Computer Skills? Editing Skills?

LQG needs you! Our webmaster and Email expert, Chris Wiegers, has been such a blessing to our guild. Her expertise has provided us with important communication through the updating of our website, and the timely dispatch of our emails. Chris will be retiring from this role and is willing to help train a person (or 2 people) to assume these duties.

If you have an interest in this job, or know someone with these skills, please contact president@lincolnquiltersguild.org as soon as possible.
