April 2014 Program

Monday April 14, 2014

Speaker: Monique Dillard

Monique Dillard of Rockford IL (USA), was born in Winnipeg, Manitoba (Canada). Her love of quilting was nurtured by relatives in Canada who taught her the art of handwork and sewing. She parlayed her degree in mathematics into a genuine understanding of the need for an accurate 1/4" seam, squared blocks and precise cutting. She was a regular teacher at her local quilt shop for 15 years until her budding quilt design business - Open Gate – steered her career toward a national audience. These days, you can find Monique teaching across the United States at quilt guilds and weekend retreats.

Monique's classes always fill up fast with fans from previous classes and students eager to learn from this talented designer.

Monique has 76 (and counting) Open Gate patterns and 6 rulers (Fit to be Square[®], Fit to be Geese[®], Fit to be Quarter[®], Mini Fit to be Geese[®]). She has also partnered with Sue Glorch of Bundles and Bolts Quilt Co. to co-author 3 block-of-the-month (BOM) books. She finds inspiration for her traditional designs everywhere and is inspired by fabrics, textiles and tapestries. Several trips to Europe have resulted in not only new beautiful quilt pattern designs, but also her fabric line, Olde World Style with Maywood Studio. Olde World Style debuted in May, 2010 at the International Quilt Market in Minneapolis, MN.

In 2011, C&T Publishing debuted Monique's first solo book, Fat Quarter Winners. Traditional Fat Quarter Quilts was published in 2012, and Diamond Traditions was released in 2013. In addition to authoring books, Monique also a frequent contributing writer to various quilt magazines, such as Quilts and More, and American Patchwork and Quilting.

President's Message

Hello everyone and welcome to Spring - I hope. Spring cleaning used to be a big deal in my family. My Mom had everyone working like crazy for two solid days. Thank goodness I don't do that anymore. But actually this could be a great time to clean out your sewing room and find items you don't use. Someone else would love to get those items at the Attic Treasures sale at the quilt show. I have already set out a few books and patterns for that. Check and see if you have anything to donate. Also I hope you're busy working on show items and auction items.

I want to give a special shout of thanks to the Cuddle Quilt ladies who worked so hard to complete the 42 quilts for the children of St. Mary's School in Lincoln. I was thrilled to help hand out those quilts – the children were so excited and pleased to receive the quilts. It was a wonderful and heart-warming experience. Our Guild has some wonderful outreach programs that help so many people in the Lincoln area. I hope all of you are able to contribute to these outreach programs in some way, such as quilts or quilt tops to Cuddle Quilts and Quilts of Valor, items to Santa Socks or pillowcases for Habitat for Humanity. People who receive these items are so grateful for the assistance. Happy quilting!

Linda Daiker

Minutes of the Lincoln Quilters Guild – March 10, 2014 College View Seventh-Day Adventist Church – Lincoln, Nebraska

President Linda Daiker called the meeting to order at 7:00 PM with a welcome. She reminded everyone to silence cell phones. Photos may not be taken during the PowerPoint portion of the presentation.

Speaker Jacquie Gering was introduced for her presentation of "Quilting Modern: Honoring Tradition."

Vice Presidents Sara Kenny and Mary Sedlak discussed the upcoming programs, April 14 will be "Designing Fabric and Books" with Monique Dillard and the class will be "Mini Fit to be Geese." Sue Daley will present the May 12 program, "English Paper Piecing" with the class "Playing with Papers." They also discussed the Quilt R Done project challenging members to complete unfinished projects from previous quilt classes. If a project is completed and shown at a future Guild meeting, a Quilt R Done charm will be awarded. A "Mystery Quilt" instructions and first clue are available for a lap size quilt (or larger as the Guild has permission from the designer). The rest of the clues will be printed in Plain Print. The "Best Day Ever" described the joy of presenting 50 quilts to the middle school students at St. Mary's School in Lincoln. These students will sing for the Korean Veterans honor flight in Omaha. A poster board has photos and thank you notes from the students. President Daiker convened the business meeting. There being no additions or corrections, the Minutes of the November 2013 meeting were approved as printed in Plain Print, and the November 2013 Treasurer's report was remanded for audit.

Old Business: Dues should be paid by today. Dues are $25.00 for the year.

