March Speaker and class

Cindy comes from Omaha, but having been married to a career military man, has spent time all over the world. She is married with three children and one adorable grandchild. She currently works for Manglesen's in Omaha and has for the last seven years.

Cindy began quilting when in Virginia 14 years ago. She doesn't have one particular style she likes, but her favorite pattern is the 'Jewel Box'.

Cindy will be teaching the "Easy Wedding Ring" class and has made several herself. It is done with strip piecing and is by far the least complicated pattern she has ever seen for this most popular quilt. She loves bright and vibrant colors and is very excited to be teaching this, her favorite, class again.

Cindy will be teaching this class on March 13 from 1 p.m. - 6 p.m. at All Saints Lutheran Church. 8251 Pioneer Blvd. The cost is $25 per student.

*Tuesday April 12: 9 a.m. - 4 p.m. (Bring sack lunch)
"Design As You Go Unmarked Free Motion Machine Quilting"
Cost: $50

Robbi's class teaches you to create your quilting pattern on the fly using free flowing unmarked designs that come from your "inner quilter". Design and supply sources will be discussed and shared. Fuse basting techniques will be explained, as well as Robbi's labor saving techniques of applying a fused binding. No machine quilting experience is necessary. This class will appeal to quilters of all levels and lasts from 9am to 4pm. The cost for this class is $50. While this seems like a great deal of money, several guild members have taken her classes and say she is well worth the money.

Robbi Eklow of Illinois writes a quarterly column, "Goddess of the Last Minute" for Quilting Arts Magazine. You can find more information on Robbi's vibrant and colorful quilts / workshops at her web site: www.robbieklow.com.

Tuesday May 10: 9 a.m. - 4 p.m. (Bring sack lunch)
'round robin' style class
Cost: $25

The Faded Blossoms are also planning our May class. This class will be held on Tuesday, May 10th. They will be doing a 'round robin' style class, teaching both basic techniques and some of the more complicated things they have learned over the years. We are very fortunate to have quilters of this caliber in our guild and more so yet to have them all in one place, teaching some of the many things they do best. This is definitely one you won't want to miss!

Letter from you President....

What a marvelous, proud occasion it was at the February meeting to celebrate completion of our $50,000 pledge to the Mary Campbell Ghormley Reading Room of the new IQSC building!!! While the MCGRR committee will continue to finish a few projects (including the 'Mary's Reel' raffle quilt -- you only have a couple of months to buy more of those tickets!), Sandy Anderson and her committee deserve a huge THANK YOU for their excellent work and completing a lofty goal so early! And a 'thank you' to all who have donated items, time, and dollars to the completion of this goal.

In looking forward, I hope all of you are finding some time to exercise your needles with the new 2006 raffle quilt (it will have a name when we vote at the March meeting). Thank you to the cadre of appliquers who came to my house to donate 80 hours of time to applique the vine border to the quilt.... but now we need quilters to finish the quilt.... so if you haven't already done so, plan to come (or come again!) put a few stitches into this truly 'group' quilt!

Also in March we will be celebrating LQG's 32nd birthday! Be sure to come join the party of friendly quilters.

--Marilyn Rembolt, President

LINCOLN QUILTFEST 2006 "Bloomin' Quilts"

Mark your calendars for June 9-11, 2006! The show will be held at Lux Middle School. All Committee Chairs are in place!! Plans include a partnership with Habitat for Humanity, Hoffmann Challenge Traveling Exhibit, Guild Challenge Quilts, Sunday afternoon live Auction by Linda Underwood, Merchant's Mall, Demonstrations and Lectures, Children's Activities, Thursday evening opening reception and food service by Lolo's. We would appreciate your input as well. If you have ideas from attendance at other quilt shows that you feel could be a good addition to ours, please give us a call. We want to make this our best quilt show yet!
Co-Chairs Sheila Green and Carolyn Meter

LQG member Phyllis Moore has been selected by the Nebraska Arts Council for the Governor's Mansion Exhibition Program. Moore's quilt art show, Sacred Ponds, will run from March 15 through April 16. The gallery space at the Mansion is open on Thursdays only, from 1-4 p.m.

Cuddle Quilts.....

Thank you to all who come out and helped make kits and tie quilts. In February we had 10 volunteers come to our work day. Work days are the first Friday of each month, meeting at the resource room. For those who have been picking up kits to take home and assemble, please bring back the finished tops so that they can be made ready for the next phase. If you have any finished cuddle quilt projects please bring them to the meeting or call Anita at 486-2543 to arrange a pick up. In February 45 quilts were delivered to the hospital.

Quilters Needed!!! All Levels are Welcome!!!

The soon-to-be-named 2006 raffle quilt is being quilted at the 'Cosmic Cow' [6316 Havelock]. Our thanks to Roxanne O'Hare for allowing us to 'house' the quilt there during this phase: QUILTING! Many are already working on the quilt... but if you (or better yet your GROUP of friends) have not quilted on it yet, check your calendar and get quilting. ALL levels of quilters are welcome... this is a 'group quilt'. If you have never quilted at a frame, find an experienced hand quilter to quilt with. This is your chance to have that experience of quilting at a frame and chatting with fellow quilters. The space at the Cosmic Cow has good lighting (both artificial and natural from great south windows) and plenty of space. The quilt IS located, however, on the 2nd floor and there is not an elevator. There is additional parking in the rear of the building. To schedule a time for your group... call Marilyn Rembolt [489-8371]. The quilt is available for quilting during store hours: M-Sat 10-5; Thurs 10-8:30.
