Lincoln Quilters Guild • Quilting Since 1973 • Meeting second Monday of each month • Sep. through May, 7:00

THANK YOU from JEAN DAVIE

To say that I was surprised, (absolutely flabbergasted) is a minor statement. I was thrilled to be made a Life Member of the Lincoln Quilt Guild and thank you for the dear heart quilt top. I've slept under it, hung it, shared it and read the names numerous times. It is a tribute to each of you really, for you honor me for what is a marvelous example of the cooperative spirit, the generous sharing of time and talents of each in the guild to make this a most wonderfully satisfying happening. Each of you honors the Guild, Lincoln, and Nebraska by you welcome to our visitors, your sharing of conversations, introductions and any assistance. HERE'S TO OUR HEARTLAND SHOW!!!!

NOTICE

If you live in or near Lincoln, and plan to deliver your quilt in person on June 14 ---take note--- you may choose to bring your quilt for check in on June 13 between 1 and 5 pm.

PHOTOS

Lincoln Quilt Guild will receive one set of slides of the quilts that were judged. If any of you take snapshots of the people, places, and events of this week long show -- PLEASE SHARE YOUR PHOTOS with us at the September meeting.

Judges Hospitality update by Ginny Hill (781-2557) Ginny will be calling this committee's volunteers on June 10 to give individualized instructions as needed. If you are not going to be at home that day, please contact Ginny to receive your instructions.

DID YOU KNOW??? that Lincoln is chapter 443 of the National Quilting Association??? We are proud to be host chapter for their annual quilt show. WELCOME TO LINCOLN!!!

To All LQG Members,

from Judy Lane: What a wonderful surprise and joy it was to receive flowers, a beautiful quilt top, and lifetime guild membership from all of you. I still feel surprised when I think of it! Thank you so very much for these gifts. I absolutely love the quilt top! Of course, it is the commitment and talent of so many of you that have made this NQA project possible. Upon hearing the planning reports and observing the results of volunteer efforts over the past two years, I've been so impressed with the creativity, skills, and professionalism apparent in all the chairpeople and their committees. And working with Jean has been such a pleasure - she has been a kind, gracious, very organized, and delightful chairperson for all of us! Thanks again for the gifts of May 13 and for the gifts in each of you that have brought all of us to "Show Time".

NQA Banquet Committee update from Marily Lockard (489-4944) 1989 LQG Challenge Quiltmakers may take their quilts to Pat Gormley's home, 2230 Hanover Court on Sunday June 9 after 1:00 pm. Pat's phone 423-1467. Please put your name and address on both the quilt and the pillowcase cover. The quilts may be picked up 30 minutes after the banquet on June 21; or at Carol Zink's home - 1420 Broadmore on Sunday June 23. Carol's phone 488-6336.

Special Event Update from Sandy Anderson (483-5496) A volunteer is needed to help "fill time" between the NQA Annual Meeting and the Melodrama on Wednesday June 19. It will involve asking people to stand up by state, etc. Sandy will help prepare this filler. Call her if you will do it! Everyone is encouraged to include the Annual Meeting & Melodrama among their NQA events: this evening is not only fun, it's FREE!!!

Quilt Hanging update by Jean Ang (784-3111) A few more people are needed to hang the quilts on Tuesday, June 18, starting at 8:00 am. Please call Jean and say YES! Take down of quilts will begin at 3:00 pm on Sunday June 23. Remember, the more teams we have for hanging and taking down, the easier it is and the faster it goes! Also this offers a wonderful opportunity for close-up viewing of the quilts.

Community Service

I recently visited with Mary Geisler from Lancaster Manor. Within the manor they have several areas, each sharing a nurses station. These areas all look very much the same-except for color. To give each area more of an individual look, they are doing some decorating. They would like to hang framed quilt blocks and small wall hangings in the "Blue wing". This would help residents, as well as visitors, recognize their area. It could even open lines for conversation as one walks down the hallway, provide a warm comfortable feeling, and maybe even a smile as one recalls days gone by. The pieces may be simply unfinished tops or quilt blocks as they will be matted and framed for hanging. If you have anything you would like to donate, or would like to make something special, please let me know. They are on no time schedule at this time. Thanks for your help, Roxann O'Hare - work 467-2282, home 467-5038 .

Cuddle Quilt Alert:

Committees still open - arts council, finance, Guild history, holders & folders, mini workshop, and scholarship committee.

A heartfelt thank you for my beautiful quilt top. I was truly surprised!! You will never know how much this means to me. Thanks again! Fondly, Sue Volkmer

Ramble on...from your president... Looking back into March of 1990, I can still remember "that" phone call from the nominating committee-President elect? Wow! My heart was racing, my body was shaking! I don't know if those feelings ever stop-but here I am. Julia this past year has stressed membership involvement. It has been a busy year, everyone working together, and now the grande finale-NQA. While this may mean the "end" to some, it will mark the beginning of a new year for others. I too would like to stress membership involvement! If it were not for all those hard working mothers behind the scenes-our guild would not be what it is today. Some of you may know the saying "No pain-no gain", while this may have been intended for a work out we can also apply this to our daily lives, our guild. Sitting back, enjoying what our guild has to offer is great, but I would like to encourage everyone to get involved. Yes, you may think of lots of reasons why not to, and not knowing anyone may be one of the best-but getting involved is the best way to get to know people. We truly have a wonderful group of individuals, and now is your chance to meet some of them by getting involved-taking that first step. Have a great summer, Roxann O'Hare

SMALL QUILT GROUPS

There are several small quilt groups which members of the Lincoln Quilters Guild attend. Why are these not listed in the news letter? I wondered about this when I started my new job as editor of Plain Print. Everyone is welcome at our regular meetings the second Monday of the month. Everyone is welcome at our afternoon and evening workshops. These are great places to get acquainted. If the small groups were listed they would quickly outgrow their purpose of being small. Therefore, we will continue to invite you to form more small groups. Please send your name, address, phone number and preferred time to our President Roxann O'Hare 1537 North Cotner 68505. Whenever she gets a few names with the same time - morning, afternoon or evening - a new group will exist.

Interested in having YOUR quilts appraised? Eugenia Barnes, certified AQS appraiser, will be available Thur. June 20, from 9:30 am to 4:30 pm and on Sunday, June 23, from 9:00 am to noon.
