AFTERNOON WORKSHOP

The July 27th workshop was held in Beatrice at Eunice Plucknett's house. Seventeen Lincoln and fourteen Beatrice quilters attended the salad luncheon. Lots of "show and tells" and visiting made for a very enjoyable afternoon. Beulah Rulla brought an outstanding quilt she made for her daughter's wedding. It included 42 different stars. Libbie Murrell showed pretty potholders and frames for Christmas. Several members were working on potholders and Eunice had very attractive table covers made in the flower garden pattern with red print on one side and plain red on the reverse, also a brown one. Every room had quilts on display, including the bathroom.

The August 24th workshop was held at Genie Sullivan's home with 12 members and a guest, Linda Coon from Beatrice, in attendance. Cohostess, Laura Rosecrans showed her beautiful "Calico Cross-Stitch" which she has completed. Ruth Hicks brought a completed top of the "Broken Star" made in shades of brown and blues--very attractive. It is to be her daughter's wedding quilt. Joan Schwalm brought a very old crazy quilt with cloth ribbons bearing organizations and dates as old as 1869. Mary Ghormley was working on some small piecing from an estate sale. Delicious refreshments were served.

EVENING WORKSHOP

The August 24 workshop at Judy Fitzgerald's house was attended by 11 Guilders. Judy welcomed the group with an outdoor lighted display of her first quilt. A variety of projects were in evidence: Gretchen Garcia worked on a knitted baby afghan, Winnie Johnson stitched a 4-patch table covering, Janet Eskridge used old fabric to put together a doll quilt, and Jane Davie lap quilted on a wall-hanging which featured four blocks purchased by her father. Everyone enjoyed the refreshments and conversation.

ANNOUNCEMENT: Congratulations to Kari Ronning on the birth of her son, Gavin Douglas Donaldson, born July 20th. Gavin weighed in at 8 lb., 4 oz. and 20½ inches. Best wishes to the proud mama and papa.

COMMEMORATIVE QUILT PLANNED

This year the Lincoln Quilters Guild is entering its ninth year. Mary Ghormley will host a commemorative program in March. As part of the program, the Guild is planning to start a commemorative quilt. A committee consisting of Lou Lessman, Jean Davie, Rosemary Seyler (our technical advisor), and Sandra Anderson has met and decided that in order to make this a truly commemorative quilt, your help and ideas are needed. Please let us know:

- How the blocks should be made: pieced, appliqued, embroidered etc.
- What events and persons should be commemorated
- How to set the blocks together
- How it should be used or what should be done with it after completion
- Other suggestions

Send your ideas to Sandra Anderson, 5531 LaSalle, Lincoln, 68516, 483-5496. If you would like to be on this committee, let us know. You would be very welcome.
