 Presentation: History of An Obsessive Quilter
 Ann L Petersen: www.obsessivequilter.weebly.com

I have been quilting, on and off for most of my adult life but it has become my favorite pastime and occupation. I enjoy playing with design, color and texture in quilting and often enter quilt shows to test my skills. If I have a recognizable style it would be quilts which are heavily pieced, play with color shifts across the surface of a quilt, and are heavily quilted.

This talk and trunk show is about how I started to quilt and eventually became the quilter I am today. Trunk show includes items from my earliest class to my most recent show quilts.

Class: Monday, November 12, 2012

Prickly Pineapple – Paper Piecing

Fee: $50 plus pattern

This original quilt is based on an off-center pineapple block which is paper-pieced. This quilt uses only 2 fabrics - one multi-colored and one solid black. Whether you are just learning to paper piece or just want to try something different, this is a fun class. It may be done in other color ways with more fabrics. Paper piecing with strips or freezer paper are the 2 methods that will be used. Patterns available in class. Full day workshop

President's Message

It has come to my attention that there are a number of new members who do not know who I am, so allow me to introduce myself. My full name is Sandra Annette Skoglund-Anderson, but most call me Sandy.

I have been a members of LQG since March of 1975. I was president of LQG 1993-1994 and my how we have grown! I started quilting in 1970. My husband's (Ivan) grandmother was my mentor and started me on this quilting journey. Since he came from a quilting family, Ivan is very supportive of my quilting activities and even encourages me to enlarge my stash.

We have been married for 42 years and have three grown children, 2 daughters and 1 son and also 4 grandchildren, 3 girls and 1 boy. While the children were growing up, our house was a zoo, literally, with dogs, cats, hamsters, hedgehogs, lizards, fish, parakeets and turtles. We now only have 1 cat, 2 Siberian Huskys and 3 goldfish.

Ivan and I both work at Speedway Motors, Fiberglass. He has been there 40 years and I've been there 27. He is "boss" at work but let's say things at home are a little different.

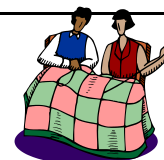

My favorite quilts are Sunbonnet Sues and Story Quilts. I love applique and have made over 200 quilts. I also make cloth dolls and build 1" to 1' scale houses. One of my houses is a Quilt Shop, "The Quilt Block". I am working on more buildings and some day may have my own village.

I am a member of three small quilting groups, a doll group, a book group, a Red Hat group and volunteer at Bryan Focus School, Discover Nebraska and IQSCM. It takes me a little bit to connect names to faces so please wear your name tag. Feel free to contact me if you have any guild questions. E-mail is best and I will answer as soon as possible.

Have a Safe and Happy Halloween

Sandra

Minutes of the Lincoln Quilters Guild - October 8, 2012

College View Seventh-Day Adventist Church - Lincoln, Nebraska

President Sandy Anderson called the meeting to order at 7 PM with a welcome and a poem. As a matter of respect and courtesy, she asked everyone to please turn off phones and pagers and refrain from taking photographs when doing so would have a negative impact on anyone's enjoyment of the presentation. Vice-president Vicky Skuodas introduced speaker Marlene Rock, a quilt shop owner from Valparaiso, Indiana. Her presentation focused on Designing & Marlene's Blocks of the Month, with multiple illustrations of her philosophy: If the design is broken, fix it while you can. Marlene used a "heads and tails" game to select a dozen audience members for door prizes. Spaces still remain in Marlene's Tuesday workshop, see Vicky for information and a supply list. Following the presentation, the business meeting was convened. There being no additions or corrections, the Minutes of the September 10, 2012 meeting were approved as printed in Ú | æ ã } Á Ú, and the Treasurer's report was remanded for audit.

C` X` 6 i g Nony gg .
B Y k` 6 i g] November 12 Guild Meeting Speaker. Vicky Skuodas announced that Anne L. Peterson of Aurora, Colorado would be the speaker. One of her quilts was recently featured on the cover of Quilter's Newsletter Magazine, and she is known for her expertise in machine quilting. Her presentation is titled "History of an Obsessive Quilter." The class she is offering features paper piecing.