New Business: President Daiker discussed the possibility of membership books which cost approximately $600 the last time they were printed. Currently this information is on the web site. If anyone is interested in a membership book, they would need to order ahead and pay the cost estimated at $4.00 - $8.00. Kate Laucomer will work on formatting. If anyone is interested in assisting, please contact her. In addition, if anyone is interested in serving as the chairperson for the audit committee, please contact Linda Daiker.

Announcements: Kathy Spitsen made the following announcements:

A Thanksgiving card was received from Marjorie Kostelnik, the Dean of the College of Education and Human Sciences at UNL; thank you cards were received from a patient at St. Elizabeth's Hospital and Nate Woods, Assistant Director, the Malone Center. Congratulations to Jean Ang, who was honored at the Legislature for her many years of making quilts for fund raisers for the Valparaiso library.

Suzi Parron will present "Barn Quilts and the American Quilt Trail Movement" on Tuesday, April 8th at 7:00 PM at the Congregational Church in Geneva, NE.

Pacific Hills Lutheran Church in Omaha is hosting an exhibit of "The Supper" quilt from 9:00 AM – 9:00 PM on April 17 – 18. The quilt is being driven from Waxahachie, TX to Omaha by its artist, Don Locke. The quilt is 15.3' wide and 5.5' high. It has been exhibited in 37 states, but never in Nebraska.

Two guests from Des Moines were recognized in addition to the other guests attending the meeting.

National Quilting Day at the IQSCM: Sheila Green acknowledged her committee – Shirley Chaffin, Bonnie Moses, Wanda Hein and Lori Duffek, the NSQG representative as well as Dean Young, the IQSCM operations manager. Corporate sponsors for National Quilting Day are AccuQuilt, Aurifil, and HandiQuilter. There are only three spots left that need a volunteer for quilting day. Please contact Sheila if you are interested. A Quilt Alliance representative will be at the museum so visitors can sign up for a 3 minute slot to tell the story about their special quilt. There will also be a photo frame, studio art quilt associates discussion, log cabin quilt display, and other lectures.

Cuddle Quilts: Vicky Skuodas discussed an additional population needing quilts – quilts for school-age children. Please consider making a cuddle quilt 45" x 55" for this age group. The group meets on the first Friday of each month at the Seventh-Day Adventist Church downstairs by the library to sew.

Bus Trips: Sue McKee discussed the upcoming trips – April 4 – 5 the Nebraska Shop Hop, cost $225.00; the Central Kansas Shop Hop, cost $225.00; the October 10 – 11 Threads across Nebraska, cost $55.00; and the October 28 – November 2 Houston IQS trip, cost $850.00.

Mini Raffle: Cheryl Kupcenski and Kay Hoff conducted the Mini-Raffle with proceeds of $115.00 going to Cuddle Quilts. Winners were: Chris Obrist – shamrock quilt, Sharon Beachall – organizer; Kathy Philip – tulip quilt.

A request for donations for the mini-raffle for upcoming meetings was presented.

Lincoln Quilt Fest: Mary Swinton reminded everyone that Quilt Fest will be July 10 – 12 at St. Marks Church at 84th and Pioneers from 9:00 AM – 8:00 PM and 9:00 AM – 3:00 PM on Saturday. Admission is $6.00 for adults and $1.00 for school age children. There will be a vendor mall, demonstrations and lectures, Tradition with a Twist challenge, modern quilts, quilts by men, intergenerational quilts and attic treasures. Raffle tickets for "My Heart is Home" quilt are available. $1700 tickets have been sold and we can sell over 4000.

Lorelee Novak said that quilt registration will be online and will begin in April with a firm deadline of July 1. Exhibitors can display up to 3 quilts or 4 if it is a series. The guidelines will be in Plain Print.

Phyllis Higley represented the Attic Treasures committee. This used to be a silent auction but now will be a tag sale. They are accepting quilt related items and will have a donation receipt for donors. There will be a table at each general meeting. They will be asking for volunteers to staff Attic Treasures at the Quilt Fest.

Vicky Skuodas discussed the quilt show CD. Donors will be asked to list the inspiration for their quilt on the entry form. It is estimated the CD will cost $10.00 plus an additional $2.00 for mailing.

President Daiker introduced Jan Sittler, the quilt department superintendent from the Nebraska State Fair. Sittler invited everyone to attend and exhibit quilts. Between 400 – 700 quilts are on display at the fair in an air-conditioned building.

The meeting was adjourned to Show and Tell.

