting. It does not have to be quilted if you are not able to do that.

Sara Kenny and Julia Schroeder - Iowa Public Television will be airing a program about Quilts of Valor. Please visit the QOV table to pick up a handout detailing the dates and air times of the show in March. Also, if you are not able to make a Quilt of Valor for our challenge to make 100 quilts for the May Quilt Show, you can make pillowcases to put the quilts in when they are presented. There are pre-cut kits at the QOV table. We also need red, white, and blue fabric if you have any you could donate.

Dana Atteberry is experiencing some serious family tragedies and will not be attending guild or her small quilt groups. Barb Brown and Kathy Spitsen will take care of the Mini Raffle for the rest of the year. We're sure Dana would appreciate messages of concern but is not up to personal visits right now. We all need to keep her and her family in our prayers.

Don't forget to order show t-shirts at the membership table.

Sheila Green - Quilts for Community featuring the making of Cuddle Quilts is this Saturday, February 18, at the IQSC&M. There will be no Quilts for Community in March because of National Quilting Day on March 17. Quilts of Valor will be featured on April 14.

Vicky Skuodas - Bring your extra quilt or cooking magazines in March or April and we will be selling them in the hallway. Magazines will be 25 cents each, 5 for a dollar or full year sets for $2. Proceeds will benefit Quilts of Valor so that they can purchase materials.

The 3rd Annual UNL Employee Quilt Show begins at the Rotunda Gallery, 14th and R Streets, in the Student Union building, February 20 thru March 1st and is free and open to the public. The Show continues at the IQSC March 2 thru March 15. While at the IQSC&M, regular admissions apply.

Roxann O'Hare - Quilters Garage Sale, sponsored by Cosmic Cow and the Corny Bunch is Sunday, February 26. A can food item is your admission ticket. Donations go to the Lincoln Food Bank.

Other announcements:

Barb Brown for the LQG Quilt Show - We have sold over 2100 tickets for the LQG Raffle Quilt. Tickets are still available. We need all of us to help with the quilt show in some way. We need donations for the Live Auction and for the Silent Auctions. We need volunteers for the show. Sign-up sheets are going around tonight and will again next month. The quilt show is a big project and we need everyone to help. We also have bookmarks for you to take and distribute. T-shirts are available to purchase. We hope to have 100 Quilts of Valor on display at our show. These quilts are separate from the quilts you enter for the Quilt Show. Registration sheets for quilts you want to enter to the Quilt Show will be on the website. Registration deadline is May 1st and then quilts will be handed in the week of the show.

Rebecka Schafer and Shirley Chaffin for National Quilting Day - March 17th at the IQSC&M. There will be four different lectures in the Seminar Room, each presented twice through the day. On third floor there will be "Teach us to Piece" stations that will result in all the parts for a Quilt of Valor quilt.

Kathy Phillip for the LQG Quilt Show - we need volunteers to white glove our show. Sign-up sheets are at the table.

Kathy Morgan for the Heritage Needlework

Guild in Nebraska City - Tickets are $1 for the raffle quilt that is on display tonight.

Wanda Hein for the International Quilt Study Center and Museum - announced events and exhibits.

Gloria Smith and Pam Wakeman for Friendship Blocks - We had 317 Slanted Star blocks. Of these, 111 were donated for us to make a quilt to donate for the Live Auction at our guild quilt show. A tote and patterns donated by Lin Gowin-O'Brien and Clare Collins was won by Kath Conroy. A small quilt and a teapot donated by Kathy Spitsen was won by Kathy Phillip. Proceeds from this month and last month go to our Quilts of Valor project.

Live Auction Goal = 100

The goal has been to have at least 100 items to auction at our biennial quilt show and the show is just over two months away! The live auction makes up the bulk of our show's profits but, as always, we need everyone to help with this most worthy endeavor. We need quilted items such as wall hangings, quilts (any size), and table runners. Maybe you have a piece that has been gently loved but just doesn't fit into your décor any more, you might think about donating the item so that someone else could enjoy it as much as you did. Please be thinking about what you or maybe your small group can make for the Live Auction. The proceeds from the auction go towards our Guild budget and will fund our needs for TWO YEARS! Thank you and we look forward to seeing what items appear on the live auction table at the March meeting.