5 b b c i b W Y a Yesiding Elect Linda Daiker made the following announcements. Thank you notes were received from four of the winners of the LQG-sponsored State Fair awards: Patricia Pressler, LaVonne Rosso, Judy Woodworth, and Sandi McMillan. The Robert Hillestad Textile Gallery at UNL is featuring an exhibition of the work of Nebraska Youth in 4-H through October 12. Members are encouraged to pay their dues for September 2012 – November 2013; they are $25 for most and $15 for those age 65 and older. See Joni Sauter, Membership. Linda reminded everyone that members may borrow

LQG library books, some of which are displayed each month at the Library Table. The current Friendship block pattern was published in Ú | æ ã } Á Ú, and the drawing will take place at the November meeting. The documentary film "Blue Alchemy" will be shown at the IQSCM on October 19 at 10 AM. Eight slots remain for a Quilts of Valor sewing day at the Bernina Sewing Center on October 23; contact Judy Lane. Quilts of Valor also meets on the first Sunday of the month from 1-4 PM at Hancock Fabrics. November will be the last meeting of this year to bring items and stockings for the Santa Socks project. Members will vote with their dollar bills next month, with the proceeds used to buy additional items for the stockings. Four visitors were welcomed.

Barbara Brown and Kathy Spitsen conducted the Mini-Raffle, which generated $62.50 for the Santa Socks service project. Juanita Williamson won the silver thimble, pin cushion, 3D framed flower and clam accessory case donated by T. J. Lane, as well as a beautiful floral wall hanging made by Vicky Skuodas. Zita Schneider won the book, CE Á Ô ^ | ^ à | æ c-ã [} Á @ [[\ ^ á Á donated by Mylonie Schatz and The C Q c C • Á U S Á Q ~ Á T ^ Á Ú book donated anonymously, and a pincushion donated by T. J. Lane.

Kathy Morgan and Sue McKee reported on the very successful Mystery Bus Trip to Iowa quilt shops on September 21-22. Sue noted that the bus trip is an opportunity for education and fellowship, is self-funded, and is not a money maker for the guild. The September trip had 36 participants, of which 26 were LQG members. Participants visited nine shops in seven towns and spent more than $12,200 dollars. Kathy and Sue are planning a spring mystery trip for April 12-13, 2013.

Sheila Green provided an overview of Discover Nebraska, which is an education and outreach project in fourth grade classrooms. Discover Nebraska enriches the social studies curriculum and provides information about Nebraska history and the history of quilting. In the past 5-6 years, it has reached approximately 2,500 children each year in 37-43 schools.

So far this year, it is scheduled in 83 classrooms at 25 schools. Those who enjoy working with 10 year olds may volunteer one time, or as often as desired. The schedule is on the LQG website and more information can be found on the Discover Nebraska table. Sheila also reported on plans for the fourth LQG/NSQG sponsorship of National Quilting Day at the Quilt Center. It is Saturday, March 16, and there will be three commercial sponsors, past popular-format activities will be repeated, and there will be some new activities. Featured presenters will be Jay Rich, Molly Anderson, Paulette Peters, and Shelley Burge. Lots of volunteers are needed and there is a sign-up sheet at the table. It is important that spots are filled early since the guild does not meet in December, January, and February, and the March 11, 2013 meeting is less than a week before NQD.

Sandy reminded everyone to read Ú | æ ã } Á Ú noted that Wednesday, October 10, is the deadline for items to appear in the November issue. She invited everyone to peruse the patterns Marlene Rock is offering for sale. Meeting adjourned to Show and Tell at 8:52 PM Ú ã c Á U } Á

Cuddle Quilts

Cuddle Quilts have reached many lives in the past 20 + years. Over the last Guild year, 366 Cuddle Quilts were delivered to places such as:

Saint Elizabeth Hospital
Bryan Hospital
Bags of Love
Christian Heritage (foster care facility)
People's City Mission
Cedars Home
HHS

We have a continued need for quilts to be completed. Our work day is the first Friday of the month from 9 am to 2 pm. If you have a bit of time, please join us! If you can't come on our work day, you can always pick up kits or sandwiches at the Cuddle Quilt table on Guild night. If you wish to start a quilt at home, the LQG website has some easy patterns and quilt sizes for you to check out.

Santa Socks 2012

I want to thank everyone for all the donated items over the past year. Don't forget that November is the month to bring your socks for judging and dollars for voting. It's a great time to be creative and support a great cause.

Thank you for your support!

Joyce Pope

Santa Socks Chair

The war is not over, and the need for Quilts of Valor to cover our wounded warriors continues. Therefore, we are challenging the Guild to make & $$$ Quilts of Valor this year! So, get together with your small groups, or sew on your own, and let's see if we can meet this challenge

We also need long-arming assistance. Julia is quilting most of the QOVs for the Guild but she could really use some help. If you long-arm, please contact Julia (JuliaS@qovf.org) and she can hook you up. Thanks!

