LQG PICNIC

There were about 35-40 of us gathered in the Antelope Park shelter on the beautiful summer evening of June 14, 1993. President Sandy Anderson had called a summer get-together just to bat ideas around and have a taste of all the goodies everyone brought! Quilter's are good cooks! The serving table was laden with gourmet treats, and the informal chat that followed was pleasant and informing. One idea sparked off another as quilters kicked back and just chatted through the lovely evening. The raffle quilt, and maker Pat Anderson were present, and with fans pointed in the right directions we were cool as garden cucumbers!

Quiltin' At The Creek

Were you lucky enough to get to ANNA's during the month of June to see the quilt show! It was my first visit, and two of my GUILD LILY pals, Ellen Mayer and Meylonie Schatz, drove up in a blinding rain to lunch in the old school house and feast our eyes on all the quilts! What a great place! We antiqued on the way back thru Louisville, and came home with the trunk of the car FULL of treasures! A great day!