International Quilt Study Center & Museum

Google Art Project

The International Quilt Study Center & Museum was recently added to the Google Art Project. Inclusion in the Google-powered art platform will allow the museum to share high resolution images and digital resources connect to selections from the collection.

Virtual visitors can browse works by the artist's name, artwork, type of art, museum, country, collection and time period. The IQSCM's first wave of uploaded content features nearly 100 pieces, including Lucinda Ward Honstain's "Reconciliation Quilt" and Michael James' "Aurora."

You can view the museum's collection on the project at <http://www.google.com/culturalinstitute/collection/international-quilt-study-center-museum>.

Friends Event

Mother-daughter quilters Marianne and Mary Fons will present "Beyond the Binding: Everyday Quilters, Extraordinary Quilts" on April 19, at 3 p.m. at Hardin Hall on the University of Nebraska-Lincoln's East Campus. A reception will follow the lecture at Quilt House.

Co-hosts of the popular PBS series "Fons and Porter Love of Quilting," Marianne and Mary use colorful multimedia to present unusual quilts made by mostly unknown quilters from the past, examining just what makes each work exceptional.

The event, which is sponsored by Friends of the International Quilt Study Center & Museum, will benefit the IQSCM.

Tickets are $30 to attend the lecture only and $50 for the lecture and reception. To purchase tickets, send your check, made out to FRIENDS of the IQSCM, C/O J.Eskridge, 128 N. 13, Apt. 1007,

Bernina Sewing Studio in Lincoln is sponsoring a QOV sew-in Friday April 25 from 10:00 am to 4:00pm. Bring your own QOV project, machine and sewing supplies and join us for a day for quilting fun. Please register for this event by emailing Judy Lane. If you have additional questions, contact Julia Schroeder (Julia.schroeder@QOVF.org)

Quilts of Valor has introduced the 2014 QOV block challenge. Directions for the block can be found at the following link:

<http://www.qovf.org/content/2014-qovf-block-drive-pattern.html>

They can also be picked up at the QOV table during Guild meetings. Please bring completed blocks to the QOV table during Guild meetings. Thank you!

Santa Socks 2014

As the new Santa Sock committee, we want to thank the Guild members for all their generous donations throughout past years and look forward to your participation in the coming year. The Santa Sock Program is supported totally by donations of items and money from our members, the proceeds from the mini raffles for two months, and voting with dollars on Santa socks in November.. This has made it possible to distribute many much needed items to local organizations for the holidays

We are contacting several of these organizations to determine their specific needs so we can coordinate our requests to you. This information will be in the Plain Print each month.

We hope you will be making Santa socks and bags throughout the year so we will have enough by the November meeting.

Here are some of the ideas for this calendar year.

MARCH: It's not too late to check out winter clearance for hats, mittens, gloves, scarves and ready made Christmas socks.

APRIL: Small stuffed animals, puzzles, story books, games and toys for young children, teens or adults
MAY: Baby items/hats, booties, bibs, blankets, soft books, baby toys

Watch for additional suggestions of items to bring for the remainder of the Guild year in future Plain Print issues..

Remember, you can bring your donation to any guild meeting during the year. There will be totes near the South doors for you deposit your items in.

Thank you for your support!

Joan Ogle & Ginny Harvey
Santa Sock Committee

Thank you to all the Guild members who have provided Quilts of Valor for the Honor Flight veterans. We are about 30 quilts short of reaching our goal of 130 QOVs to cover the Korean War vets who made the October 2013 Honor Flight. Please consider making a QOV for a Nebraska Korean War veteran. You may bring your finished QOVs to the Guild meeting in April. Thank you!

PILLOW CASES NEEDED!

LQG gives a home-themed wallhanging and pillowcases for each member of the family to new Habitat for Humanity homeowner at the dedication of their home. We need more pillowcases! The pattern is available at the guild meetings at the Habitat for Humanity table (west side of the meeting room) or on our website:

www.lincolnquiltersguild.org

Habitat requests matching pillowcases for the couple, if possible. Think fun pillowcases for the children, preschoolers through high school age. They really appreciate our donations! You can bring your finished pillowcases or wallhangings to the guild meetings.

