LQG BUS TRIP '96

This year we will board the bus on Saturday, April 13th and head toward our first destination, Elk Horn, Iowa. Our main stop among the many interesting shops in Elk Horn will be Prairie Star Quilts. There we will have time to shop for the latest fabrics and patterns. Included in our visit to Prairie Star Quilts is a class taught by Julie Larson, owner of Prairie Star Quilts and author of Prairie Star Calendar Sampler. After lunch at the Traveling Companion Tea Room, we will again hop aboard our bus and travel to Walnut, Iowa (Antique Capital of Iowa) for an afternoon of antiques and bargain hunting. (Remember a bus has room for large purchases, i.e. furniture.) A stop for dinner and the trip home comparing purchases and a few surprises concludes our day. Cost of the trip is $35. That includes Transportation, Class at Prairie Star Quilts (no supplies needed) and lunch at the Tea Room. A deposit of $20 will reserve your spot on a first come basis. Final payment must be received by March 11th. Money may be sent to Jo Anne Bair, 600 Redwood Drive, Lincoln, Nebraska 68510-2540. Questions call Jo Anne at 488-0344.

TOP TEN REASONS TO TAKE THE '96 BUS TRIP

10. No cooking and no stinkin' dishes.
9. Polly Ester is the waitress, not the fabric.
8. Nagging spouses stored in the luggage compartment.
7. Tip toe through the tulips with Julie — Bulb free!
6. Official headquarters of the Walnut Hall of Fame.
5. Low-fat fat quarters.
4. Elinor Burns' over the shoulder scraps — autographed.
3. See quilters stripping.
2. Forget railroad crossings, this bus stops for quilt shops.
1. Antiques made fresh daily.

"Scraps from the President"

Dear Quilters,

Okay, here we are, right in the middle of the winter blahs! There are days (especially the ones where you never see the sun) that I find it very difficult to get motivated about anything. Quilting included!

I envy the people back East and all their snow! I would really enjoy just staying home for a few days and not having one single place to go. Think of all the projects a person could start, finish and even PUT OFF until tomorrow. I have piles (literally) of sewing projects that I need to get to (don't we all) and wouldn't it be nice to have a great big blizzard and have the TV weather guy tell you to stay home! Think of the possibilities! We could piece all night and quilt all day - the list goes on and on.

Life oftentimes interferes with our plans and makes it difficult to accomplish what we think is essential. Quilting and its related activities are many times the things that keep our sanity from deserting us. Don't you get a wonderful feeling when you have a project going and all the world just melts away. I feel renewed after a few hours of quilting or piecing - just losing myself in the process and not letting the world interfere.

The need to center (or recenter) myself again usually rears its ugly head about this time of year and quilting is usually my salvation. When the world crashes in on you and all the dreary winter days seem to go on forever, remember the Q-word! There is a way to rescue these winter blah days and it is with our quilting friends and activities.

Call somebody and get together, even if it is just to show each other your pile of projects. Take a field trip to an out of town quilt shop and have pie for lunch. Maybe just make a cup of tea and lose yourself in a quilt book for an hour or two.

There is always a solution to these never ending winter days and quilters will always be there; ready, willing and able to help!

Linda Mager, President

Quilt Show Announcements

WHITE GLOVERS NEEDED

We need YOUR hands to fill WHITE GLOVES for our upcoming quilt show, March 15-17. In fact, we are looking for 104 pairs of hands to welcome our guests and assist in their enjoyment of the quilts. You will also care for the safety of both guests and quilts.

There are 13 different (two-hour) time slots with eight persons on duty for each. One person will be asked to be in charge of each group.

It takes many willing hands to make your quilt show a success. Come to the February LQG meeting with calendar in hand and sign up to WHITE GLOVE. You may call or contact either Barb Evans (423-6758) or Lucile Lenz (483-2885) for further information.

Don't forget your auction donation - please turn those in by guild meeting night - March 11th.

Postcards of the raffle quilt available at the guild meetings. Stamped 2/$1.00, Unstamped 3/$1.00

