QUILT SHOW

PIECES FROM THE PRAIRIE

Remember to have your exhibitor form and picture to Hope Partridge by August 1, 1987. If you did not get a form at the last meeting, you can pick them up at the afternoon or evening workshops, Calico House or Needle Friends. At this printing, we are assuming that Farm Aid III will be in Lincoln over the quilt show. What an opportunity to share your quilts and talent. You are all encouraged to be a part of LQG 1987 quilt show. Remember the quilt cannot have been in a previous show in Nebraska, must be a minimum of 24" square, and must be a part of your work. If you have any questions, call Janeese Olsson, 489-1067 (days) or Pam Haas, 421-1446 (evenings, weekends).

You may deliver your quilt(s) to Hope Partridge at 3035 Kucera, on September 14, 1987 between 4:00 and 6:30 p.m. and again on Tuesday, September 15, 9:00 a.m. to noon. Insurance of the quilt will be your responsibility. Check with your insurance representative, as it may be covered as a part of your homeowners insurance.

Guild members will be asked to help the committee provide cookies for this event. If you are willing to help with the refreshments, please call Linda Major at 423-0557 or Pat Hackley, 423-2909.

YOU ARE INVITED

The Lincoln Quilters Guild will host an opening reception at the Candy Factory and NBC Bank the evening of Friday, September 18, 1987. The hours at NBC will be 5:30 to 7, with no food served. Beginning at 7 p.m. the Candy Factory will be open until 8:30 with light refreshments served.

Guild members will be asked to help the committee provide cookies for this event. If you are willing to help with the refreshments please call Linda Major, 423-0557 or Pat Hackley, 423-2909.

MARY GHORMLEY FEATURED

Mary Ghormley's quilt show will open at Elder Gallery, Nebraska Wesleyan University, October 23 with an evening reception from 7 to 9 p.m. Guild members are invited to attend. Special programs will be presented the two following Wednesday evenings at 7:30:

September 30 - Mary Ghormley will talk on quilts

October 7 - Frankie Best will speak on the Nebraska Quilt Project.

Guild members are invited and encouraged to attend all of these events.

QUILT SITTERS NEEDED

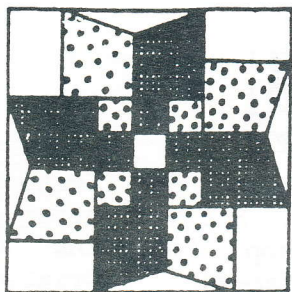

If you are called to help 'quilt sit,' please make time in your busy summer schedule. The sale of our raffle tickets is our major money making effort for two years. Your support ensures continued quality programming, library materials, and helps to keep dues as low as possible.

RAFFLE TICKETS AVAILABLE

If you need raffle tickets, call Laurie Pankoke at 421-1220. She'll be happy to get tickets to you.

NEW NAME TAGS

Wouldn't you rather have a cookie, browse through library books or find out what is new with your quilting friends when you come to our monthly meetings instead of standing in line looking for your name tag? Help the traffic flow, give yourself a couple of extra minutes by being creative and making your own name tag. You can even make several to change with the seasons. Be original. Create a conversation piece.

There are no rules or guidelines to stifle your creativity. Some ideas you may wish to incorporate would be using our logo and colors on your name tag. You can use a variety of techniques such as piecing, applique, embroidery, stenciling, painting, cross stitch---anything you can think of. So, get your needles and your scraps out and get busy! See you on September 14 with your new personality statement. (For those of us who just run out of time, your old name tag will still be available at each meeting)

MEMBERSHIP DUES

Have you paid your 1987-88 dues? In order to be included in the Lincoln quilters Guild yearbook, please mail your membership dues of $10.00 to Charlotte Boe, 1111 North 45th, Lincoln, NE 68503, within five days of receiving this newsletter. If your membership is not received, you may not receive the next issue of PLAIN PRINT.