Quilt Show Silent Auction

As you look through your cabinets for donations for the Silent Auction at the Quilt Show, pull out any magazines that you no longer need. There will be a magazine sale in March and April. Bring your extras in March, and we will have a sale in the lobby. Quilting/craft related or cooking magazines will sell for 25 cents each or 5 for a dollar. Full years will be $2.

Thanks, Vicky Skuodas

Spring 2012 • Friendship Block Pastel Rectangle Blocks

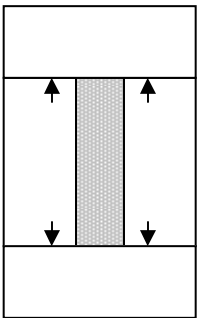

The blocks will be done in spring/pastel colored fabric.
All the centers are green.

1. Cut strips of spring/pastel green fabric into 2 ½ inch strips. Sub-cut into a 2½ x 6½ inch strip for the center of each block.

2. Cut a 3 inch strip of a printed spring/pastel colored fabric (NOT GREEN). Sub-cut this strip into two 6 ½ inch strips. Sew a strip to each side of the center green fabric, right sides together, using a ¼ inch seam. The block will now measure 6½ x 7½ inches. Press the seams towards the green center. (Follow arrows.)

3. From the same 3 inch strip of spring/pastel fabric, sub-cut two 3 X 7 ½ inch strips. With right sides together, sew the strips to the top and bottom of the block, using a ¼ inch seam. Press these seams away from the center. (Follow arrows.)

4. The block that is turned in will measure 7½ x 11½ inches.

(Winners of the blocks may wish to trim the blocks to 6½ x 10½ inches, or to a uniform size. If the blocks are trimmed, remember to trim the same amount from the top and bottom, and the same amount from each side.)

 Blocks will be turned in at the March and April Guild meetings. The drawing for the blocks will be at the April meeting. This finishes the Friendship Blocks for this Guild year.

White Glovers needed for the Quilt Show

Volunteers will be needed for the Spring Quilt show. There are shifts of 2 hours on Thursday night, Friday 10:00 am to 6:00 pm, Saturday 10:00 am to 6:00 pm and on Sunday 10:00 am to 6:00 pm. The basic shift is 10:00 am to Noon, Noon to 2:00 pm, 2:00 to 4:00 pm, etc. I would be willing to accommodate anyone's 2-hour shift they wanted to work. 8-10 volunteers are wanted per shift – hope folks will sign-up early for their choice of schedule.

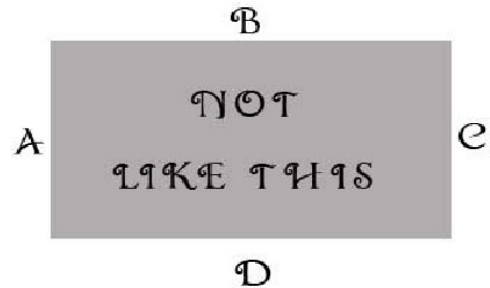

A great way to see the quilts "up close and personal" and to visit with people who love quilts for 2 hours. If someone wants to sign up for White Glove at anytime. Sign-up sheets will also be at the March, April and May meetings.

Quilt Show 2012 Challenge

Take Something Old and Let It's Sparkle Out???
Take Something Old and Make Something New???

1. Mixed Media – Use what you have around the house!
2. There must be 3 layers:
A Top – it must include fabric
A Backing – it must include fabric
A Middle – batting and/or Timtex/Peltex
3. There must be hand or machine quilting holding the three layers together.

4. It may NOT be a regular rectangle (where sides A and C are one length and sides B and D are another length).
5. Width: 30" or less
Height: 30" or less

We're looking for different shaped quilts! These would all be good. So would circular!

This project will need to be turned in for the Quilt Show at the APRIL 2012 meeting.

Suggestions:

- Stamping
- Recyclables
- Paint
- Batting on top of Peltex for middle
- (Peltex gives stability and batting, makes it feel like a quilt)
- It doesn't need to be 4-sided
- Think more or less than 4 sides!
- Found objects
- Dye
- Laces
- Yarn
