July Workshop

Date: July 9, 2019

Workshop: Leftover Quilt

Instructor: Debra Jalbert

"I made my first quilt in 1992 but became obsessed in 2012, challenging myself to stop making quilts with patterns. I enjoy using most every piece of fabric and consider myself frugal; using even the smallest pieces has influence the way I design and work. I made my first leftovers quilt in 2016 and have made 13 of various sizes, you could say it's addicting.

"During class we will begin the process of constructing a leftovers quilt, aiming to finish the first 12 inches by the end of the day. A twelve-inch block might seem like a small accomplishment, but this is with tiny piecing, if you decide on larger pieces your block will grow larger more quickly."

More Workshops Coming Up

Workshop: Stars in Quilts

Instructor: Edyta Sitar

We have had a great response to this class and all 36 spots are now full. If you'd like to be added to the alternate list, please contact Julie Albrecht at 402.464.2702 or jalbrecht1@unl.edu.

This is a splendid workshop to honor one of the most common loved quilt designs - a Star. I will help you to create beautiful star blocks and inspire you by sharing my thoughts, knowledge, and star quilts. The "Star in Quilts" workshop features 15 different star patterns. Through these patterns we will look at star blocks, layouts, sashing and different techniques to set stars in quilts.

Workshop: Old Fashioned Pine Burr

Instructor: Diane Harris

Pine Burr quilts were made by African Americans and others for decades and they are truly addictive. Easy and fun, this quilt uses up your ugliest fabrics and still looks terrific. We'll learn to cut, fold, place and sew the patches to make a bullseye Pine Burr. You won't believe how fun and relaxing this traditional beauty can be!
