"Choosing the Best Quilting Design" Trunk Show
Monday, April 10, 2006 7:00 pm

When Lynn Witzenburg's computer programmer career ended due to severe arm pain, she started machine quilting. The machine quilting became a new source of entertainment, and her skills improved. Lynn started receiving requests for hired machine quilting work.

Lynn, lives in Des Moines, Iowa and has twice been juried into Paducah, Kentucky's American Quilter's Society show. She quilts for other professionals such as Marianne Fons, and Liz Porter.

Lynn's lecture will give great tips for choosing the quilting design that compliments your quilt top. Learn to apply her 'no rules' theory.

President's Message

What a surprise that winter storm was! Hope you stayed in and kept warm! If you're like me you spent that time putting the finishing touches on your show entries.

For a wonderful show we need quilts from all of you. Now I know some of you are thinking that your quilt may not measure up to the beauties that some of our more experienced quilters will enter. Put that thought out of your head right now. One of the things that makes our show so wonderful is the variety of quilts we show – not only different styles, but also varying levels of difficulty. I know there will be wanna-be quilters at the show. They will be wowed by the gorgeous, intricate patterns. But what will truly inspire a wanna-be are those simpler, easier, not so intimidating quilts. So, no matter what your quilting expertise, please do enter a quilt for our show. And even if you are not so experienced, show your quilt with pride. You have created a piece that is as unique and beautiful as you are.

Linda Loker

LQG President 2005-2006

Labels for Cuddle Quilts

If you are turning in a cuddle quilt, please sew a label to the back of it. This will save Anita from having to sew a label on each cuddle quilt herself !!

It's easy. Cut a 3" x 4 1/2" rectangle from muslin or white fabric (plain is best). Press under 1/2" on all edges. Stitch to the back of the cuddle quilt. That's it. You don't have to write anything on it.

When Anita gets your finished cuddle quilt, she'll stamp on your muslin label. She has a stamp that puts all of the LQG information on the label.

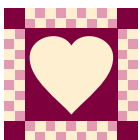

Please keep your email address current with Lincoln Quilters' Guild

Send Kate Laucomer your email address you wish to receive email notices on events not listed in the Plain Print newsletter.

Starting in NOVEMBER 2005, the Plain Print newsletter is being submitted by email.

Since FEBRUARY 2006, to save postage and printing cost, the Plain Print is only mailed to those who don't have email or wish to receive a printed copy. You can email Kate your address at: LincolnQuilters@aol.com.

Contact Linda Loker – President
<nequilter@neb.rr.com> if you have questions.
Thanks!

Volunteers needed! How many volunteers are needed to put on Quiltfest 2006? Some 200 time slots need to be filled during the three days! Please sign up to Hang or Take Down Quilts, White Glove, Admission's Table, Raffle and Guild Information Table. All shifts are two hours. Volunteers will check in at the Raffle/Guild Info Table and pick up their name tag.

Security Personnel needed! Posh job. Enjoy a personal quilt show.....all night long. If you and a friend or two would like to provide a night of security for Quiltfest, please call Connie Strobe at 423-7375.

Admission: Quiltfest Admission is $3 for LQG members and guests, children 10 & under are free. Guests may have their hand stamped for readmission the same day. LQG members who work a shift, are entitled to free admission (by wearing their name tag) the entire show! Our Thursday evening "Garden Party" reception is free to LQG members and a guest.

Habitat for Humanity will benefit from the live Auction held June 11, Sunday afternoon at 3pm. 10% of the auction proceeds will go towards building a Habitat house in the Lincoln area. It is estimated that over 21,000 citizens of Lincoln live in substandard housing. Habitat for Humanity strongly believes we are not just building homes, we are building hope and building lives. Families are selected based on their need for adequate housing, level of income and willingness to participate. Habitat families must agree to contribute "sweat equity" hours on construction of their home. The Habitat family signs an interest-free mortgage and makes affordable house payments, including insurance and taxes. House payments are deposited back into Habitat's general funds to help support the construction of more Habitat homes in the Lincoln community! Thanks to Habitat for including an article about Quiltfest in their spring newsletter, The Blue Print, mailed to 3,000 homes and businesses.

Raffle Quilt ticket report

Happy news this month! 204 tickets were turned in at our March meeting. WOW! This is wonderful!

