Elsie Campbell - "Tweaking Tradition"

July 11, 2016

Even though Elsie Campbell is best known for her intricate, award-winning quilts, she started out, like many other quilters, in the field of dressmaking. After graduating from a small teacher's college in Oklahoma, she taught Home Economics and Special Education in public schools.

Elsie loves to make scrap quilts for personal enjoyment and as gifts for family and friends. Her favorite part of the quilt-making process is playing with color and value to give a contemporary twist to traditional blocks and patterns. She loves to merge today's quick and easy techniques with the beauty of old-time quilts. She hopes that you will enjoy using her quilt patterns as the starting point for creating your own original adaptations of traditional designs.

As seen in the "Squares and Triangles Scrap Quilts" book by Elsie M. Campbell.

Class: Elsie Campbell - "Love My Stash"

July 12, 2016 - 9:00 am - 3:30 pm

Need a project to slash your stash? This is the quilt for you!. Turn lots and lots of squares into half-square triangle units and into Nine-Patch blocks. Then, play on a design wall to reveal many amazing settings for your blocks. Learn how to use color and value to create effective designs while using every color in the rainbow (or in your stash!) to make this stunning quilt. (Technique; design. 5-6 hours—All Skill levels. Requires sewing machine.)

President's Message

Last month, I participated in the 14th Annual Stepping Out to Cure Scleroderma Walk. I have a relative with the fairly rare disease known as Scleroderma. The name of the condition comes from the Greek terms "sclero," meaning hard and "derma," meaning skin. Quite literally, the disease causes the skin to harden.

My cousin has limited hand movement, because the skin on her fingers has hardened, causing her fingers to permanently curl inward. She has had several painful procedures to help restore some mobility to her hands and fingers. However, there are many things that she used to enjoy doing that she is no longer capable of. In spite of her health issues, my cousin's outlook and attitude are consistently optimistic. She both humbles and inspires me.

While at the Stepping Out event, I decided that my next quilt project will be for her. It will be a throw quilt made from the various t-shirts distributed at each Stepping Out event she has attended. My intention is that when she wraps herself in the quilt, she will feel as though she is being hugged by everyone who loves her and everyone fighting to find a cure.

Kimberly Shelley, LQG President 2015/2016

Thank You!

THANK YOU, Lincoln Quilters Guild!

After the June meeting, 16 people bought 10 or more raffle tickets. We still need to sell 1500 tickets, but I know we can do it! REMEMBER, everyone that buys 10 or more tickets will have their name put in a drawing for a quilt book.

Lincoln Quilters Guild Meeting—June 13, 2016—St. Mark's United Methodist Church

LQG president, Kim Shelley, called the meeting to order. Kim explained that the Guild will meet next month back at the Seventh Day Adventist Church, where we normally meet. There was a scheduling conflict for tonight's meeting. She pointed out that our quilt show will be held at St. Mark's United Methodist Church in October 2016 and that the quilts will be on display in the room where we were meeting.

Kim further explained her reasoning in holding May's Quilt Guild meeting, despite bad weather. The speaker was there, she had been paid, and Kim felt that it was up to Guild members to decide whether or not to attend. Precedent had been established when Bonnie Hunter had been the LQG meeting speaker during a severe snow storm. Kim suggested that in future situations for members to check the LQG website and to also check email for the status of the meeting. If the speaker is here, the meeting will probably take place as scheduled. Members will need to decide if they feel safe in traveling to the meeting, if the meeting is not officially cancelled.

Kim welcomed eight visitors and invited them to join the Guild.

There were no additions or corrections to the May minutes in the Plain Print, and they were approved as written. There were no questions or corrections to the Treasurer's report. It was remanded for audit.

New Business—Kim shared that the LQG Board decided that it was time to have a formal policy about on-line posting. When LQG was first formed in the 1970's, communication was very different! The Board set up some simple guidelines so that anybody who is posting on behalf of our organization is doing so in a way that is in keeping with LQG's goals. Kim read the guidelines that the Board approved.