Quilt Show Just Around the Corner

- Registration forms need to be returned to Martha Dennis by February 1st. We need some idea of the number of quilt entries by that time.
- Please check your calendars before the February meeting. We will need lots of helpers in the areas of white glovers, hostess table and selling raffle tickets. The shifts are two hours long, and workers pay no admission fees to the show.
- At the February meeting, there will be full page ads and bookmarks ready for distribution. Please consider the places that you shop so that you might return in February to post a notice about the quilt show. Bookmarks are great to pass out to co-workers, in grocery stores or other shops. (They are easily taped to a computer monitor, also.)
- If you need more raffle tickets, contact Elaine Nielsen. Please return your ticket stubs and monies at the next guild meeting, along with any unused raffle tickets
- Please bring your completed auction items to the guild meeting. This gives everyone an opportunity to view the choices and pass the word about the wonderful items. There will be prices for everyone's pocketbook, so please plan to attend and bring a friend or two.
- Labels will be provided for all auction donations. Please sign one when you turn in your piece.
- Donations are tax deductible.
- Pieces need to be turned in by March guild meeting because we will be producing a booklet for the auction.
- There are incentives for donating something for the auction: One year's membership to the guild, one necklace and erring set from Sheila Green, and four small quilts made by the committee members.
- Please complete the auction form to tell us about your item.

Thanks to all, Vicky Skuodas, 826-5008

Repiecing The Past

TOAD IN A PUDDLE arrives in time for April showers. Sara Dillow will show you how to piece this traditional block using "time saving" quilting tools. Patterns from twelve antique quilts in the Dillows' collection have been published in Sara's book, including Toad in a Puddle. Sara has an interest in all aspects of quilting including writing about, speaking about, photographing, and preserving quilts; and making quilting friends. Sara lives in Fremont, Nebraska.

Fabric Dyeing Workshop

You'll have buckets o' fun dyeing fabric with Brenda Groelz on Saturday, April 27 in Linda Mager's backyard. Total cost of the workshop is $75. You may pay $25 to reserve your space. The workshop runs from 8 AM to whenever you're finished. Please send your check to Marilyn Lockard, 5031 M Street, 68510.

Cabin Fever Day

Cabin Fever Day is the Saturday to get out and see WHAT CAN A SHOO-FLY DO? with Paulette Peters. Paulette will show quilters of all skill levels this pattern's versatility with three arrangements and several sizes:

A wall piece with the illusion of several optical layers, SHOO-FLY WINDOWS, lets you "look into" the quilt. Muslin and scraps are needed for this quilt.

POSITIVE-NEGATIVE SHOO-FLY is a quilt made with only two contrasting fabrics, prints or plains.

Nine light fabrics, nine dark fabrics, and nine medium to dark fabrics are needed for the TIPPED OVER SHOO-FLY.

Register early enough so you can receive the material's list for the workshop. Mark one of three Shoo-fly choices, because the materials for each one are different.

Shoo-fly Windows 37" x 37"

Tipped over Shoo-fly is 47" x 47"

Positive/Negative Shoo-fly covers three sizes
26" x 26," 41" x 41," 54" x 68".

Positive Negative Shoo-fly

LQG SCHOLARSHIP

Applications Due March 1

Established to promote education and the knowledge of quilts and quilting, a scholarship consists of $250.00 each year budgeted by Lincoln Quilters Guild.

Eligibility:

1. A person engaged in graduate studies in the area of textile history or textile conservation at UNL,

or

2. An individual engaged in the study of quilting outside the academic community.

Contact Lois Wilson 488-6901, Zita Schneider 466-7196 to receive an application.

ARMSTRONG Fabrics

"Keep those ideas and pocket books coming."

Reminder!!

"American Quilts: A Century of Change, 1800-1900" will be featured March 14 through April 4 in the Gallery of the Textiles, Clothing and Design Department located in the Home Economics Building on the UNL East Campus. The exhibition will feature nineteenth century quilts from the collections of Lincoln Quilt Guild members, Sara Dillow and Mary Gholmley. Many technological changes in the printing of textiles occurred during the nineteenth century and are reflected in these quilts. Viewers can see rainbow prints, copper plate prints, penciling, block prints, early roller prints, double pinks, madder-style prints, not to mention the glorious patterns and amazing quilting found in quilts of this era.

The opening reception is planned for Saturday, March 16, 1996 from 3:00-5:00 PM. This precedes the LQG Annual Quilt Show and Auction. So plan to make an afternoon of it and help us celebrate the opening of this exhibit.

CHALLENGE

"Piece of Cake" ... "Apple Pie" ... & "Just Desserts" ... Are we quilting or sharing a luscious luncheon? It's the LQG a la carte Progressive Challenge! Interested members signed up in October and received instructions for the first course and second course. The soup and salad course directions were available in November, and Dessert in January.

There are only three instruction sheets - but you may add more borders, after-dinner coffee, seconds on dessert. Perhaps you'd rather skip dessert and have me salad. The idea is, there are lots of ways to use these directions. The "big buffet" will be at the May guild meeting when participants bring their challenge projects, finished (or unfinished). It will be fun to see the many variations resulting from the same basic "menu" and our member's creativity.

Help NEEDED!!!!

