October Speaker • Ami Simms
Monday, October 9 • 7 pm

What a treat our October program will be! Ami Simms (rhymes with Salami, but she'll answer to any lunch meat) from Flint, Michigan will be presenting her program, "Humorous Quilts and Their Makers." Ami promises that this slide survey of quilts will "induce smiles, giggles, and maybe a guffaw or two. Quilt artists out to tickle your funny bone include: Barbara Brackman, Helen Kelley, Jean Ray Laurie, and Ami Simms." Ami is also the quilter who organized the Alzheimer's Art Quilt Initiative.

The October class still has a few openings. Ami will be teaching her "Twisted Sisters" class in which you will stitch light and dark fabrics together, slice and recombine them to make twisting pinwheel blocks which may be set together with or without sashing strips. You can check out samples of quilts made by other students who have taken this class at www.amisimms.com. Ami was named the 2005 Teacher of the Year by Professional Quilter Magazine so this promises to be wonderful experience. The class fee is $35.

You can also register at this time for the November class. (SEE REGISTRATION FORM ON PAGE 2). Judy Woodworth from Gering, Nebraska is teaching a fascinating class in Colorwash Bargello. She'll show how easy it is to change the motion of the quilt if you wish to take things to a more creative level. The class fee is $30.

All classes are held at Sheridan Lutheran Church at 70th and Old Cheney.

President's Message

I am soooooo excited! Ami Simms is coming to Lincoln!!! I have been waiting years for our guild to get her here. I can't wait. For those of you not familiar with Ami, check out her website: www.AmiSimms.com She has some incredibly funny things on her site...the Worst Quilt in the World contest and What Were They THINKING? to name a couple. And on a serious note, check out the Alzheimer's Art Quilt Initiative.... but have some tissues close by.

Don't you just LOVE fall in Nebraska? Husker Football. Husker volleyball. Hours and hours of sports time to listen to a game....which gives you hours and hours of time to stitch as you listen!!!!

Wishing you hours of stitching time

Discover Nebraska

A group of 12 classroom volunteers met to prepare classroom materials for this school year. A training session was held for a special guest from Sidney, Nebraska, who will be spreading our program westward! A luncheon followed the workshop. Thanks to Ken Green for creating a template to make marking the paper quilt foundations go much quicker! It's not too late to join us in the fourth grade classrooms this year. 16 schools have already scheduled presentations!

Complete information, including our schedule, can be found on our website www.DiscoverNebraska.org or by calling Sheila Green 483-0453

Nebraska State Fair

Thanks for the fantastic response from LQG members who volunteered to hang and take down the quilts at the Fair!!

Twenty of our members plus spouses did a fantastic job in creating a wonderful display of quilts! Many of our members white gloved as well. Things went very smoothly, hanging, taking down, and checking out. We couldn't have done it without your help!

Sheila Green

Santa Socks

Let's get in the Holiday Spirit by stitching up some Santa Socks.

They will be due at the November meeting. Start saving your dollars for voting.

Donations of women's personal items or small toys for the children can be brought in October or November.

Patterns for socks will be available at the October meeting.

Don't have time for a sock? Then try a few Santa Socks. Instructions below.

1 fat quarter Holiday fabric

3/4 yd. ribbon or cord for drawstring

1. Fold down about 1" along one 22" edge of the fat quarter. Stitch, forming casing.
2. Fold fat quarter in half with right sides together – should measure about 11" x 17"
3. Sew across bottom and up one long side ending at casing.
4. Turn right side out. Thread ribbon through casing. Knot ends together

Questions? Call Gloria Smith at 489-0062 or Sandra Gruntorad at 423-5828

Threads Across Nebraska

Wanted to remind everyone that Threads Across Nebraska will be held October 6 and 7 at the Kearney Event Center in Kearney, Nebraska. There is still room for volunteers to help with white gloving and the admission table. We also need help hanging quilts on Thursday and take down on Saturday.

Minutes of the Lincoln Quilters Guild - September 11, 2006

College View Seventh-Day Adventist Church - Lincoln, Nebraska

President Kate Laucomer, called the September 11, 2006 meeting to order at 7:00pm and welcomed everyone back after a long summer.

Becky Haynes, introduced her local small quilt group called the Applebee Quilters. This group consists of twelve active and retired teachers from Lincoln Public Schools. They shared quilts that they have made in monthly projects and for annual celebrations over the past fifteen years.

The business meeting followed.

The minutes of the May 8, 2006, were accepted as printed in the Plain Print, there were no corrections.

The Treasurer's reports was also printed in the Plain Print, there were no corrections. The Treasurer's reports are remanded for audit.