As I recorded the turned in tickets, I noticed that even though each member received a packet of tickets stapled to the back of your yearbook, many of you were good enough to have taken tickets at your small groups also. Thank you so much for going that extra mile! We are asking that if you are one of these lovely people, would you please check and see if you still have them, as we (or you) might be able to sell them if we had them. Money and ticket stubs can be turned in at the guild meetings or you can mail them directly to Shirley in the self addressed envelope!

Wallhangings for Habitat Homeowners

Welcome a family into their new Habitat for Humanity home with your gift of a quilted wallhanging! We have two wallhangings so far! Thanks to Jean Barney for her donation. Home themed wallhangings, any technique, about 18"x24" are needed. Bring your donation to the next meeting! Questions? call Sheila Green 483-0453

Spring Bus Trip

(At the LQG meeting on March 13, it was announced that there are only 6 seats left. Once the bus is full, a waiting list will be available in case there are some cancellations. Don't Dally!)

The bus trip will roll out of town early in the morning on April 22, 2006. We head east to West Des Moines and Ames, Iowa. There are two real cute quilt stores in West Des Moines along with a great assortment of art, antique and miscellaneous shops – not to mention great eateries. It is similar to the atmosphere of the Haymarket but much more level!

The “Quilting Connection” in Ames is set in a “small downtown business district” which offers lots of interesting businesses in a relatively small area. And there are eateries.

The timeline will be ironed out in the near future but the usual timeframe “5 a.m.-ish to 10p.m.-ish.” The registration fee is $50.00 and will include breakfast items and snacks and extras on the bus. (With all the references to food, guess what our New Year’s Resolutions include?!?)

Quilt Auction Entries Needed

Many thanks to those that have turned in their small quilt donations so far. I have 35 collected, and promises for more. We are still far from our goal of 100, so please keep on working on your pieces.

Remember that if it is a wallhanging, please include a sleeve, and always attach a label.

Think about those who might enjoy the auction as well. Those who do not quilt make great auction bidders also. Make sure that your friends and relatives know about the auction well in advance so that they can plan to attend.

- Many of you read the article in the Plain Print regarding making soldier blocks. The VA hospital in Indianapolis will be a rehab center for wounded soldiers and a group there would like to give each soldier a quilt. Many members were at retreat this past week end and 557 quilt blocks were made. If members would like to participate, blocks can be brought to Guild meetings in April and May and given to Kate Laucomer, Cindy Weyers or Diana Dreith who will forward them to Indianapolis. Instructions for the blocks are in the Plain Print.
- The Evening Stars workshop has decided to adopt some soldiers serving in Iraq. Several LQG members have immediate family members in Iraq. Each month a collection will be taken up and the money will buy items to send in a care package to the soldiers. The Evening Stars would like to open this opportunity to the rest of LQG members. Each month they will have a "soldier jar" with them for donations of a dollar or two or spare change. The collection will be combined with the money from the Evening Stars workshop and then several members will do the shopping and mailing.

Old Business

A. Newsletter by email is going well. Thanks to Lin Gowin-O'Brien for the wonderful job she is doing in putting the newsletter together.

B. Cuddle Quilts. Thanks to Anita Ahrens and the rest of her committee for sorting and cleaning up the fabric stash. Some of the materials on hand were not suitable for cuddle quilts and those fabrics were donated to the Indian Center. Members did a great job of giving the Guild a birthday present of new child appropriate fabrics as evidenced by the full totes by the Cuddle Quilt table. In an effort to strengthen the program, the new budget will call for increased funds for the cuddle quilts. Patterns and ideas will be made available on the website and in future newsletters for members who might like to work on projects at home. Those of you who do complete a quilt are asked to hand stitch a blank white or muslin label to the back of the quilt. Anita will then stamp the label. Dimensions for the label will be in the Plain Print.

C. Bus Trip. Lora Yardley reminded members that the trip is coming up soon. There are six openings available for the trip which will go to Des Moines and Ames, Iowa. They have just learned that the shop in Elk Horn, Iowa will open early for the first stop on the trip.

There will no longer be a late fee; however, if dues are not paid by July 1st, the member will not be in the membership book or receive the September newsletter as it takes time to get the information compiled.