Awards Committee

As you know, there are several awards LQG can give to members who have provided outstanding service and/or leadership to the guild. With the change in the guild's year end, those awards will now be given at the November guild meeting, starting with the meeting in November 2013. Nominations for those awards are due on or before September 1, 2013. Obviously, you have a lot of time to submit those nominations and we will put a reminder in a future Plain Print. However, we wanted to bring this change to your attention now, so you can keep the awards in mind as you see or remember individuals providing service to the guild that might be worthy of a nomination. The nomination form and a list of previous award winners can be found on the LQG website. If you have any questions, please contact one of the members of the Awards Committee: Christina Chapman, Barb Brown, Ginny Harvey and Margrethe Ahlschwede

CHRISTMAS PINWHEEL FRIENDSHIP BLOCKS

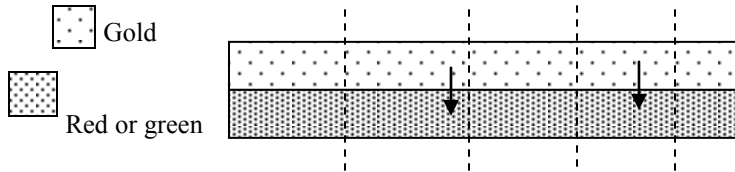

These blocks are done in Christmas colors ô red and gold, or green and gold.

1. Make a strip set of either red and gold or green and gold. Each strip will be cut 2 ½ inches wide. Sew together with a ¼ in. seam. Remember to trim off selvages!

A strip set of 22 ½ inches long will make one block. (There will be a little left over to play with!)

The strip set will measure 4 ½ inches in width. Press seams to the red or green. (see arrows below)

2. Sub-cut the strip set into 4 ½ inch squares. (see dotted vertical lines above)

3. Sew two sub-cuts together with the red or green part to the inside. Repeat.

Press the ¼ inch seams following the arrow.

4. Now join both units into a pinwheel, keeping the red or green fabric to the inside and the gold fabric to the outside. The block will now measure 8 ½ inches.

The drawing for these friendship blocks will be at the November meeting.

Again, we recommend you use address labels attached to a slip of paper---one for each block you submit.

A Reminder About Announcements

There were some guidelines set up last year regarding announcements. These were designed to keep the Business meeting as concise as possible, thereby encouraging more members to stay for Show and Tell and to increase the participation in Show and Tell.

The guidelines are as follows:

-Committee Chairs and Board Members will send to the President any information they want to be announced. This can be done by e-mail or regular mail as long as (s)he receives it by Saturday evening or sooner. These will be reviewed and a decision made using the following guide lines:

-Any announcement that can be put in the Plain Print does not need to be announced.

- Any announcement that comes up after the Saturday before the meeting needs to be given to the President in writing so a decision can be made to include it or not.

-Information that can be handed out at your Committee table should be done that way.

-The President will give approved announcements to the President-Elect to announce during the meeting. If it is decided that it is more appropriate for a person submitting an announcement to present it, the announcement will be given back to that person to present.

-Requests for on-going support of a Committee's endeavors do not need to be given unless it is a new request, a one-time project, deadlines are coming up, or additional help is needed.

The Plain Print and social time before and after meetings is the time to encourage support of regular activities.

- Occasionally we are asked to give information from outside our membership or to advise us of events that members may be interested in. These will be reviewed by the President and President-elect and included as deemed appropriate.

I do not want to discourage any one from giving information to our members but I need to be responsive to the concerns that have been presented by the membership. When we all work together we can make sure that all necessary and appropriate information is given in a brief and concise manner. If you have questions or concerns, please contact me so that we may make sure there are no misunderstandings.

Thank you

Fabulous Fusible Flowers:

Clematis

Fee: $45 Pattern: $12

The deep rich colors of the clematis are intense from its smooth folded petals to its large leaves. I love the spiky stamen in the center. It reminds me of a swirling skirt on the dance floor. This beautiful art quilt can be made in any color you like. Melinda will teach you her fusible flower appliqué technique and help you choose the right colors to make this flower look real. You will use Melinda's book Cutting Garden Quilts to make a color chart with your favorite colors. This is like a fusible paint-by-numbers technique...and it's fun! All skill levels are welcome.
