Trunk Show featuring Jenny Doan of Missouri Star Quilt Company
August 8, 2016

At the Missouri Star Quilt Company [MSQC], it is difficult to know who is more famous, the chicken that quacks or Jenny Doan. With MSQC as the largest supplier of pre-cut fabric in the world, Jenny has stitched together quick and easy quilts full of love, fun, and laughter. Combining Jenny's love of teaching and experience as a former costume designer, her YouTube tutorials have skyrocketed her to quilting stardom. At over 28 million views, Jenny's contagious personality has warmed viewers' hearts all over the world. With the help of Jenny's husband, 7 children, and 21 grandchildren, this family-run business has turned Hamilton, Missouri, into a candyland for quilters.

Now's your chance to meet YouTube quilting "sewlebrity" Jenny Doan of the Missouri Star Quilt Company. Jenny has created over 300 easy-to-follow videos to help millions of quilters around the world. At this special lecture and signing, Jenny will cover her favorite tips and tricks in person. Jenny will share how she created over 20 of her latest quilts. These quilts are featured in the MSQC's YouTube tutorials and many in the Block magazine. After the trunk show, you can meet Jenny as she autographs your Block! You won't want to miss this!

Class: Disappearing Nine Patch! With Jenny Doan
August 9, 2016

Time: 9:00-11:00 a.m. Class Instruction- Set up beginning at 8:30 a.m.
11:00 a.m. – 3:00 p.m. Open Sewing

Location: College View Seventh-Day Adventist Church, 49th and Prescott Ave.
Come in door number 2 on the south ground level.

The Disappearing Nine Patch is a simple variation on the traditional. Block. This is an ideal pattern for a scrap quilt and great way to use those charm-square packs. An easy Disappearing Nine Patch quilt pattern, this class is perfect for quilters of all skill levels, including beginners. The results are several varying patterns – it will be fun to look for the possibilities. And the best part is, it is easy and fun to put together a quick quilt which will look like a complex pattern.... Really!!!

President's Message

The Lincoln Quilters Guild is more than halfway through 2016. We have had 5 meetings, and we still have 4 meetings, 4 classes, a Quilt Show, and many other activities left to complete before our final meeting of 2016.

This is the time of year when members of the Nominations Committee begin to seek out LQG members to fill officer positions for the coming year. This is also the time when President-Elect Joan Yoder will begin to seek out chairs and members for the various committees of Lincoln Quilters Guild.

Did you know that LQG currently has 10 officers and 26 committees? At minimum, each committee consists of at least one LQG member. Many committees should be composed of 3, 4, or even 5 members. That means that nearly 1 out of every 6 LQG members is needed to serve – each year.

If you have served for many years as an officer or committee member, I thank you, and I encourage you to continue your much-needed service to this organization that we all love. If you have never volunteered or it has been several years since you last served, I encourage you to help out. The old adage is true, "Many hands make light work."

I realize that individuals generally don't want to volunteer for something new or unfamiliar. In an effort to help you help LQG, the Board will be adding descriptions of the duties for each committee to the "For Members" section of the LQG website. That way, you can peruse the list and see what you might enjoy. Some LQG committees require only a minimum of time and effort – so these would be great places to begin sharing your talents with LQG. In addition, serving as an officer or committee member is a great way to meet new people, make great quilting friends, and to learn more about all of the awesome work done by Lincoln Quilters Guild.

At the August meeting, a "Volunteer Box" will be located at the sign-in table. A form will be available for you to indicate ways in which you are willing to serve LQG in 2017. If everyone will do a little, LQG can accomplish a lot.

Kimberly Shelley, LQG President 2015/2016

Lincoln Quilters Guild Meeting—July 11, 2016—College View Seventh-Day Adventist Church

President Kim Shelley called the meeting to order. She welcomed all in attendance and thanked everyone for signing in. She said that the information gathered from the check-in has been helpful, such as how many attended, etc. There were 8 visitors at this meeting.

There were no questions or corrections to the minutes of the June meeting. Minutes were approved as printed in the Plain Print.

There were no questions or corrections to the May Treasurer's report in the July Plain Print. Treasurer's report was remanded for audit.

There was no Old Business and no New Business.

