New Business

President-elect Announcements – Lisa Burham

The guild was saddened to hear the following news: the sudden passing of Don Blue who helped the guild for many years by setting up tables and chairs for monthly meetings. The guild will miss him. Judy Lane's stepson was recently killed in an accident. Elizabeth Sterns husband passed away. Our thoughts are with these guild members in their loss.

The guild was recently approached by an individual who wants to give away a hand quilting frame to someone who can use it. If you are interested, please contact Jean Stilwell at 402-730-4908.

As we move into winter break, there are a number of activities or events to keep in mind:

- Renew your membership before December 31st so you can benefit from the early bird discount
- Make Cuddle Quilts by contacting Vicky Skuodas
- Make Quilts of Valor by contacting Sarah Kenny
- Make placemats for the Meals on Wheels project by contacting Jerry Lee Jensen
- Gather fabric to donate to see at the Isles Garage Sale. For simplicity sake, only fabric will be sold. Please bring donations to the March guild meeting. Please be sure the items will be clean and in good order.
Please mark the donation piece with the size such as: use a sharpie on masking tape. If unable to attend the March meeting, contact Lisa Burham at 402-560-3151 or lisaburham@gmail.com to make other arrangements.

Mark your calendars to attend the sale on March 29th.

- Consider which quilts you want to enter in 2020:
 - The LQG quilt show July 17 & 18
 - The Lancaster County Fair July 30-August 8
 - The Nebraska State Fair at the end of August
- Enjoy fabric and conversation with your family and friends looking forward to the next guild year
- The guild often receives thank you cards from individuals or family members of individuals who received quilts of comfort from the LQG group. These and other items of correspondence can be seen at the information table along with other items of interest.

Announcements and Committee Reports

International Quilt Museum (IQM) Liaison – Ann Hauder

The newest exhibition at the International Quilt Museum is Diana Harrison: Traces in Cloth. Her works are abstract and striking. She starts with black fabric and then works backward, taking the color out. Her process is risky, as she often stitches her three-layered quilt together before applying discharge paste to remove some of the color from various areas. She may then print with white pigment or red dye. In a few pieces, she has even burnt holes with a wood burning tool. Her works will change your perspective on quilts and may even inspire you to take more creative risks. November 1, 2019 – April 26, 2020

There is an opportunity to help the museum and the Lincoln Public Schools. For the second year, LPS 4th graders are visiting the museum and going on tours designed specifically for them. The tours are done by museum staff, docents and volunteers. More help is needed to cover all of the tours. The tours last 45-50 minutes, visiting three galleries. The 4th graders have been delighted to see these works of art first-hand. Interested volunteers should call the museum at 402-472-6549 to shadow a tour and see what it's all about.

Thank you so much for all donations for the Friends Table at the 6th Annual Friends of IQM Art Market will be held November 22-23 at the museum. One hundred percent of the proceeds from your donation goes to the quilt museum. Please attend the Art Market and shop. In addition to the Friends Table, you'll find handmade items from 19 area artists just in time for holiday giving. Admission to the museum on those two days is free so, while you're at the Art Market, be sure and stop in the galleries and see the current exhibitions. Thank you to LQG members for their support.

Name tag Recognition – Rosalind Carr

Rosalind presented the following members with a fat quarter for wearing their name tag to the meeting: Joyce Jesse, Jill Hage, Betty Doty, Jacque Riese, Joan Yoder and Caroline Forstrom.

Mini Quilt Raffle – Nancy Anderson & Marti Franti

$107.50 was made by the mini raffle. Winners of the four awarded mini-raffle items were:

1. Quiltopoly Game, puzzle - donated by Leola Kahl - won by Lori Miller
2. Mrs. Clause Figurine - donated by Diane Glantz - won by Julie Albrecht
3. Quilted Art Piece - donated by Chris Taylor - won by Barb Brown
4. Double Wedding Ring Book, 5 oriental fabrics, quilting gloves - donated by Natalie Cummings - won by Joyce Pope
5. Angel Table Topper, Angel figurine, pattern - donated by Marge Bunde - won by Marge Bunde

2020 Quilt Show – Vicky Skuodas & Joan Yoder

The theme for the 2020 Quilt Show is Sun & Fun. The quilt challenge is Fun in the Sun and so quilts must contain a sun. Chris Taylor will be the featured quilter with a trunk show. Book marks are available. Let Vicky or Joan know if you have an event where the Quilt can be displayed and raffle tickets can be sold.

Placemat Project – Caroline Forstrom & Linda Gale

The Meals on Wheels would like the LQG members to make 500 placemats by December of 2020. They will be delivering them to their clients. Size recommendation is 13 x 18. Samples of placemats were displayed. Caroline will be out of town until next April so contact Jerry Lee Jensen or Kathie Baumbach who will be collecting the placemats. Linda Gale demonstrated a simple binding method that can be used on placemats.

Installation of New Officers - Kath Conroy

Kath installed the following new officers of the LQG for 2020:

President: Lisa Burham

President Elect: Connie Soucie

Vice President Programs: Linda Gale & Janiece Goin

Vice-Presidents Elect for Programs: Marti Franti and Nancy Anderson

Treasurer: Pam Rowland

Treasurer Elect: Sandy Hanson

Secretary: Joyce Nass

Advisor: Christina Chapman

Programs – Janiece Goin, Linda Gale, Julie Albrecht and Marilyn Schnepf

The next LQG meeting is Monday, March 9, 2020 and the speaker is Katie Pasquini Masopust who will demonstrate how she paints with cloth.

For nearly 30 years, Katie has produced high quality contemporary art quilts that have been coveted and collected by a broad range of admirers. From her early beginnings as a painter dabbling in traditional quilt making, her work has evolved from structured Mandalas and mind-blowing dimensional pieces to very painterly landscapes and abstracts executed with the finest fabrics and most creative stitching techniques.

Katie's all-day workshop is Tuesday, March 10, 2020 and titled "Artful Log Cabins". You can go to her website Katiepm.com to see a picture of the class project. Her website is listed on the bookmarks you received with your membership packet and it is also printed on the LQG website homepage, www.lincolnquiltersguild.org. Registrations are being taken for the class by mailing your registration and $55 to Janiece. The list of supplies registrants should bring is provided on the website and Katie's website. Please invite your friends to share in the program and workshop.

Julie Albrecht introduced Ilene Bartos, the November program presenter.

Lisa Burham presented a beautiful Hunter's Star quilt to Christina Chapman for her year of dedicated service. Lisa made the quilt to express LQG thanks to Christina for a job well done and her service to the guild.

Meeting adjourned,

Respectfully submitted by:

Jerry Lee Jensen, Secretary