This is the Lincoln Quilters Guild Online Policy, as passed by the LQG Board 06/06/2016:

Philosophy: Lincoln Quilters Guild [LQG] is committed to communicating current and accurate information about Guild activities specifically and about quilts and quilting arts generally. LQG will strive to ensure that communications are succinct, relevant, convenient to access, easy to navigate, and positive in nature. Therefore, LQG will utilize available online tools

(such as, but not limited to, webpages, Facebook, and email) to achieve these goals.

Online Posts made on behalf of LQG may be made by:

- Any member of the Executive Board.
- Chair of any Standing or Ad Hoc LQG Committee for information related to that committee.
- LQG President for all other matters.

Online Posts of LQG must adhere to 1 or more of these guidelines:

- Post is about events or activities held or sponsored by Lincoln Quilters Guild.
- Post celebrates an award, achievement, or other recognition earned by a member of LQG. Such posts may include the LQG member's name, but no mention will be made of any for-profit entity associated with that member (such as a quilt shop, professional quilting business, Etsy site, etc.).
- Post provides information about quilt-related events or activities held by non-profit organizations. Post may include information about quilt events or quilt shows which charge admission fees.
- Posts concerning the activities of a specific LQG Committee should be posted by the Chair of that Committee.

Online Posts of LQG may NOT include:

- Solicitation for volunteers, financial contributions, and/or in-kind contributions by any non-LQG organization. This includes all other state and local quilting charities and quilt guilds.
- Advertisement for items or services for sale by an individual or a for-profit entity.

Individual Posting on the LQG Facebook Page:

- LQG encourages posting by individuals on the LQG Facebook Page.
- Posts should be relevant to the stated goals and the activities of LQG.
- Posts should be positive and respectful of all.
- The LQG Executive Board reserves the right to remove any post deemed irrelevant or disrespectful.

Kim asked for any comments or feedback about the policy.

Vicki Skuodas stated she thought the policy was logical and fair and represented the interests of LQG.

Committee Reports--

Kathy Morgan, one of the quilt show chairs, reported. The Quilt Show will be October 6-8, Thursday through Saturday at St. Mark's United Methodist Church. She encouraged people to check the LQG website for more details. The Quilt Show will be all day both Thursday and Friday. On Saturday, the Quilt Show will close at 3 p.m. The Live Quilt Auction will be held on Thursday, after quilt show hours. There will be a reception in the hallway before the auction starts. The Quilt Show exhibits will be closed, and the Live Auction will be in the room across the hallway. Kathy reminded those at the LQG meeting that the Quilt Show is not just to display our work, but to make money for LQG programs and outreach.

There will be both a Live Auction and a Silent Auction in conjunction with the Quilt Show. Members should be thinking about items they can donate for the auctions, as well as friends that might like to purchase items at the auctions. Donations for the auctions can be brought to any LQG meeting and dropped off at the Quilt Show table. Kathy requested NO magazines. There are sign-up sheets at the Quilt Show table for members to sign-up to work at the show. Job descriptions are also available at the table. Quilt Show committee members will contact you to figure out the work schedule.

The pin cushion challenge from Kathy and Sherry Taylor will go on the Silent Auction. Kathy showed a pin cushion that she made to donate. She encouraged others to make and donate pin cushions.

Quilt Mom, Joni Sauter, reported that she and her co-chair Joan Yoder have raffle tickets for the beautiful "American Pride" quilt donated by Laura Lenzen. Since the Guild did not pay to have a raffle quilt made this year, all proceeds from the raffle tickets go directly to the Guild to maintain all the programs the Guild provides. So far, 760 tickets have been sold. There are over 1700 tickets remaining. Tickets are $2 this year, for two reasons—less tickets to sell and a ticket-holder has a better chance to win the quilt. Joni said that if every one of the 272 LQG members bought 10 tickets for $20, all the tickets would be sold! She pointed out that you can't even buy two yards of fabric for $20! As an incentive, for every member that buys 10 tickets, she will put each member's name in a drawing for a lovely quilting book. Tickets are available for purchase before and after each Guild meeting at the Raffle Quilt table.

Kathy Morgan reminded Guild members that there is a Quilt Challenge for the Quilt Show. The Challenge Quilt should be 24" square. Details are on the LQG website.