Announcements: Judy Lane

Refreshment committee this evening were- Jan Hunt, Chair, Joyce Sodertholm, Pam Wakeman, Cindi Pape, Nancy Evans, Leslie Reed. Rosie Beekman was absent.

Thank you note from Kael Clark, thanking the Guild for the Nemo quilt she received. The parents of Kellee Sneathen sent a thank you for the baby quilt. Leola Kahl thanked us for the Bloomin' Beauty quilt she won at our Bloomin' Quilt show. Also a thank you from Millie Fauquet for the County fair ribbon and cash prize she received for her quilt.

Threads Across Nebraska, presented by the Nebraska State Guild will be at Kearney, October 6th and 7th 2006, at the Kearney Event Center.

There are still a few openings for Fall retreat, which will be Friday, October 20th starting at noon to Sunday, October 22nd, till 3pm.

The Fremont Prairie Piecemakers Guild are having the show October 20th and 21st., at the Fremont City Auditorium. Karen Ruwe, a Quilter and Artist, will be featured.

The Heritage Quilt and Needlework, will have their 23rd Annual Quilt and Needlework Show, September 16-17, which will be at the Memorial Building in Nebraska City.

Country Piecemakers will hold their Quilt Show September 22nd and September 23rd at Our Savior Lutheran Church in Norfolk, Nebraska.

Stuhr Museum in Grand Island is having a quilt show February 3rd and 4th. They are also sponsoring a quilt contest.

Santa Socks are in November. Gloria

Smith and Sandy Gruntorad, have patterns and fabric.

New Business:

Lancaster County Fair: Best Quilt Award – Millie Fauquet (LQG member)

State Fair:

Founders Award – Carol Falk, Nebraska City

First Quilt – Lori Thompson, Lincoln
Best Wall Quilt – Peg Pennell, Omaha
Best Contemporary Quilt – Shelly Burge, Lincoln

Calendars:

Bonnie Kucera showed a calendar that has the NSQG raffle quilt designed and made by Sandi McMillan and Laura Franchini. Bonnie said she is taking orders for the Calendars which sell for $14.00, postage and handling is included in the price...she will bring the Calendars to the October meeting.

Classes:

Becky Haynes, announced Ami Simms' class "Twisted Sisters" on October 9, at Sheridan Lutheran Church, 70th and Old Cheney, Room 113, cost is $35.00. It is an all day class, there are still a few openings. You can see her quilts on her web site, www.amisimms.com.

Judy Woodworth class is November 13th, place TBA, cost is $30.00. It is an all day class. Becky said she will stay after the meeting for those interested in signing up for the two classes.

Problems:

A couple problems have occurred that needed to be brought to the Guild's attention. The written text of Kate's statements to the guild is included in the minutes in order to avoid paraphrasing or summarizing.

Unfortunately, we have had some problems arise in the last few weeks that need to be brought to the Guild's attention.

The first concerns the programs and classes lined up for this year. There has already been grumbling and complaining. One comment made was, "It's not going to be worth even going to the meetings this year!"

As you may recall, we have had 2 vice president-elects resign. Becky agreed to be vice president for me because we are friends. Back in 1996, Becky was President and I was her Vice President. So she took over the job and started looking for programs and classes approximately the 1st of February. Ami Simms was already lined up for October. Becky had the rest of the year to fill.

One thing everyone needs to be aware of is the time factor. Most of what we would consider national teachers are booking classes and lectures 18 – 30 months in the future. That made it hard to line up anyone for this year.

However, Becky did line up Shelly Burge and Brenda Groelz. There is something that many of you may not understand. Shelly and Brenda are both good old Nebraska girls. They are also both national speakers and teachers who have also taught at the international level !!

SOOOOOO, Ami Simms, Brenda Groelz, Shelly Burge, and Betty Lenz.... that makes 4 national speakers at our guild this coming year.

I know everyone has different interests in quilting and different speakers they want to hear speak at Guild, but please be kind to our Vice President and at least give the speakers a chance.

Many of you may have noticed Becky's email address printed on the class sign up forms in the Plain Print. It was an LPS.org address that all teachers in Lincoln Public Schools' have. Becky used this address for her email, BUT ... and here's the important part... she read and did her email at home. This has been the common practice for teachers and other LPS employees who have this email address. I have several friends who teach for LPS and they all said they do the same thing. None of my friends, including Becky, had ever been told this practice was unacceptable.

Now for the second problem. A member of our Guild called the LPS administration office and filed a citizen's complaint against Becky for using this email address for personal use. Becky was contacted by the Administration and told to stop this practice immediately, which she has done. BUT a citizen's complaint was placed in Becky's personnel folder. This is NOT a good thing.

