Guild Meeting May 9, 2016 - Cathy Geier presents "Patchworks that Praise"

Cathy Geier is an award-winning quilter, author, teacher and lecturer who specializes in landscape quilts. She earned her Bachelor of Arts degree in art history from the University of Wisconsin, Madison, and she sets up her landscapes with the eye of a painter who uses fabrics for her palette. Her quilts have been juried into national shows, won national and regional ribbons, and have been featured in American Quilter, Quilter's Newsletter, Fons & Porter's Love of Quilting and Quilt World magazines. She is the author of several articles and a book, Watercolor Landscape Quilts (Krause Publications). Cathy currently owns and manages Patchworks that Praise, an online quilt shop specializing in fabrics for landscape quilting.

Cathy invented and patented a new piecing technique using a tear-away foundation. This technique enables quilters to sew together multiple squares and half square triangles very quickly, easily and (most importantly) accurately. She then went on to adapt the method to sew strip-pieced and string-pieced landscapes.

Class: May 10, 2016 9:00 AM—12:00 PM
Cathy Geier— Aspen and Maple Tree Trunks

In 3 hours students will construct one very simple landscape on a whole cloth background and learn to shade tree trunks and draw simple saplings. This is a very fun 'freeing' class and introduces an easy technique for students wishing to add something special to their landscape quilts. Kits are required

President's Message

Bonnie Kucera provided us with an outstanding program in April. But of course I loved it, since I absolutely love scrap quilts. At quilt shops, estate sales, and garage sales, I am drawn to cotton fabric scraps —especially when they are tightly squished into Ziploc bags! Despite the fact that my quilting area is already overflowing with fabric-filled baggies, I cannot resist a good buy. But, mostly, I can't resist the allure of the unknown. As I pull out each little piece of fabric, it is like opening a gift on Christmas morning. Every piece, every color, every pattern – full of exciting quilting possibilities.

Not only do I collect fabric – like most quilters do – I also collect quilting-themed t-shirts. Here are a couple of my recent favorites: "Quilting Is Cheaper Than Therapy" and "I Quilt So I Don't Kill People." Hopefully no LQG members are homicidal, but let's face it, life can be stressful. During busy, difficult times in my life, I actually refer to my sewing machine as my "sanity machine." Quilting is how I decompress.

Celebrate scraps. Love your stash. And quilt your way through whatever life throws your way.

Kimberly Shelley, LQG President 2015/2016

MINUTES OF THE LINCOLN QUILTERS GUILD –April 11, 2016

College View Seventh-Day Adventist Church—Lincoln, Nebraska

Lincoln Quilters Guild President Kim Shelley called the meeting to order and welcomed members and guests. Guests were invited to join the Guild. Kim congratulated members on the “super” job they did checking-in before the meeting. She explained that many other guilds use a check-in process. This allows the Guild to know how many are in attendance and to help remind people to pay their dues.

The minutes in Plain Print were approved with no questions, additions, or corrections. The treasurer’s report was also approved with no questions, additions, or corrections and was remanded for audit.

Committee Reports

Quilt Show

Kathy Morgan and Sherry Taylor, quilt show co-chairs, visually reminded the Guild that the Quilt Show dates are October 6, 7, and 8 at St. Mark’s United Methodist Church, located at 84th and Pioneers Blvd. Kathy said that she and Sherry are happy to communicate to anybody about the Quilt Show, either by phone or by e-mail. They are in the Guild directory and information about the show will be on the Guild website. Most of the chairs for the show are filled, but they are in need of a publicity chair for the event.

At each quilt show, there is a challenge. This year it is a wall hanging and the rules will be on the website. The name of the Quilt Show is “Celebrate Community,” and the wall hanging challenge is following that theme. Kathy also encouraged members to get their raffle tickets to sell for the raffle quilt. Quilt moms are Joan Yoder and Joni Sauter. “Buy many and buy often!!!”

Kathy and Sherry have a personal challenge for members to make pin cushions to donate for the quilt auction. She showed the group a bonnet pin cushion that Anita Dover had made and donated. She also reminded Guild members to be thinking of what they can donate for the silent and live auctions during the quilt show.

Kathy stressed that there will be many volunteer opportunities for members to help make the show run smoothly and ultimately be a financial success.

Not related to the quilt show, Kathy announced that she’s also a member of the Nebraska City Needlework Guild, and she had their raffle quilt with her on display. She had raffle tickets to sell.

