Several small quilt groups have been working on it. Did you know that for every hour of quilting that you do on this project, your name goes in a drawing for a chance to win a wall hanging? If you would like to quilt, or have room for our raffle quilt, please tell Roxann O'Hare - work 467-2282, or home 467-5038.

SPECIAL THANKS:

Thank you, Mildred Classen from Bluehill, Neb for all the wonderful items you sent to Lancaster Manor! They were very excited about receiving so many and they invite members out to see the finished wall pieces.

Thank you, to Dana Gladding, Elaine Pieper, Charlotte Boe, and Rosie Westerhold for their help with the Holiday of Trees.

Thanks to everyone who sent in their news for this issue. The deadline for the March - April issue is Feb. 12.

LOOKING BACK.....FROM YOUR PRESIDENT

As the new year is just around the corner, I find myself looking back on years past and wondering what lies ahead for the new year.

Looking back, how many of you remember your first Guild meeting? You may have come with a friend or maybe you were brave and came alone. In any case, here you were in a room full of people and you may not have known anyone. But you came, and you stayed. You knew we all shared something in common - our love of quilting, our love of quilts. Something that provides comfort on a cold Nebraska night, warms our hearts and keeps us coming to Guild. Our link to the past and our bond for the future.

Gradually you got to know a few people and you look for their faces at the meetings. We all have such a wonderful time that we can't wait to see our friends again at Guild.

Because we have such a fun group, our Guild is growing. Hardly a meeting goes by that we don't have a new member join. These new members can be identified by their name tags..."NEW MEMBER 1991-92". I would like to challenge all of you "regulars" out there to step up and introduce yourself to a new member, or a special guest. Memorize the name and face so when you see them again - at Guild or at the store you won't be afraid to say hello. And if you need something to talk about, well that's not too difficult.....
.....Happy Quilting!

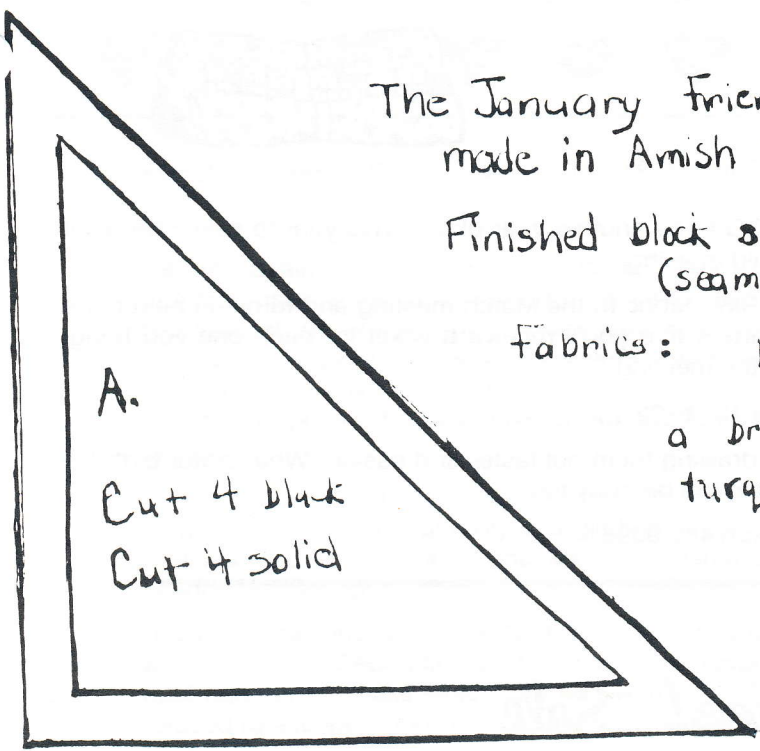

Wishing you and yours all the best in '92

Roxann O'Hare

Celebrate

LINCOLN QUILTERS GUILD BIRTHDAY

It's time to start thinking ahead to March when LQG turns another year older. This year to celebrate, we will have an exchange of fat quarters at our March guild meeting.

Bring a fat quarter of a favorite 100% COTTON PRINT fabric to the March meeting and turn it in before the meeting. You may bring as many as six fat quarters and you'll receive a ticket for each one you bring. Tickets will be redeemed for fabric at the close of the meeting.

A fat quarter is a rectangle of fabric that measures 18" by 22".

Please roll and tie each one individually to make drawing them out faster and easier. What better birthday gift for a quilter to receive than fabric? So come join the birthday fun!