NATIONAL QUILTING DAY 2014

National Quilting Day 2014, our fifth annual event, was held at the International Quilt Study Center and Museum on Saturday, March 15. The FREE admission event was planned and sponsored by the Lincoln Quilters Guild and the Nebraska State Quilt Guild. A huge thanks to our commercial sponsors AccuQuilt, Aurifil and Handi Quilter. All provided give away items to our guests! We had 737 visitors from Nebraska, 17 other states, India and Germany! Thanks to our great volunteers and museum staff, the event ran very smoothly this year, a result of excellent offerings and diligent publicity. The ever popular lectures included Carolyn Ducey, IQSCM Curator, "The Whole Story," Paulette Peters, "Plop a Picture," Studio Art Quilt Associates, "Art Quilts" by Peg Pennell and Gloria Miller, "Log Cabin Quilts." The Studio Art Quilt Associates shared a display of 12" square art quilts and answered questions from our guests. Lincoln Quilters Guild outreach projects, Habitat for Humanity, Young Quilt Artist and Santa Socks were featured and shared examples of their offerings. Guests had their photo taken with our giant Photo Frame! The Quilt Alliance was on hand videotaping quilts and their stories, "Go Tell it at the Quilt Show." Our third floor was dedicated to Hand Work demonstrations and an exhibition of doll quilts and beds. Docents interacted with guests in the galleries to view the current quilt exhibitions. Our Community Showcase exhibition of Log Cabin Quilts will continue to April 19. The quilts are provided by members and friends of the National Quilting Day 2014 Steering Committee and feature a variety of styles of Log Cabins--traditional, art, improvisational and modern!

Watch for upcoming details about next year's event!

Discover Nebraska

We have 2 more months of presentations in the 4th grade classrooms. April and May are our busiest months! Our schedule is online, just go to our website www.DiscoverNebraska.org We'd love to have you join us! Please let me know in advance so that I can include your name on the list to the schools. The children and staff are so appreciative! 4th graders are the BEST! This is a great way to share our love of the art of quilting and the history of our state of Nebraska.

Lincoln Quiltfest 2014: Colors from the Prairie

July 10-12, 2014

St. Mark's United Methodist Church

Go to www.LincolnQuiltersGuild.org for all the information and updates!

Steering Committee: Carolyn Garner, Sheila Green, Pam Rowland, Meylonie Schatz, Mary Swinton and Lynne Weinhold

Sign up to Volunteer!

Our master signup sheet is ready for your "autograph." 289 volunteers are needed prior to the show (quilt drop off and quilt hanging), during the show (white glove, admissions, Attic Treasures, Kids at Quiltfest, Raffle Quilt ticket sales, auction) and after the show for quilt take down! Please consider signing up for more than one shift! Anyone can help as we have sitting down and standing jobs. Just let us know where you can help. When you help, you're entitled to free admission at the show that day, or a "coupon" will be issued for a day of your choice if you help before or after the show hours. Contact Carolyn Garner to grab your spots! 402-464-7923 or cargarner@gmail.com

Quilt Delivery

All quilts entered in the Lincoln Quiltfest 2014 should be delivered to St. Mark's Church at 84th and Pioneers Blvd. on Tuesday, July 8 between the hours of 7:30 am and 7:00 pm. Go to south side of church building (on Pioneers Blvd.), east end. If you are not personally able to deliver your entries, please make arrangements for someone to do so during the drop-off time period.

If you are not going to be able to pick up your quilts at the end of the show, you can arrange for someone else to pick up your quilts. However, you must communicate those arrangements to the quilt drop-off personnel by giving them a signed permission note with the name of the person who will be picking up your quilts. If you do not provide the signed permission note when you drop off your quilts, your quilts will not be released to anyone other than yourself after the show. Questions? Contact Judy Lane at judith-blane@yahoo.com or Christina Chapman at cchapman@bkd.com

Quilt Displays

We are looking for quilts of all shapes and sizes, including 3-D items, quilts made by MEN, Intergenerational Quilts (you and your child, grandchild or neighbor with a majority of the work done by the child), MODERN quilts and Tradition with a Twist Challenge Quilts! If you took the LQG class in March from Jacquie Gering, we expect your MODERN quilt to be in the exhibition!!! We know you won't disappoint our guests! Lorelee Novak will have the quilt registration forms. We prefer that you register your quilt online at www.LincolnQuiltersGuild.org

Tradition with a Twist Challenge

Take a traditional quilt block and make it your own! Use the quilt show name, "Colors from the Prairie" as an inspiration! Embellish as you like! The maximum size is 16" x 20". One entry is allowed per person. Challenge quilts are separate from show quilts and will not count against the number of show quilts allowed. Registration, drop off and pick up is also separate from show quilts. Pick up your registration form at the April meeting or find it online. We have a "celebrity" judge who will judge the quilts based on use of theme, color, eye-appeal, not necessarily on workmanship. Hanging sleeves optional.