General Announcements—

Sheila Green announced that there are two upcoming Nebraska State Quilt Guild [NSQG] events. Quilt Nebraska will be July 28-31 at the Cornhusker Hotel in Lincoln. The registration deadline is June 22. The registration book that has classes and lectures still available are marked and can be viewed at the Discover Nebraska table. Three noteworthy national teachers with space available are Patty Hawkins, Jane Sassaman, and Susie Monday. Even if you aren't registered for Quilt Nebraska, you can still come and shop the merchant's mall, view quilt displays, or attend the live quilt auction featuring auctioneer Brenda Groetz.

The second NSQG announcement by Sheila was for Threads Across Nebraska which will be held in Kearney, October 14-15. LQG has been asked to display 10 quilts—5 small and 5 large, each made by a different maker. Submission forms and brochures are at the Discover Nebraska table and are due in August. Bonnie Kucera volunteered to deliver the quilts to Kearney on Thursday, October 13 and pick them up at the conclusion of Threads Across Nebraska on October 15. Classes will be offered by local teachers Peg Pennell, Peg Spradlin, Bonnie Kucera, and Dee Acklie at Threads Across Nebraska. Sheila shared a very clever "rap" thank-you note from an Adams Elementary school student for Discover Nebraska. The Guild enjoyed the message and creativity of the student!

Bev Thurber reported on exhibits at the International Quilt Study Center and Museum [IQSC&M]. Israeli artist Maya Chaimovich has an exhibit entitled "Waypoint," which opened May 10 and will run through August 7. This is the first time the IQSC&M has had an Israeli artist exhibit. "Favorites from the Byron and Sara Rhodes Dillow Collection" will run through August 21. "Man-Made: Contemporary Male Quilters" runs through June 19. Bev also reported that "Quilts of Southwest China" is a new exhibit which opened June 3 and will run through September 28. She gave some descriptions of the exhibits and encouraged members to go to the Museum to see them.

Joan Yoder had two announcements. Mourning Hope needs fleece blankets for use at Camp Erins in September. The Camp is for children who have lost a parent or sibling. They need approximately 60 blankets, and they currently have 10. If you are interested in donating, please contact Judy Robins with Project Linus at phone number (402) 261-5168 or via email at lincolnprojectlinus@outlook.com. Joan also reported that Lyme Warrior is a nonprofit organization battling Lyme Disease. Proceeds go to research for a cure. The group is planning an event in May 2017. A gallery or show will be held showcasing quilts with Lyme or Warrior themes. The quilts will be raffled at the end of the event. If you are interested in contributing, please contact Lauren Lovejoy at www.LymeWarrior.us.

Cheryl Kupcinski announced Mini Raffle winners. Winners picked up their prizes from Kay Hoff at the Mini Raffle table. Janet Phillips won a fabric purse donated by Marsha Conley. Carol Curtis won a pin cushion, block kit, thread box, and needle holder donated by Bonnie Kucera. Janet Phillips won a mini quilt donated by Bonnie Kucera. Beverly Vogel won a mini quilt donated by Anonymous. Juanita Williamson won a mini quilt donated by Christina and Larry Chapman. Cheryl reported that $107.50 was collected. Donations for the coming months would be appreciated.

President Kim Shelley announced that the Nebraska State Fair had a couple of representatives at the table in the back. They can answer questions about the fair, and they are looking for people to sign up to white glove during the fair.

Kim also informed the group that LQG Membership books are available for $2. They list of members is current as of April 2016. The membership directory is also available on the LQG website.

Program Co-Chair Pat Kant reminded attendees that the class for the next day, Tuesday, June 7, was "3 Ways to Applique." The instructors were Guild members Carol Curtis, Donna Welte, and Jaynee Wolfe.

Program Co-Chair Carol Curtis held up the sample for next month's class with Elsie Campbell, called "Love My Stash." The name of the quilt is "Triangles." It's a scrap quilt, and the pattern is in Elsie's book which she will have available for purchase. Pat reported that the August class with Jenny Doan is full. Pat is hoping to get a larger classroom so more people can sign up for the class. Pat introduced the meeting's speaker. Holly Zemke is an LQG member who was the recipient of the Guild's scholarship in 2015. Holly used the funds for a research trip. She recently received her Masters of Art in textile history with an emphasis in quilt studies. Several LQG members brought a total of eleven quilts to complement Holly's computer-aided talk "Red, White, and Green All Over" about 19th Century quilts. After Holly's talk, there was no additional business, and Kim adjourned the meeting to show and tell.