Committee Reports

Quilt Show (announced by various members of the Quilt Show Committee)

Kathy Morgan, Quilt Show co-chair with Sherry Taylor, reminded the group that the Quilt Show is October 6-8. The show will be held at St. Mark's United Methodist Church. Volunteer sign-up sheets are at the Quilt Show table, along with job descriptions of positions needed for the Quilt Show. Indicate what area(s) you are interested in helping out with. Someone will contact those who sign-up to commit you to work and to schedule the day and time. She said that they really need the help of some men to hang quilts for the show. Check with the men in your life, to see if they would be willing and available to help!

Registration forms to enter quilts in the Quilt Show are also available at the Quilt Show table. They can also be filled out online.

Kathy reminded members of the co-chair pincushion challenge. The donated pincushions will be auctioned at the Quilt Show. Phyllis Horn donated an adorable owl pincushion, and Ann Hauder donated several magnetic pin holders. More pincushions are needed! Donations for both live and silent auction items can be brought to the Quilt Show table at the Guild meetings.

There are only two more meetings left before the show. The Quilt Show committee is looking forward to seeing all of the creative and generous donations. The Live Auction will be on the first evening of the Quilt Show (Thursday, October 6). A reception will be held 5-6 p.m. and will include refreshments. The Live Auction will be held 6-9 p.m. Kathy reminded Guild members that revenue from the Quilt Show pays for the rent of meeting space and for the cost of the speakers. Invite people who may not only enjoy the show, but who are likely to want to bid/purchase items at the show!

DeEtte Turgeon (chair of the Silent Auction) suggested that members donate themed baskets for the Silent Auction. She provided some examples of themed baskets: baby items like bibs and a receiving blanket; holiday or gift items; sports/Husker themed items; or food, such as soup, chocolate, etc. Use your imagination and be creative. DeEtte encouraged Guild small groups to contribute themed baskets. She said that each Silent Auction item will have a bidding sheet with a minimum bid clearly stated. Many Silent Auction items will include a "Buy Now" price, which will enable Quilt Show attendees to pay for the item immediately and take it with them. All donated items should be newly made or purchased and in good condition. Donated items can be brought to the next two Guild meetings in August and September.

Joan Yoder, "Quilt Mom" co-chair with Joni Sauder, encouraged members to purchase raffle tickets to sell. At the June meeting, 16 attendees each bought $20.00 worth of tickets (160 tickets total). Another 138 tickets were sold prior to the July meeting.

Phyllis Higley, Quilt Show Challenge co-chair with Kristie Jarchow, announced the theme of the Quilt Show and Quilt Show Challenge—"Celebrate Community." She encouraged people to get started on the challenge! The quilt should be 24" square and have three layers stitched together! Use any techniques to highlight your interpretation of the theme "Celebrate Community." The quilts will be judged by Roxann O'Hare. There will also be a Viewers' Choice award—so bring your friends! With their input, you could win the award!

The Quilt Show Challenge "Celebrate Community" is truly a community activity. You don't need to be a member of Lincoln Quilters Guild to submit a challenge quilt. Encourage your friends to participate, even if they've never quilted before! (Show co-chair Kathy Morgan said that her 7- and 9-year-old daycare kids are going to participate in the challenge!) Remember, only one quilt can be entered per person, and there can be no group entries. Full details can be found on the LQG webpage, under Guild activities > Quilt Show.

Holly Zemke is the Publicity Chair for the Quilt Show. Holly is asking to borrow members' best quilts, which will be professionally photographed in creative locations throughout Lincoln. The photos will be used in publicity to support the Quilt Show theme of "Celebrate Community." The deadline for submitting a snapshot and the dimensions of the quilt is JULY 20! Submission details can be found on the LQG Facebook page. Up to ten quilts will be selected to be professionally photographed. LQG Awards (announced by Awards Committee member Jaynee Wolfe)
It's the time of year for LQG members to think about who deserves to receive an award. There are 3 categories –
1) Lincoln Quilters Guild Life Member— This is the highest honor awarded to a member for lifetime achievement and significant contributions to LQG.
2) Lincoln Quilters Guild Bright Star— This is awarded for consistent member achievement and continuing involvement for the betterment of LQG.
3) Lincoln Quilters Guild Shining Star— This is awarded for a significant contribution to LQG for a single past project or an on-going project.

The nomination deadline is September 1, 2016. Nomination forms can be found in the August Plain Print, can be downloaded from the LQG website, or can be obtained from members of the Awards Committee: Jaynee Wolfe, Willa Smith, and Rosalind Carr. Completed forms can be mailed to: LQG Awards, P.O. Box 6861, Lincoln, NE 68506; or forms can be given to LQG President Kim Shelley.