Questions? call Gloria Smith at 402-489-0062 or Pam Wakeman at 402-826-2944 (Crete) or email at cv44355@windstream.net

Raffle Quilt

Don't forget to purchase a book or more of Raffle Quilt tickets to help support great programming and outreach projects for your guild! Books are just $10 each. Thanks to the Lincoln Journal Star for the excellent article and photos of Millie Fauquet, designer of "My Heart is Home" raffle quilt! The article appeared in Prime Time on March 17. As of this writing, we have sold 1,733 tickets (4,999 available to be sold). Call Pam Rowland, Quilt Mom, (402-261-3193) if you have a place for the quilt to be displayed and tickets sold.

Vendor Mall

Our Vendor Mall is filling! It will be spacious and well lit! If you know of a business who may like to be a vendor, contact us and we will send them the vendor application. There will be a variety of booth sizes and prices, all in a prime location for great sales! Contact Sheila Green or Joan Yoder

Attic Treasures

This is the time to bring your gently used treasures for Quiltfest! Quiltfest guests will be able to purchase the pre-priced treasures and take them home right away! New items will be added as the show progresses. All sorts of quilting, sewing and needlework related items are wanted: fabric, finished and unfinished projects, kits, quilt blocks, small quilts, pillows, books, patterns, quilting and/or sewing notions, lights, magnifiers, yarn, quilt related decor OR, other items quilters would like: candy, tea/coffee, bed or bath items (lotion, shower gel, etc.). No magazines, please. Contact Pat Gormley 402-423-1467 or Phyllis Higley 402-486-3901

Show CD

This year we will offer purchase of a CD of all the quilts in the show!

When you complete your Quilt Show entry forms, please remember the following:

- Give proper credit to a book or pattern author.
- If your inspiration comes from a picture in a quilt magazine, please acknowledge the quilt maker.
- If you use a picture of your own, but techniques by another person, that would be considered an original quilt.

The CD cost will be $10 (prepaid for pick up at the August LQG meeting) or $12 if it must be mailed. Photos will be taken by George Skuodas, assisted by Vicky. Thanks so much George and Vicky for offering this service and money making opportunity for LQG!

All members of Lincoln Quilters Guild are encouraged to consider exhibiting quilts in the 2014 show. The following guidelines will help members plan their entries and help Quiltfest volunteers with the proper display and return of items.

Please read carefully before completing registration form(s)!

- Exhibitors must be members of Lincoln Quilters Guild unless exhibiting by invitation of the Quiltfest Steering Committee.
- Items must not have previously been shown in an LQG quilt show unless by invitation of the Quiltfest Steering Committee.
- "Tradition With a Twist" Challenge quilts are not included with this registration process.

Show categories are:

General – Three items will be allowed per member.

This includes bed quilts (crib to king), wall hangings, throws, miniatures, table runners, art quilts, 3-D items (garment, purse, journal, etc.) or one Series of quilts (up to four items - counts as one entry).

Intergenerational Quilts - Limit of one per child; quilt project made mainly by the child with help of LQG member.

Young Artist – Quilts made by LPS Bryan Focus School students.

- A separate registration form must be completed for each entry.
- All entries must be finished projects; hanging sleeves are not necessary.
- All entries must be clean, smoke and odor free.
- A label with the entrant's name and the name of the piece must be permanently attached to each quilt.
- If insurance is desired, it will be the responsibility of the exhibitor to obtain it.
- Items entered in the quilt show may be photographed as video and flash cameras are allowed at the quilt show. Images may be used by LQG for their website, and Facebook
- All quilts must remain on display for the duration of the show. Quilts will not be released until the entire show has been taken down. Detailed instructions for pick-up will be given at quilt drop off.
- Registration will be done online. If you do not have online access, contact the registrar at 402-423-3863 or at the Quilt Show table during Guild meetings.
- All items to be displayed in the 2014 quilt show should be delivered to St. Mark's United Methodist Church, 84th & Pioneers on Tuesday, July 8, 7:30 am to 7:00 pm.

REGISTRATION DEADLINE FOR ENTRIES is July 1, 2014!