Your help is needed to quilt on a raffle quilt. This quilt is for a 12 year old little girl who has kidney and liver cancer. The proceeds from this project will help with medical expenses. If you or a small group can volunteer during the day all you have to do is go to the NETV building and the receptionist will direct you. If you want to go in the evening, please call Pat Andersen to set up a time. Any questions call Pat at 464-7755.

CUDDLE QUILT UPDATE

Since May, 1995, 56 cuddle quilts, 9 angel quilts, 6 doll quilts and 8 bags have been delivered to 12 different agencies. These agencies distribute them to persons in need.

At the January guild meeting the Tuesday Afternoon small group presented their project of 12 completed cuddle quilts. Members of this group are: Sally Basham, Jo Baxter, Retta Bettenhausen, Helen Curtiss, Joann Curtiss, Carroll Dischner, Doris Gutzmer, Irene LeBaron, Mary Merker, LaDonna Pankoke, Lana Jo Reffert, Joan Schwalm, Jean Stauffer, Genie Sullivan, Donna Svoboda, Marion Wright. Thank you on behalf of the guild and those who will benefit from the sharing.

On January 11th, 10 persons cut, ironed, sandwiched, pinned and stitched to ready quilts for the January Hearts and Hands workshop members to complete. There may be some available at the Feb. guild meeting for others to take home and complete the hand work.

In February we hope to have another "heart" project to share with you. Cuddle quilt work days are scheduled on March 29 and 30 so make a note on your calendar as this is a change from the yearbook schedule.

We appreciate the contributions of materials, time and talent you continue to make. The peoples' needs are continuous. We can and do meet some of those needs.

You are invited . . .

to a book signing party and quilt display featuring the quilts of author Sara Dillow and the contributing quilters of her new book "Repiecing the Past," Sunday, February 18, 1996, 1-5 PM, Camp Calvin Crest, Fremont, Nebraska. Gallery talks by Sara at 2 and 4 PM, Raffle quilt drawing at 4:30 PM. Hosted by The Basket Cases, a group of Fremont Quilters, who invite you to join us as we celebrate Sara's and our love of quilting.

February Vote on Cook Book Fund-Raiser

The Lincoln Quilt Guild will be 25 years old in 1998! Where has the time and stitches gone? Plans are being formulated for something special to remember these special years. The idea of a cookbook emerged, but not just like any other cookbook. Ours would be unique. Please come and preview the possibilities at the February meeting. Voting by attending membership at the February meeting. The book was also previewed at the January meeting. Questions call Millie Fauquet, 464-4176.

MADONNA QUILT SHOW

Quilts and volunteers are needed for a Cabin Fever Quilt show at the Madonna Rehab Hospital on Friday, February 23, 10-4. Set up will be on Thursday. Contact Linda Mager, 464-0842.

Minutes of the Jan. 8, 1996 LQG Meeting held at the Seventh Day Adventist Church, 7:00 pm

The Lincoln Quilters Guild met Monday, January 8, 1996 at the Seventh Day Adventist Church at 7 PM. Linda Mager called the meeting to order and welcomed members and guests. She offered congratulations on behalf of the Guild to Sandy Anderson, mother of a National Champ for her winning contribution to the team. Lynn DeShon introduced Don and Mary Swing. Don presented to Vickie Skuodas a framed two-panel stained glass window of this years raffle quilt as a donation to the quilt show auction.

Marilyn Lockard introduced the tonight's speaker, Terry Clothier Thompson and reminded everyone of the workshop on Tuesday. Terry set us straight as to what "Reading the Fine Print" was not. "This isn't reading a contract or pattern, this is reading fabric and design with the goal of dating a quilt." Terry explained that the world is in a constant process of change. This is because work in research and new things are uncovered & learned continually about textiles and designs. She strongly advised us to get & keep all the history we have about our quilts. We can make the work for future historians more complete that way. Terry shared with us many fine examples of textile & quilt history from her personal collection housed at her research center in Lawrence, Kansas.

Linda Mager called the business meeting to order at 8 PM. The minutes from the previous meeting were approved as printed. Mary Brooks, Treasurer, provided copies of the current and two previous reports for the Guild members. She reported a balance on hand of $844.12 in general funds as of December 31, 1995. The Money Market balance was $8,827.43. Of that total $5274.67 was QA Proceeds, $248.23 was scholarships and $2122.76 was LQG general Funds.

Betty Wolff reported that 130 Santa Socks were submitted at the November meeting. The Guild also provided $160 and many donated items for the socks. For 1996 we need to focus on more donated items for babies and children to teens. Most donated items were for adults.

Plain Print deadline is January 10, 1996.