The other part of this problem is that the complaint was made by someone identifying herself (or himself) as part of Lincoln Quilters Guild. It could be inferred that this was an official complaint from LQG and this is inappropriate! Any correspondence representing LQG should come from the Board or should be authorized by the Board.

To wrap this up....

- 1. Correspondence from LQG should come from or be authorized by the Board.*
- 2. If you have a problem with something going on in Guild, let's try to resolve it*

within the Guild without involving outside people.

3. Please talk with your Board. If you have a problem with something going on, there are 8 people on this board. They're listed in the front of your membership book. If you have a problem with one of us and don't want to confront that person, there are 7 other people to talk with.

New Business

Ricky Tims Seminar:

Ricky Tims is coming to Omaha with Alex Anderson and Libby Lehman. Ricky's seminar will be sponsored by the Omaha Guild as a fund raiser for the International Quilt Study Center.

Fabric Exchange:

Susan Johnson Russell, will be in charge of the Fabric exchange. There are three choices of size of fabric you wish to exchange: 9", ¼ yd. (fat quarter), or ½ yd. You will exchange with the size you brought. If there is not a fabric you wish to exchange for, you will receive a ticket to use at a later time. More information will be in the Plain Print.

Quilt Challenge:

Rosalind Carr, Elizabeth Sterns, Joyce Donlan and Judy Lane are the four working on the challenge.

Rosalind said we are to design and make a quilt that our favorite literary character would like.

Elizabeth gave the rules to follow, which are in the packet. Quilts may be turned in early to be viewed by a panel of judges. Or quilts may be brought to the April meeting to be seen and voted on for viewer's choice awards.

Joyce gave us a list of the different kinds of books we can choose for our challenge.

Judy showed the three different fabrics for the challenge. There are 60 packets prepared and the fat quarter will come in what looks like a book cover. The cost is $5.00 each. The rules, the submissions and the forms are in the packet.

Membership Books:

Kate announced several corrections that are to be made in the Membership Book. They are as follows:

1. The September class: is Tuesday, September 12th, not Monday September 11th, as printed.
2. The April class is on Tuesday, April 10th, not April 9th, as printed.
3. Sara Velder lives in Elmwood, not Lincoln, as printed.

If there are anymore corrections, please let Kate know after the meeting or email her at LincolnQuilters@aol.com. This is the email address that appears in the Plain Print each month.

Old Business

LQG Quilt Show:

Carolyn Meter reported admissions totaled $3376 (1,100 paying guest). We sold $4,471 Raffle Tickets, net Raffle Quilt profit $4,000.00. The Auction totaled $5,025.

The quilt and dishes donated for the International Quilt Study Center yielded $283. $529 was donated to Habitat for Humanity. Total net Quiltfest profit was $10,140.

Shirley Chaffin, reported on the ticket sales. The most tickets sold were by Bernice Jeffries and Chris Taylor, they each sold 80 tickets. Marilyn Rembolt and Sheila Warren each sold 75 tickets each. Mary Scheele sold 51 tickets and Lin Gowin-O'Brien sold 50 tickets. Shirley promised at the beginning of the ticket sales, those who sold the most tickets would receive fabric.

Sheila Green reported the 450 quilts displayed at Quiltfest were viewed by 1,750 visitors, including the 14 Japanese quilting instructors and other visitors from the national and international quilting community. Visitors commented on the quality of the quilts exhibited, especially noting the Artful Dwelling and 3D House Display.

Habitat for Humanity: Sheila Green has had five small quilts donated and fifteen bed size quilts donated for new Habitat homeowners. More are needed.

State Fair quilt hanging: Sheila reported when she and Linda Gapp took over for Janice Lippincott, she was very pleased with the response she got from her email she sent out for helpers. 19 LQG members and 4 spouses helped hang and take down the quilts. Many other members white gloved.

Discover Nebraska:

Sheila Green said there are 16 presentations booked for this school year. There will be an orientation and workshop to prepare the copy material and a luncheon, September 13th at All Saints Lutheran Church from 10 a.m. to 12 p.m. More classroom volunteers are needed.

Email address:

Many of you have changed your email addresses over the last several months. If you want to receive the newsletter and other guild emails, please send an email to LincolnQuilters@aol.com. If you have an email address with Alltel and it has switched to Windstream you do not need send in a change of email address.

Committee Reports:

Committee chairs are asked to consider including routine monthly reports in the announcements rather than reported individually each month.

Mini Raffle:

A wallhanging by Kate Laucomer was won by Donna Welte, a heart basket wallhanging donated by Sue McKee was won by Donna Welte, Sharon Minear donated a basket of 20 fat quarters which was won by June Reta, and a book donated by Lorelee Novak was won by Donna Welte.

Friendship Blocks:

Martha Lane and Donna Welte have come up with a great idea for friendship blocks this year. They explained how easy they are this year.