Native American Reservations Project

Janet Price introduced herself and explained that last year, she and Barb Caron had planned a trip to the Pine Ridge Reservation. Their goal was to offer a one-week quilt workshop and provide the women a large stash of quilt supplies. That trip fell apart just before their departure.

Janet and Barb have now established a new relationship with two women connected to the school system in Macy, NE, which is part of the Omaha Reservation. Last Wednesday, quilt supplies were delivered to Macy. The group has already sent a thank-you note and is eagerly planning projects for the community. Janet and Barb are talking with them about possibly holding a workshop there. Janet wanted to thank everyone who generously donated quilt supplies to this project. She informed Guild members that they would continue to accept quilting supply donations for this ongoing cause.

General Announcements

National Quilting Day

Sheila Green thanked those who participated in the National Quilting Day on March 19 at the International Quilt Study Center and Museum [IQSCM]. There were 99 volunteers and 622 guests that attended the event. Sheila gave a special thanks to committee members Shirley Chaffin, Holly Zemke, Wanda Hein, Sheila Beins, and Dean Young.

Nebraska 150 Quilt Competition

The official quilt competition for Nebraska’s Sesquicentennial is available. The theme is: “Inspired by Nebraska’s Diversity.” Sheila announced that anyone can enter. It’s not a requirement to be a Nebraska resident. All quilts must measure 24” square. The quilts may be embellished, but keep in mind the safety of your quilt and other quilts from damage caused by any embellishments when transported. First prize is $1,000, which is a claiming prize from the International Quilt Study Center and Museum. The second place prize is $300, and the third place prize is $200. The top three quilts, along with 6 honorable mention quilts, will travel the state in 2017. The competition is sponsored by the Nebraska State Quilt Guild.

Quilt Nebraska 2016

Quilt Nebraska, sponsored by the Nebraska State Quilt Guild, will be held in Lincoln this summer at the Cornhusker Hotel. The registration deadline is May 15. The registration book was on the table by Discover Nebraska, along with a Nebraska State Quilt Guild website brochure. LQG members who will be teaching at Quilt Nebraska are: Barb Caron, Kris Vierra, and Sheila Green. Class samples were shown, as well as a sample of the Barn Quilt painting class.

International Quilt Study Center and Museum

Bev Thurber, the IQSCM liaison, encouraged people to see the Blue Echoes exhibit by Shizuko Kuroha, which will be on display through May 25, 2016. Other exhibits are the African-American Quilts from the Cargo collection, Favorites from the Dillow Collections, and Man-Made quilts by contemporary male quilters. The IQSCM will be hosting three workshops in June. On Thursday, June 9, Victoria Findlay Wolfe will teach "Pattern Play Improv." Cost is $75 for Museum members and $85 for non-members. Polly Minick will teach "Beginning Rug Hooking" on Sunday, June 12. "Designs From Your Stash" by Linda Colsh will also be held on June 12.

Red & Green Quilt Request

Joan Yoder, president-elect, continued with General Announcements. She reported that co-vice presidents (in charge of programs) Pat Kant and Carol Curtis are requesting LQG members to bring any Red & Green quilts to the Monday, June 13 meeting. Speaker Holly Zemke cannot take quilts from the IQSCM to use during her presentation. Any Red & Green quilts that are brought to the meeting will enhance the program. See what you might find!

Holders and Folders

Joan reported that some of the new Guild members are not familiar with the term "holders and folders." Holders and Folders are volunteers who hold up quilts during programs for the speaker. After they are held up for display, the quilts are then folded and placed on tables for closer viewing after the meeting. Members are encouraged to sign up to help.

No Footprint Too Small

Joan also reported that a non-profit organization called "No Footprint Too Small" was recently established in Lincoln. The mission of the organization is to provide support and comfort to mothers and families who have experienced the loss of a pregnancy or an infant. No Footprint Too Small is looking for volunteers to make stuffed bears for grieving mothers and families. Joan held up a picture of the bears, and the photo will be located on the information table. Anyone interested in helping with this project should contact Jolie Vega via e-mail at:

jolie.l.vega@gmail.com.

Mini Quilt Raffle

Cheryl Kupcinski announced the winners of the Mini Quilt Raffle. Vicki Skoudas donated a Dresden Plate wall-hanging in vintage fabrics, which was won by Donna Svoboda. Pat Kant and Anonymous donated two charm packs, which were won by Diane Glantz. Carol Curtis donated a wall-hanging, which was won by Pam Rowland. Ann Owens donated a birdhouse wall-hanging, which was won by Marsha Conley. Prizes were picked up by the winners from Kay Hoff at the Mini Quilt

Raffle table. The Mini Quilt Raffle raised $105.50.

