WORKSHOPS

New members may not be sure just what a guild workshop is. There are afternoon groups and evening groups. They are held in the homes of different members each month.
No formal program is given, no business meeting is held. Each person brings her sewing project, shares ideas, patterns, a cup of coffee, and fellowship.

If you have been missed by the calling committees for these workshops, or would like to have your name added to the list, or have had a change in your phone number, call the chairman of the group you would like to attend.

Afternoon - Eleanor Sindlar

Evening - Roma Spangler

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

It seems such a long time since our last meeting. I hope your holiday was happy and that you had all your projects finished before "The Day".

Since it has been awhile since November, I will try and bring all of you up to date on what has been going on.

Hope Partridge brought the finished printed crib quilt to our last meeting. This fabric was given us by the National Quilters Association to be given to charity when completed. We voted to give it to Mrs. Howard Rowlee to use for a needy family. Hope also brought the State Fair Crib Quilt and requested volunteers to finish quilting it. Wilma McKeag took it home with her and brought it to the afternoon workshop all finished but the binding! Thanks so much to Wilma for doing this. Does anyone want to volunteer to apply the binding?

The nomination committee of Ellen Thompson, chr., Mary Obrist, and Ruth Hicks was elected. This is the time of year when we start seeking our next years officers.

At this meeting we also voted not to use guild money for travel. A number of items were referred to the Executive Committee such as: cataloging our slides and quilt blocks. There will be further reports on this.

Have you something Special or a Grand Idea for the Lincoln Quilters Guild? Let your officers know.

I am look forward to seeing all of you on Jan. 14 - also your Christmas ideas at show and tell. Your President, Millie Corkill.

CONTESTS

Entering and Winning Quilt Contests was the subject of Mary Dunn's program for the November Guild meeting. The secret of winning is -- "be original, be neat, be patient, and enter often". Mary brought a number of samples of her work -- applique, both traditional and reverse; wall hangings and blocks plus small quilts. It was an excellent program and we are fortunate to have her as a member willing to share her talent. Remember to bring your Christmas ideas to the January meeting.

MAGAZINES & NEWSLETTERS

Since we now send a copy of our newsletter PLAIN PRINT to CANADA QUILTS, the LQG receives a complimentary subscription to that magazine. Our librarian will have it available for you to read and check out. Some LQG members have their own subscriptions. Maybe you will find that you too will want to subscribe.

There are now many other guilds that put out newsletters and LQG is exchanging subscriptions with some of them and some members have subscriptions to others such as:

The Quilters Guild of Greater Kansas City.
"The Friendship Know" East Bay Heritage Quilters, Albany, Ca.
Colorade Quilting Council.
"Patchword" Hearthside Crafts, Edmonton, Alberta, Canada.
"Quilting and Related Needlework" Ruth Briggs, Rancho Santa Fe, Ca.
"The Clearing House" North American Quilt Guild.
Santa Valley Quilt Assoc.
"The Needle's Eye" Nimble Thimbles Quilt Club, Idaho Falls, Id.
And we keep in touch with Kansas and the KAW Valley Quilters through the weekly quilt article in TELE NEWS where we hear from Enola Gish, Betty Hagerman, and Helen Ericson.

The quilt world is really expanding and many interesting and exciting things are taking place.

APPRAISAL SERVICE

After much inquiry and research this last summer in trying to get appraisals for the Lincoln quilts that were being sent to the quilt events in California, the Lincoln Quilters Guild established an appraisal committee. This service is free to members of the Guild and is offered to non-members for a fee of $15.00. A written appraisal will be issued on the guild letterhead and signed by the chairman of the committee. This is acceptable for valuations of quilts for insurance purposes and mailings.

KAW VALLEY QUILTERS

The KAW Valley Quilters in Kansas have lined up some very interesting speakers for their meetings this winter and spring. Perhaps you could manage to get to some of them:

Feb. - Beth and Jeffery Gutcheon,
Lecture and 2 days workshops.
April - Dixie Haywood
May - Joyce Aufderheide

For information and dates of the programs contact their program chairman Betty Hagerman, Rte. 3, Baldwin City, Kansas, 66006.

Looking for a place to visit while on vacation? Philadelphia College of Textiles and Science. The library of the new Design Center has over 200,000 fabric samples from the 4th century to the present.