POSTERS AVAILABLE

Great news! The EARTH BLOOMS posters are hot off the press. Cost for the poster is only $8.00, which includes sales tax. Posters will be available from Sue Volkmer, De Edgar, or Joyce Vannier. The posters will be sold at the Nebraska State Quilt Guild meeting in North Platte later this month, and also at our Lincoln Quilters Guild meetings. If you can't wait to get your copy, call Sue, De or Joyce. The poster design is by Roger Bruhn, who also was the creator of The Sower poster. This is a project you can be proud of being a part of and owning. It is tasteful, attractive and will make great gifts. Why not start your Christmas gift buying NOW?

EXECUTIVE BOARD MEETING

Executive Board and Committee meeting is scheduled for August 31, 7:30 p.m. at Donna Svoboda's (2461 Sewell). If you cannot attend call Pam Haas (421-1446).

NEWSLETTER DEADLINE

Deadline for the next PLAIN PRINT newsletter is September 20, 1987. Please send news items to Diane Wagner, 3205 West Pershing Road, Lincoln 68502.

HELPFUL HINT

To rid yourself of those tangled loose threads which tie your fabrics in knots when pre-washing, just clip a small triangle from each corner of the fabric before putting it into the wash. The cut on the bias keeps the fabric from unraveling between selvages. It works!

JUDI WARREN

Judi Warren will be our featured speaker this fall. She will offer a one day workshop "quilting on Geometric Surfaces: Original Designing" on Monday, November 9. Judi is a teacher, lecturer and quiltmaker who has been on the programs of most of the major quilt symposiums. In January she will be the quest speaker at Jinny Beyer's Hilton Head Quilting Seminar. But, in November, she will be the quest speaker for the Lincoln Quilters Guild.

HOLIDAY BOUTIQUE

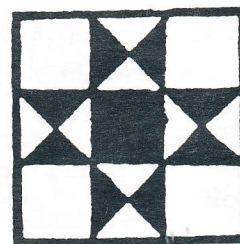

The Holiday Boutique will be held in October this year. The boutique will be open from 7:00 to 7:30 and again following the meeting. See Pat Cole at the September meeting for a seller's number and price tag. Sellers will be responsible for pricing and tagging their own items. Remember that LQG will keep 5% of gross sales from the boutique to cover costs.

ORNAMENT EXCHANGE

When working on your summer projects, don't forget to make a Christmas ornament for the ornament exchange in November.

NEBRASKA QUILT PROJECT

Crazy Ann to Drunkard's Path
 Crazy Ann to Drunkard's Path
 Come in, Drunkard's Path

If you are traveling Nebraska highways this summer and happen to hear the above call letters, you'll know that you've tapped into the airways of the Nebraska Quilt Project.

Along with keeping in touch with each other, the members of the Nebraska Quilt Project are seeing quilts, quilts, and more quilts.

The count includes the following:

Ogallala, 47
 Benkelman, 226
 Scottsbluff, 89
 Chadron, 149
 Bassett, 157
 Dorchester, 480
 St. Paul, 219
 Kearney, 177
 Red Cloud, 250

Quilt History Days yet to be completed are:

Bancroft, July 20
 Blair, July 22
 Wahoo, August 28
 Nebraska City, September 11

Other good news for the Nebraska Quilt Project includes being awarded a generous $1000 grant from the Steinhart Foundation, Inc., Nebraska City. This donation will make a lasting contribution to the gathering of and recording of Nebraska quilts and quiltmakers for present and future researchers.

Dr. Crews and two graduate students joined the committee in Dorchester. One of the graduate students is eager to have access to the data that we've collected so he can start his Master's thesis. The dream becomes a reality when the material is actually put to use.

DIRECTIONS FOR ATTACHING SLEEVE TO YOUR QUILT

Choose a matching fabric or muslin for the sleeve. Cut the sleeve 9" x the width of the quilt. Fold in half lengthwise and stitch 1/2" seam allowance. turn right side out and turn back ends 1/2 to 3/4" and hem. Hand sew the sleeve at the top, right below the binding and then the bottom of the sleeve. If you plan to hang it at home a long time, you may want to sew through the batting and just catch the front. This avoid putting all the strain on the front of the fabric.