General Announcements (announced by President-Elect Joan Yoder)

Several LQG ironing boards have gone missing from the storage closet at the Seventh-Day Adventist Church. If you have any information about where the missing ironing boards may be, please contact President Kim Shelley. In the meantime, if you have an ironing board that you are willing to donate to LQG to replace the missing ones, please see Kim.

Susan Hertzler is trying to coordinate a Quilted Conscience Project at Lincoln High School this fall. She is seeking volunteers to assist with this project. If you are interested, please contact Susan at (402) 436-1301, extension 61305.

For those not registered for Quilt-Nebraska, there are 8 different lecture tickets available for Friday and Saturday, July 29 and 30. Tickets are $15 each and are available from Sheila Green. Lectures run the gamut of topics, from machine quilting by Kris Vierira, to trunk shows by Brenda Groelz and Diane Harris, to Modern Quilting. Lectures will be held at the Cornhusker Hotel and the International Quilt Study Center & Museum. Sheila also has handouts for all you can do at Quilt-Nebraska if you are not registered for the conference.

Please see Sheila Green if you would like to offer a quilt for display at Threads Across Nebraska in October.

The LQG Library reports that very few books that have been checked out are being returned. Many Guild library books are still "at home." Please check through your book collection at home and return those overdue books. Please! We need to share.

Mini Raffle (announced by Mini Raffle co-chair Cheryl Kupcinski)
$87.50 was collected for the Mini Quilt Raffle tonight. Patty Shelley won a scrap quilting book and a bag of scraps donated by Sharon Minear. Kathy Benetch won a bag full of vintage fabrics donated by Kathy Sus Spitzen. Sandy Anderson won a small quilt and a tips book donated by Anonymous. Holly Zemke won a thread box and patterns donated by Anonymous. Sandy Hanson won a book donated by speaker Elsie Campbell. Raffle prizes were picked up from Mini Raffle co-chair Kay Hoff at the Mini Raffle Table. Cheryl reminded "Anonymous" that donors to the Mini Raffle receive raffle tickets as a thank you for contributing items.

Program (announced by Vice-President co-chair Carol Curtis)

The August class with Jenny Doan, "Disappearing 9-Patch," will be held in the LQG Meeting Room at the College View Seventh-Day Adventist Church. Jenny will teach for 2 hours, from 9-11 a.m. Class participants can stay for open sewing from 11 a.m.-3:00 p.m. Those taking the class can either bring a lunch or can go out to lunch. Carol showed a sample from September's class by Yvonne Hollenbeck--the "Orphan Block Calendar." Pat Kant reminded attendees that those who finish a class project and show it at a Guild meeting will receive a prize. Vice-President co-chair Pat Kant introduced the evening's speaker, Elsie Campbell. Elsie began sewing by dressmaking. Elsie taught Home Economics and Special Education. She learned quilt-making from her Mennonite Church Society. She likes to make scrap quilts, which often become gifts for friends and family. Elsie likes playing with color and value to give older quilt patterns a modern twist. Elsie lives in Ponca City, Oklahoma. Her PowerPoint presentation and quilts were enjoyed by Guild members and visitors as Elsie talked about "Tweaking Tradition."

The meeting was adjourned to "Show and Tell."

Yvonne Hollenbeck - "Patchwork of the Prairie" Trunk Show - September 12, 2016

www.yvonnehollenbeck.com

Yvonne's program entitled "Patchwork of the Prairie" is one of the finest presentations in the Heartland. Yvonne shows her collection of family quilts, spanning 140 years, including her own prize-winning creations. Poetry about quilts and quilters is presented throughout this awesome trunk show, which is enjoyed by men and women alike.

In addition to numerous awards as an author and a poet, she also won Better Homes and Garden's Home Sweet Home Contest in 1989. "Sundown on a Century" was displayed by Better Homes and Gardens at the International Quilt Festival in Houston, the largest quilt show in the world! "Springtime in Dakota," made as a wedding quilt for Yvonne's daughter, won every contest ever entered and also won Better Homes and Gardens' Home Sweet Home contest and was displayed in Houston with their collection!

Yvonne Hollenbeck - "Orphan Block Calendar" Class: September 13, 2016 - 9:00 a.m. - 3:30 p.m.
