BRING YOUR QUILTS

If you have quilts that might be shown in the quilt show, bring them to the Ferguson Mansion Monday, Aug. 20, between 1:30 and 4:00. They will be viewed by the committee on Tuesday and you may pick them up on Wed. between 1:30 and 4:00.

No need to hunt parking. You may pull into the driveway while you deliver. Take them to the east door of the mansion.

VIRGINIA AVERY

For the opening of the October Quilt Show, Virginia Avery from Port Chester, N.Y., will conduct workshops and give two lectures.

She is nationally known as an authority on Quilting, Applique and Patchwork. She has lectured and conducted workshops throughout this country and Canada, and has exhibited widely. Her work may be found in several private collections and has been included in many publications. She is the author of "The Big Book of Applique" published in 1978 by Chas. Scribner's Sons.

In addition to pursuing her career in lecturing and teaching quilt making, Mrs. Avery is a jazz pianist, performing regularly as part of an 8-piece band.

We are excited about her coming to Lincoln. You will enjoy her and learn from her.

HOSTESSING

Each afternoon during October we will need two hostesses at the museum. If you can donate some afternoons, let Virginia Welty know - 464-7642.

CALICO CUPBOARD

During the first week of the quilt show, guild members may sell patchwork boutique items. Carol Dunklau will be chairman of this. Take your items to her. You may put your own price on them and receive the full amount.

Get busy on your specialty. You might become rich and famous.

Old quilters never die. They just go to pieces.