Programs and Classes

Pat Kant announced that there were a few slots available to take speaker Bonnie Kucera's "Field of Diamonds" class on Tuesday. She showed a couple of examples and said that the technique could be made into several different sizes.

The May class will be by Cathy Geier, who is from Wisconsin, and does landscape quilts. Pat showed a couple of examples of Kathy's landscape quilt kits needed for the class. The class will last three hours and a sewing machine is not needed.

Pat also showed an example of the kit that will be used in the June class on appliqué, taught by three LQG members. Donna Welte, Jaynee Wolf, and Carol Curtis will teach three different appliqué techniques: starch, needle-turn, and freezer paper. This will be a morning class and a sewing machine is not needed.

Pat introduced speaker Bonnie Kucera, who is a member of the Lincoln Quilters Guild, and Bonnie's husband Douglas who was in attendance. Bonnie is from Nebraska and read about a quilt guild in 1985, which changed her life. Bonnie loves her husband, but her passion is quilting!

Bonnie presented the program "From Ugly Ducklings to Shimmering Swans." Her program emphasized the study of value, the use of borders, and the use of sashings. Bonnie illustrated her points with many, many of the quilts she has made.

There was no Additional Business and the meeting was adjourned to Show and Tell.

2016 LQG Wall Quilt Challenge

The 2016 LQG Quilt Show theme is "Celebrate Community" and that will also be the theme for this year's quilt challenge.

Wall Quilt Challenge Rules:

1. Quilt must measure 24" square (not on point) and reflect your interpretation of "Celebrate Community".
2. Your work must qualify as a quilt. There must be three layers to it: top, batting & backing, and there must be stitching through all three layers. The amount of stitching is at your discretion.
3. Any technique(s) may be used.
4. Your entry must be labeled.
5. Quilt must be made by the entrant. No group entries accepted.
6. You need not be a member of the Lincoln Quilters Guild to participate in the Challenge. Community members are encouraged to participate.
7. There is no entry fee.
8. Entry Form and Deadline information will be posted on the LQG Website under Quilt Activities -Quilt Show when available.

The quilts will be judged by Roxann O'Hare, past president of LQG and owner of Cosmic Cow and the Udder Store. Roxann is a member of the Corny Bunch, CTG (Contemporary Textile Group), and Fiber Works. She will judge the quilts based on creative interpretation of the theme, innovative use of materials, composition, overall appeal, and workmanship. Please give serious consideration to participating in the challenge.

Remember to Purchase your Raffle Tickets!

Don't forget to purchase raffle tickets for the 2016 LQG Raffle Quilt, "American Pride," made and donated by LQG member, Laura Lenzen. Raffle tickets are $2 each and are available to purchase at every Guild meeting or by contacting the Raffle Quilt Moms, Joni Sauter (402-499-1858) and Joan Yoder (402-525-6826). We hope to see many of you stop by our table at the meeting.

Coming in June..... Red, White and Green All Over - Holly Zemke – June 13, 2016

Location: St. Marks United Methodist Church – 84th & Pioneers

As she comes to speak to LQG in June about nineteenth-century red and green applique quilts, Guild member Holly Zemke will have just graduated from UNL with her Masters of Art in Textile History, with an emphasis in quilt studies. She will share what she has learned thus far about this popular mid-nineteenth century quilt genre, and tell us about her 2015 research trip made possible by award of the LQG Research Scholarship.

Holly invites anyone with a red and green applique quilt especially from the nineteenth century to contact her if you would care to display and share it at the June meeting. We hope members want to “show and tell” their red and green quilts as part of the program.

It should be fun and interactive. You can reach Holly at holly.zemke@yahoo.com, or 919-395-5991.

Class: 3 Ways to Applique – June 14, 2016 – 9:00 am – 12:00 pm

New Location this month only: St. Marks United Methodist Church, 84th & Pioneers

Three talented members of the Lincoln Quilters Guild will share their methods which result in beautiful applique designs – Donna Welte, Jaynee Wolfe and Carol Curtis.

They will provide you with tips for both hand and machine applique using techniques for needle-turn, freezer paper, and starch ... it turns out there are as many different methods as there are quilters, and this class will focus on three! Regardless of how you prepare your pieces for hand or machine applique, learning how to stabilize and stitch your pieces is key. When you applique a quilt, it will be a work of art!! No machine is required