Respectfully submitted
Pam Wakeman
LQG Secretary

Discover Nebraska

What a wonderful school year! We presented at 37 schools, 127 classrooms of 4th graders eager to learn more about the history of the state of Nebraska and quilting! A big "thank you" to our loyal volunteers who are not reimbursed for all the miles they drive or time in the classroom.

Here's a list of the volunteers: Jean Ang, Sheila Green, Ken Green, Margie Propp, Jim Kohler, Lorelee Novak, Dorothy Neill, Carolyn Kitterer, Gordon Bair, Bonnie Moses, Zita Schneider, Sue Pope, Lynn Grams, Linda Anderson, Maggie McGowan, Jan Gustafson, Irene Newhouse, and Janice Kirchhoff. Two of our presentations were held at the International Quilt Study Center & Museum.

We would LOVE to have your help in the classroom next year! Contact Sheila Green to learn more. Visit our website at www.DiscoverNebraska.org

Lincoln Quilters Guild
2016 Quilt Show - "Celebrate Community"

October 6 – 8

St. Mark's United Methodist Church, 84th & Pioneers

Registration Guidelines

All members of the Lincoln Quilters Guild (LQG) are encouraged to exhibit quilts in the 2016 LQG Quilt Show – "Celebrate Community." The following guidelines will help LQG members plan their entries and help quilt show volunteers with the proper display and return of items.

Please read carefully before completing registration form(s)!

Exhibitor must be a member of the Lincoln Quilters Guild unless he/she is entering a quilt in the Wall Quilt Challenge.

Entry must not have been exhibited in a previous LQG Biennial Quilt Show.

Quilt Show entries are limited to three items per member.

Quilt Show Categories are:

General: Includes bed quilts (crib to king size), studio quilts, wall hangings, throws, miniatures, table runners, art quilts, 3-D items (garment, purse, journal, etc.), or a quilt series (maximum of four items in a series - counts as one entry).

Intergenerational Quilts: Limit one entry per child. A majority of the quilt project is made by a child with minimal help of an LQG member. Entry does not count towards the entry limit of three items per member.

Wall Quilt Challenge: Limit of one entry per person (see Wall Quilt Challenge Guidelines for additional information). Entry does not count towards the entry limit of three items per member (if the entrant is an LQG member).

A separate registration form must be completed for each entry.

All entries must be finished. A hanging sleeve is not necessary.

All entries must be clean, smoke free, and odor free.

A label containing the entrant's name and the title of the entry must be permanently attached to the back of each quilt. For 3-D items, a 3"x5" index card containing the entrant's name and title of the entry must be affixed to the entry.

If insurance is desired for an entry, it is the sole responsibility of the exhibitor to obtain it, and it is at the exhibitor's expense.

All items entered in the Quilt Show may be photographed as well as video-taped. Flash photography will be allowed at the Quilt Show. Images may be used by LQG on their website, Facebook page, or for other media and promotional purposes.

All quilts will remain on display for the duration of the quilt show. Quilts will not be released until the entire show is taken down. Detailed instructions for pick-up will be given at the time of quilt drop-off.

You are encouraged to register entries online; however, if you do not have online access, paper copies of the registration form will be available at the Quilt Show Table at LQG meetings. Completed forms can be turned in at LQG meetings or mailed to Lorelee Novak, P.O. Box 22295, Lincoln, NE 68542 by the deadline.

All items registered for the 2016 Quilt Show should be delivered to St. Mark's United Methodist Church, 84th & Pioneers, on Tuesday, October 4. Drop-off times: 7:15 AM-12:00 (Noon) & 4:00-7:00 PM.

REGISTRATION DEADLINE: SEPTEMBER 30, 2016.

To register online: Go to www.lincolnquiltersguild.org and look for: Guild Activities, Quilt Show, Quilt Show Registration. NOTE: Online registration will not go live until after the July Guild meeting.
