

On January 14, 2002, Carolyn Ducey will help us begin the new year with a program about the International Quilt Study Center and it's quilts. Many of our members have listened to references about the IQSC and we all contribute to it through the guild, but it's really something we only vaguely understand. Carolyn will help clear the fog. But be warned. You'll be amazed at what they're doing right here on our own East Campus at UNL and you might even want to become an IQSC volunteer!

Greeters for the January meeting will be Lynn Wallace and Dana Atteberry.

Remember to bring:

Announcements for your committee
 Coffee mug
 Library books to return
 Friendship blocks
 Show and Tell quilts
 Raffle tickets and money
 Quilted donations for the 2002 Small
 Quilt Auction

President's Column by Janiece Goin

This is Dec. 1 and I'm writing for the January newsletter. Christmas isn't here yet, but we celebrated Christmas at Thanksgiving with our children and new grandson. Time is relative right now.

I just have to tell you that our grandson is growing and has a double chin at 6 weeks old. He was starting to focus on eyes, and the night before we left, he started cooing and talking. He is so precious, even when he sprayed me while getting him ready for his bath. He was smiling during that time, and you just have to wonder if he really knows what is going on. He enjoyed his bath too.

We are requesting that all committee chairs who get up for announcements at the meeting to please give the Secretary a written form of your announcement as you are coming up which will make her job easier and more accurate. Thank you for your help.

Thank you for all the donations for the Santa Socks/Sacks and the Food Pantry. Many people will benefit from your generosity. Thanks to the Royal Neighbors of America for matching funds.

These winter months are a good time to get a quilt or quilts ready for the LQG Quilt Show. What other ways can you help with the Quilt Show?

Raffle Tickets

Mary Swinton (423-1022) is the chair for raffle tickets. Contact her for more tickets, and to turn in your money and ticket stubs for the drawing to be held at the Quilt Show next summer. If every member of LQG would sell just one book of ten raffle tickets, nearly 3000 of the 4999 raffle tickets will be sold.

QUILT SHOWS AT THE UNIVERSITY PLACE ART CENTER

We thank the following people who have lent their quilts for our "Angel" display: Janiece Goin, Sharlee Green, Sheila Green, Marilyn Rembolt, Lora Rocke and Lois Wilson. Ginny Welty and Judy Lane shared their bed-sized holiday quilts for display in the Lux Gallery.

Our current display features "Star" quilts. Thanks to JoAnne Bair, Brenda Carlson, Donna Christensen, Carol Curtis, Anita Dover, Mildred Fauquet, Sheila Green, Judy Lane, Elaine Nielsen, Marcee Seng, Gloria Smith, Connie Strobe and Ginny Welty for furnishing quilts for this display.

Visit the Lincoln Quilters Guild Resource room in the University Place Art Center. It's currently the only quilt show in town!

A great big THANK YOU to all who helped with the Holiday Peek at the University Place Art Center! Special thanks go to Beverly Vogel who cleaned and decorated the resource room to host the coffee for Peek guests and to Diane Deahl who helped coordinate the resource room workers. Our next opportunity to help will be the Art Auction in the spring. Thanks again!

from Jo Anne Bair.

FOOD PANTRY COLLECTIONS

A HUGE thank you to all who supported the Food Pantry at the November meeting! $49 (will be $98 with the matching funds) and 194 pounds of non-perishable food was donated and delivered. This past October had the highest number of requests ever for food boxes, so our efforts were really appreciated. The food will go to The City Mission, The Gathering Place, Lincoln Action Program, Friendship Home and Cedars Youth on the Street.

from Sheila Green

The 2002 Bus Trip will be held on April 20th. We will be going to The Quilting Bee in Salina, KS and the Button Hole in McPherson, KS. If you have never been to the Button Hole, it is worth the trip. They have over 8500 bolts to choose from and the shop itself is unbelievable. We will be having lunch at a deli in Salina. The food was delicious and the cost is included in the trip cost. The cost of the trip is $45 that is non-refundable unless someone takes your place. See Diana Dreith or Cindy Weyers at the next guild meeting.

Royal Neighbors of America Update

Our November guild meeting had a lot going on. To add to the activities, representatives from Royal Neighbors of America, Cap 44, were in attendance. They were handing out auto litter bags with a notepad and pen as we arrived. They were also selling a very nice recipe book for only $2.50. We also signed up for door prizes that Royal Neighbors provided. Those prizes included a soup mug, tote bag, covered road atlas, cheese board & cutter, and a thermometer.

The purpose for Royal Neighbors joining our meeting was their offer to match our Santa Socks fund-raiser. Even the sale of their donated cookbooks went into our fund drive. And I am pleased to let you know that I have received a check from Royal Neighbors of America in the amount of $1,220.

Reverse Applique: The cutting, turning under and blind stitching of a top layer of fabric to reveal a shape created by an exposed under layer of fabric. Reverse applique is especially useful when shapes are very small and when the illusion of depth is desired.