You may contact Janeese Olsson if you have any questions.

GOOD NEWS FOR QUILT LOVERS

The Nebraska State Quilt Guild has made a donation to the state Fair to be used for constructing new quilt display frames. With these new frames the quilts entered in the State Fair will be displayed completely open! The quilt exhibit is being moved to the open balcony of the Industrial Arts building.

Volunteers will be needed to help hang the quilts on Thursday, September 3rd and also to take down the exhibit on Sunday, September 13th. Also there will be a need for quilters during the fair (September 4 - 12) to staff the NSQG booth. Maybe you could get a group of your stitching friends together and volunteer for one of these days. If you do have some time that you can spare please contact Shelly Burge at 423-4295.

CONGRATULATIONS

Congratulations to Shelly Burge, Carol Dunklau and Marilyn Maurstad, NQA winners. Shelly won 3rd place in the wallhanging division (mixed technique, pictorial, hand quilted) with her 'Planting the Dream.'

Carol won first place with her Sugarloaf wallhanging in the pieced, traditional, hand quilted division. In that same category, Marilyn Maurstad received an honorable mention for the Amish inspired Sunshine and Shadow.

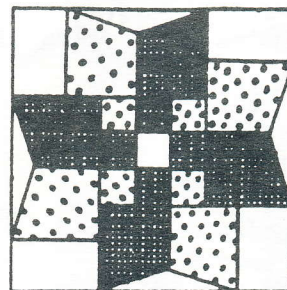

Marilyn also received the prestigious Capitol Hill award. This award is presented on only one quilt. The quilt must be a recent completion of a top or blocks began prior to 1950 by someone other than the one executing the entry. Marilyn sent her '1935 Embroidered Flowers.'

The quilts then hung in the NQA show in Easton, Pennsylvania. Dates of the show were June 24 - 28, 1987.

CONGRATULATIONS

Congratulations to Lincoln Quilters Guild members who have been nominated to the Nebraska State Quilt Guild Board of Directors: Diane Deahl, president-elect; Sue Volkmer, secretary; Shelly Burge, Director for Region I. These names will be presented as part of the slate of officers at QuiltNebraska in North Platte. Paulette Peters, also a member of LQG, is currently serving as president-elect and will assume the president's position in July.

FRIENDSHIP BLOCK

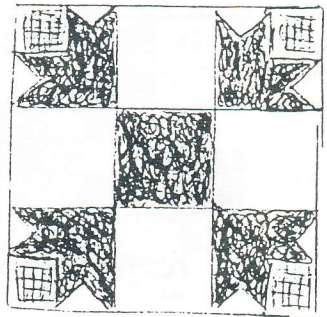

Each month guild members are encouraged to make a designated quilt block for the Friendship Block Exchange. Members may enter their name into the drawing once for each block made and brought to the guild meeting. A drawing determines who will receive the set of blocks. Patterns and instructions for the blocks will be available at guild meetings and in the PLAIN PRINT. Why not start the year by making this month's block. Think how exciting it would be to take home the entire set! Remember, it just takes one block to win!

NQA UPDATE

A 'task force' of members of local guilds met with Jan VerMaas (Lincoln Chamber of Commerce) to discuss the possibility of holding a national quilt show in 1991 in Lincoln. The Visitors and Convention Bureau has already determined that Lincoln can handle a national show and the facilities here are adequate. The next question, of course, is whether there is enough support in the state to produce and direct a major show.

The response was an enthusiastic "yes" with all guilds and members pooling resources of time, energy, and ideas! We believe that Nebraska can host a show with fresh ideas and bring a Midwestern warmth to all quilters.

A representative from NQA will be here during LQG Quilt Show to approve the facilities and talk to task force members. This should be an opportunity to be involved in a 'major' show and to attend a show extraordinaire.