Questions? Call Birthday Chairman Brenda Carlson 489-9098

The Lincoln Quilt Guild Library has received the donation of Uncoverings, 1990, the research papers of the American Quilt Study Group. The book was introduced at the October Seminar in Cincinnati, and contains an article by LQG member, Jan Stehlik on "The Quilt Patterns and Contests of the Omaha World Herald, 1921-1941. Other subjects in the book are: "The Marketing of Anne Orr's Quilts" by Merikay Waldvogel," Contemporary Quiltmaking Culture in Maine: Tradition and Translation" by Kristin Langellier, "The Colorful Pieced Sails of Mindanao" by Joyce Peaden, "A Profile of Quilts at the Daughters of the American Revolution Museum" by Nancy Tuckhorn, "Quilt History in Old Periodicals" by Wilene Smith, "Pre-1940 Quilt Tops: Their Status and Fate in Western New York State" by Barbara Phillippi, "Quilts as Social History: Developing a Research Model" by Elizabeth Richards, and "The Impact of Male Needleworkers on Emma Andres and America in the 1930s and 1940s" by Laurene Sinema and Janet Carruth.

PUBLIC LIBRARY DONATIONS FROM STATE QUILT GUILD

It's time again to nominate your favorite library to receive a gift book on the subject of quilting. The Nebraska State Quilt Guild is continuing the Library Project for the fourth year. In 1989, the first year of the project, thirty libraries received books from the Guild. Last year a record of 74 libraries were given a copy of Nebraska Quilts and Quilt makers, the excellent and beautiful report of the Nebraska Quilt Project. In the course of the three years of the State Guild Library Project, 97 different public libraries in Nebraska and Iowa have received gift books. Your public library is eligible.

You, a patron, must initiate the action. To nominate your library please: 1. Talk with your local librarian as to the acceptability of a gift from NSQG. 2. Send that information along with the name and address of the library, including the name and phone number of the librarian, to: Mona Jeanne Easter, Library Project NSQG 3430 South 29th Street, Lincoln, Ne 68502.

Nominations must be in by April 30, 1992, to qualify for this year's gifts. But you needn't wait, why not now? Depending on the number of responses there may have to be a limitation on the total number of books which can be awarded. We have not yet heard of a single library which refused to accept a book on quilting from the NSQG.

Note: Mona Jean has lots of thank you's from various libraries. Ask her, if you would like to read some.

DOWN MEMORY LANE (FROM OUR SCRAPBOOK)

When a group of quilt makers organized our guild in 1973, they were right in step, or maybe a step ahead, of the quilt world at that time. By January 1974, their membership had grown to 45, and LQG was recognized as the largest guild in the National Quilting Association! By the time the Lincoln Star interviewed the guild president, Mrs. Roger Ghormley, in July of that year, the membership had grown to 55. In that July interview, Mary Ghormley outlined the steps for making a quilt, and the readers were told "With new-materials, batting, lining, and thread, you probably wouldn't spend over $25.00, but when finished, you have a quilt worth over $150.00."

FROM ROSIE

1. If anyone is interested in exchanging 1/2 square triangles from the retreat, please bring them to the January meeting.
2. I am getting my very own quilting studio. Since I have never had any space of my own entirely devoted to sewing, I would welcome any suggestions about what works for you, what you wish you would have done, and what you would not ever do again.

Send any comments to: Rosie Westerhold 6701 Platte Ave.

Lincoln Ne 68507

Editor's note - maybe Rosie will share all these ideas with us later.

AMAZING

Our Guild members have become so widely recognized, it is hard to keep up with them.

Have you seen the "Editors Choice of 1990-1" a 114 page book from Ladies Circle Patchwork that is currently on the news-stands? It contains quilts from Sara Dillow, Martha Peters (PJs mother), Joan Schwalm, Ernest-Haight, Mary Ghormley, Pam Johnson, Kari Ronning.

The Nov-Dec Quilt Craft magazine includes a quilt from Sara Dillow and a quilt & story from Brenda Groely.

The November McCalls featured a legacy quilt honoring 20th century American Women and included blocks by Jan Stehlik and a dedication by Dorothy Boettner (Kathy Murphy's mother).

Note - anyone who knows of other items such as these, please send the information to Martha Dennis for future newsletters.

Hill Elementary School is looking for people to demonstrate quilting at a "125th" Nebraska Birthday Celebration at the school on Feb 28th. They want the demonstration to last most of the day. It could possibly be divided into two or three shifts. If you are interested in helping with this demonstration, contact Roxann O'Hare.

WHERE IS THE BEGINNING???????

Last issue I mentioned that we heard this question a lot at our big quilt show.

We also heard this question asked in amazement at 6:00 AM on July 4th, 1991 on the sidewalks of Eagle, Nebraska. Some "crazy" quilt ladies stayed up all night (a slumber party?) in order to be first in line for the fabric sale. Those of us who showed up at 6:15 AM got in line WAY down the block; and had a long wait to get to touch those nice bolts of cotton.

The point I am working up to is this: join a small quilt group!!!

Meet new friends! Give each other advice! Some of us have more free time than others, but different schedules can be arranged.
