

Lincoln Quilters Guild Announcements

A note from President Lisa Burham

Hi Quilters,

I just put the final stitches in the binding on a quilt I made over the break...isn't that a great feeling? Now I can add some of my fabric to the donation pile for the Isles Sale in March. And here's the big news...Donated fabric for the Isles Sale does not need to be measured this year.

The Board has decided to sell the donations by the pound and therefore...no measuring required. We will still attach a price tag to any donated kits, or precuts. All other fabric will be weighed at the time of the purchase and priced accordingly. (Donations should be at least the size of a fat quarter.) Hope that makes things easier for you as you gather fabric for donation.

Please take a look at the amazing news from our Cuddle group. Thank you to all those involved in this incredible outreach. "Quilters really do make great comforters!" 🥰

Just a reminder while you are keeping warm by the light of your sewing machines--placemats for the Meals on Wheels folks can be brought to any of our meetings starting in March. And be sure to check out all the 2020 Quilt Show quilting opportunities we can be working on...I'm thinking that I might make that birthday gift I was wanting to create this year in a "Sun & Fun" theme. Exciting!

If you'd like to get out and enjoy a quilting related field trip, you might check out the quilting events included in Fiber Fest. There are still events through February that might be of interest to quilters. (www.fiberfest.art)

Happy stitching!
Lisa

We love to see your quilts! Your quilter needs some time to get these quilts done! So get your quilts ready for the quilters. After all....they have their own to complete too!

We will have entry forms ready soon, but think in the usual categories: mini quilts, bed sized or art quilts and wallhangings.

Challenge Quilts

80" perimeter max.....any technique is fine.

Title is "Fun in the Sun".

Ideas might be.....beaches, golfing, picnics, ball games, or playing with the kids.

There is a prize for the winner!

Auction Quilts

Each year, the auction is a great fund raiser for the Guild.....to make this happen, we need your donations! Our goal is 100 quilts.

Linda Underwood is our auctioneer once more, and she does entertain!

Please consider donating a quilt that someone else will just love!

Auction Chair is Marge Bunde mebunde@gmail.com or 402 486-4114

Thanks in advance!
