President Elect Announcements –Read by Connie Soucie

1. The Scholarship Committee is seeking applicants for the 2021 Scholarship that the Lincoln Quilters Guild offers each year to an individual who is engaged in the study of quilting or textile history or conservation. Encourage anyone you might know who meets the qualifications to apply (qualifications are located on the Guild website, lincolnquiltersguild.org). The deadline for application is April 1, 2020.
2. Thank you to all who brought donations for the upcoming Isles Sale on Sunday, March 29th. Information about the Sale is on the chairs tonight and is also on the Information Table. Be sure and stop by the Isles Sale on the 29th.
3. A reminder that Dick Salem is seeking crazy quilts to be donated for the purpose of displaying them in a meeting room at Holy Trinity Church at 6001 A Street in Lincoln. Contact Dick at 402-477-4444 or 402-430-6750 if you have a crazy quilt that you are interested in sharing with them.

4. We've received many items over the break that are displayed on the Information Table. Take a second to stop by this table. The Guild often receives thank you cards from folks whose lives have been touched by the quilts given to them by our guild. Just last year our guild made and donated 546 Cuddle Quilts! Great job Guild! These and other interesting items of correspondence can be seen at the Information Table located at the Main entrance to our meeting room.

Nametag Recognition - Rosalind Carr

Rosalind presented the following members with a fat quarter for wearing their name tag to the meeting: Kath Conroy, Carol Pavlish, Pam Rodgers, Chris Taylor, Lynn Willey.

Committee reports:

New Members Group spotlight and Bernina certificate - Linda Gale

1. Bernina $25 Gift Certificate - awarded to Jacque Riese
2. Linda presented a "Small Group Spotlight" about The New Member group. This group, consisting of 10-15 individuals, is intended to help new members (Guild members for 3 years or less) get acquainted within a small group setting that is less intimidating than the larger guild meetings. The group is led by Linda Gale and Kathi Schmitter who plan fun activities that may include projects like a Round Robin or making placemats that are then donated to a charity. The group also goes on road trips and usually visits the UNL Innovation Campus each year. Quilting terms that may be unfamiliar to new quilters (e.g., fat quarters, jelly rolls, etc.) are introduced. All new members are welcome and this group meets at 7 pm on the Wednesday following the Guild meeting at the north Michaels store at 400 N 48th St, Lincoln.

National Quilting Day—Sheila Green

1. National Quilting Day March 21, 2020 (9am to 4 pm) at the International Quilt Museum, 33rd and Holdrege, Lincoln. Parking is free.
2. Work schedule is located at the Cuddle Quilts table - there are still some openings so please consider signing up for a shift or extend your shift. Volunteer confirmation information will be sent out by email tomorrow.

IQM—Ann Hauder

1. One of the newer exhibitions at the International Quilt Museum is CYANOTYPE: LASTING IMPRESSIONS. This is an exhibition of Fiber Works. Fiber Works is a group of twelve artists from southeastern Nebraska. These artists created blue images in their quilts using the cyanotype process. This process involves treating fabric with a solution of two chemicals that, when exposed to ultraviolet light, develop an intense blue color. November 26, 2019 - May 17, 2020.
2. Tuesday Talks at the museum are resuming Tuesday, March 24. Tuesday Talks are held in the seminar room on the fourth Tuesday of the month from 12:00-12:45 pm. Every month from March through October, a Nebraska quiltmaker will share some of their work in a trunk show. This month's guest presenter is Kari Ronning, who was part of the Quilt Documentation Project and who is a past President of LQG. Tuesday Talks are complimentary with admission.

Thank you all for supporting Art Market last November at the museum. Because of your support in the form of donating items to the Friends Table and shopping at the Friends Table and the tables of the 19 area artists, Art Market made over $12,000. The Friends Table alone, to which you donated so generously, made over $6,000 of that total. All of this profit goes to the museum to support their exhibitions. Thank you again for helping make Art Market a success.

Quilt Show—Joan Yoder and Vicky Skuodas

1. Registration - forms will be on the Guild website soon and paper copies are available on the Information Table. Members are limited to 3 quilt entries (in addition to the Challenge and Intergenerational Quilt entries).
2. Quilt Auction will be at 7pm on Friday July 17th. Linda Underwood is all set to conduct the auction. We need more good saleable items.
3. Challenge - Theme is Fun In The Sun. Quilt maximum perimeter is 80 inches, any technique may be used, and the quilt must have a sun on the quilt.
4. Raffle tickets - only 600 have been sold out of 2500. We need to sell more tickets!
5. Posters and bookmarks are available for distribution -- break rooms, church bulletin boards, hair salon, etc.

Placemat Project—Jerry Lee Jensen

1. So far we have 219 placemats that have been turned in plus a large number that came in tonight.

Mini-Raffle -- Nancy Anderson

1. $100.00 was raised by the mini raffle. Winners of the four awarded mini-raffle items were:
 - a. 4 Green fat quarters and matchbox quilt kit - donated by Nancy Anderson and anonymous - won by Lori Lange.

Programs—Janiece Goin and Linda Gale

The next LQG meeting is Monday, April 13, 2020 and the speaker is Connie Lange who will be presenting a Trunk Show. Connie inherited her love of fabrics and textiles from her mother. She began sewing at age eight in 4-H and started quilting in the late 1970's. Over 20 years ago, she took a class from internationally known designer Judy Niemeyer, at Material Girl in Grand Island. Connie had tried paper piecing before, but she wasn't satisfied with the process. The class was a revelation with Judy's method of using paper templates to cut fabric and organizational tips for every step of the way. Using these techniques, even a difficult-looking quilt became much easier. Register for the April 13th workshop and learn this method of paper piecing.

See LQG website for April 14th Paper Piecing workshop registration information ($40 for LQG and IQM members and $50 nonmembers) - <http://lincolnquiltersguild.org/classes/post/?permalink=april-2020-workshop>

Katie Pasquini Masopust, shared a wonderful program called "Painting with Cloth"

The meeting was adjourned to Show and Tell.

Respectfully submitted by Joyce Nass, Secretary