Terry Clothier Thompson's workshop for tomorrow still has openings. Cost is $20 for the 9 to 4 session. Bring quilts and a covered dish to share. Marilyn Lockard reminded us of Sue Volkmer's workshop on Saturday, January 27th, from 9 to 3 on Mary's Triangles. For Paulette Peters' workshop in February, please select one of the Shoe-fly designs so that she can send you the appropriate information for the session. Sara Dillow's April workshop, Toad-in-the-Puddle, is fast approaching.

The Ruth McDowell lecture in Fremont is January 29th and costs $3.00. Linda Mager has a clipboard for ride-sharing. See her if you will drive or need a ride.

Linda Mager awarded prizes to two Guild members that were wearing their fabric name tags and fit this evening's prize criteria.

A one day quilt show will be held at Madonna, Friday, February 23rd, from 10 to 4. A yet-to-be-announced speaker will give a lecture from 1:15 to 2PM. Look for a clipboard to sign-up the items you will show.

Jo Anne Bair announced the details of this year's bus trip. The trip will be April 13th, from approximately 5:45AM to 10:30PM. The trip highlights include a stop at Prairie Star Quilts in Elk Horn, Iowa with a class by Julie Larson. Lunch will be at the Traveling Companion Cafe, then on to Walnut, Iowa for antique hunting. There will be a stop for dinner, but that is not included in the $35 per person price. The bus holds 47 and we must have at least 30 to get the quoted price. There is a $20 deposit and the absolute deadline is March 12th. Three of the Top 10 reasons for going on this trip are — $10, no cooking or no stinking dishes, #5, low fat quarters, and the number 1 reason is antiques made fresh daily!

Millie Fauquet introduced a fund-raising project for the Guild. The proposal is a cookbook for the Guild's 25th Anniversary in 1998. This cookbook would contain 500 recipes and be a limited edition of approximately 500. The profit from the sales would go to the LQG General Fund. Retail costs of the cookbook would be about $15, with pre-order prepayments, perhaps $1 off. The bare bones production cost is $5.85. If approved by the membership, we would need to begin collecting recipes yet this year. We would be looking to offer the book for sale for the November 1997 boutique at the 1998 quilt show. Give this serious thought and be prepared to vote at the February meeting.

Sandy Anderson, Courtesy Chair, introduced our visitors and new members.

Becky Haynes bought the following announcements to the podium:

Teri Wenz wants to know where you want to advertise the Quilt Show. Get with her so she knows what part of the city will be covered by whom with posters and flyers.

Rosie Westerhold from Basket Cases, wants you to see her for directions if you need them. You know who "you" are!

See Mona Jeanne Easter if you are looking for Prairie Points from the November meeting.

Barb Clement is working with the 4-H, "Clover College" from June 10th to 13th. They need quilters or a small group to share information in a 2 hour daily workshop. Call her at 488-9054 or call Anne Moravic, extension office at 441-7180.

Jean Davie wants us to get the fabric while it's hot. Pat Andersen used the plastic and metal ring portion from small samples as "hangable" templates.

Thank you January hostesses for a job well done!!!

Lucille Lenz informed us of a Cuddle Quilt work dates. There are quilts to be sandwiched on January 11th from 9 to 3 in the Resource Room. The January 27th workshop should see many being finished.

Jo Anne Bair announced the merchandisers for this year's quilt show.

Vickie Skuodas did some follow-up on the show. Quilt categories were defined and we were reminded to label all our items. White gloves, hostesses and ticket sellers are still needed. Incentives for auction items are a one year membership to the Guild and jewelry by Sheila Green. The deadline for items is the March meeting.

Elaine Nielsen, the quilt travel agent, still has tickets to sell. Turn in any tickets you can't sell.

Mickey Andersen has her quilt show decoration wish list posted. Give her your name for the needed items.

Lucille Lenz needs white gloves for the 2 hour shift at the show. Bring your date book to the next meeting and be prepared to sign up.

Jan Stehlik has the 3rd and final set of instructions for the challenge quilt. After this is "Just Deserts" which is an on-your-own design. It's still not too late to do the challenge! Bring your project, finished or not to the May meeting.

Lynn DeShon did a "show and tell" of the quilt show auction items donated so far. Items ranged from wall hangings to Christmas ornaments.

Millie Fauquet displayed the latest Guild fund-raising top from the Quilt Tops. The top is a log cabin called "Barn Raising."

Kim Bock and Mona Jeanne Easter were tonight's winners of Friendship Blocks.

The meeting was adjourned. Show and tell followed. Linda Mager bid us "goodnight."

Respectfully submitted, Celest Higgins