Cuddle Quilts:

Something new will be tried this year. Kate Laucomer has made several new patterns for cuddle quilts. She gave Sharlee Green two new patterns and fabric to make samples to show. The quilt patterns will be on the website soon. You should be able to download them. For those of you who can't download from the website, there will be patterns on the Cuddle Quilt Table AFTER the meeting. You are asked not to take a pattern if you don't plan on making a cuddle quilt. Anita Ahrens showed 2 new cuddle quilts patterns made by Millie Fauquet, Vicky Skuodas, and kits with these patterns are available at the Cuddle Quilt table.

The meeting was adjourned to Show and Tell.

*Minutes submitted by Sharlee Green
LQG Secretary*

Please keep your email address current with LQG

Send Kate Laucomer your email address if you wish to receive email notices on events not posted in the PLAIN PRINT. We are continuing to email and post the newsletter on our website for all editions.

Since FEBRUARY 2006, to save postage and printing cost, the Plain Print is only mailed to those who don't have email or wish to receive a printed copy. You can email Kate your address at: LincolnQuilters@aol.com or call her at 423-4611.

There are many who renewed their membership last spring but already are NOT current. Please UPDATE your address to Kate. If you are new or renewing this fall, please fill the information on your membership form. It will be forwarded to her.

RICKY TIMS COMING!

Ricky Tims is coming to Omaha! Ricky, Alex Anderson and Libby Lehman will be presenting a two day Quilt Seminar and evening musical performance. The Omaha Quilters Guild is using this event as a fundraiser for the International Quilt Study Center.

When: August 16-18, 2007

Where: Omaha's Holland Performing Arts Center

Registration blanks and details will follow. If anyone asks what you'd like for Christmas, this may be your answer! Start saving now for this unique opportunity. Contact Sheila Green for details at 483-0453.

The Astrology of Quilters

(based on an article by Luana Rubin, McCall's Quilting, October 2004)

Libra

September 23 - October 22

Libra is ruled by Venus, the goddess of Love and Beauty. Libra quilters are in constant search for balance and harmony, and express these qualities in their quilts. They are wonderful teachers because of their diplomatic and flexible nature.

New Members

We are happy to report that 23 new guild members received nametags at the September meeting. If you are a new member and did NOT receive your nametag, look for us at the October meeting. Any question? Call Roxann O'Hare at 464-4040 or Rosie Westerhold 466-4662 or rosiequilter@neb.rr.com

OCTOBER 2006 "CUT-UP" BLOCK

Martha Lane and Donna Welte have been brain-storming to come up with a new "twist" in the monthly Friendship Blocks. This idea is simple and won't require a pattern. Just follow these simple instructions

1. Cut one light and one dark (or medium) 6½" square each

2. Cut two 3" squares from scrap light fabric and cut two 3" squares from scrap dark fabric. (Should be different from the 6½" squares)

3. Draw diagonal lines on the back of the 3" squares. These will be the stitching lines.

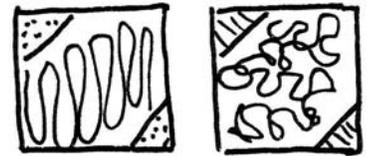

4. Place the light 3" squares on the darker 6½" square, right sides together (RST) on opposite corners. Sew across the diagonal lines. Repeat with the dark 3" squares on the light 6½" square. (DO NOT TRIM ANY CORNERS!!) The block winners will trim the comers.

5. Fold the corner squares back over the seam and press.

6. Make as many as you want. You will get a chance for each block you turn in. Use your scraps!

Due at the October 2006 meeting.

LQG Fabric Exchange Table

1. No money is involved (beyond your initial cost for fabric).

2. The table will consist of an assortment of fabrics in these sizes:

- a. 9" squares
- b. ¼ yards – straight cuts or fat quarters
- c. ½ yards

3. You trade one-for-one.

- a. one 9" square for one 9" square, one ¼ yard for a ¼ yard, one ½ yard for a ½ yard.
- b. You cannot trade a ½ yard for two ¼ yard pieces or vice versa.
- c. The trade must be "like for like".

4. If you contribute a "unit", but don't find one you want that month, you will be given a coupon to redeem at a later meeting. Coupons do not expire; neither will they be replaced if lost.

Free Range Quilting Retreat

Don't be a chicken.... come to Fall retreat!

Friday, October 20, 2006 (noon)
to Sunday, October 22, 2006 (3 pm)

There are still some openings for the Fall Quilting Retreat. Get your registration and payment in FAST because it is filling up!

A SMALL daily project is planned...the rest of the time is for your own projects. There will be many "exchanges" in which you may choose to take part.
