LINCOLN QUILTERS GUILD

OCTOBER, 1981

NEXT GUILD MEETING

Monday, October 12, 7:30 p.m.,
Westminster Presbyterian Church.
Program on thimbles by Roma Spangler.

Thimbles arouse memories of a person, place or thing. On October 12th we are going to investigate these memories by having a session about thimbles. Roma Spangler has charge of the meeting and will be showing a few of the thimbles she has collected. Hazel Byers will be showing a part of her collection. Anyone else who has thimbles may bring several of them. We also would welcome any books that people may have pertaining to thimbles.

Come and bring your friends.

Sincerely, Roma

OCT. 12th, Serving Committee: Pat Cole, Chairwoman, Mida Giesecker, Jean Harnsberger, and Mary Dunn.

WORKSHOPS

MORNING: Ruth Nuss, 6225 Franklin,
Oct. 26, 9:30 a.m.

AFTERNOON: Mary Ghormley,
2115 South 24th, 1:00,
October 26th.

EVENING: Mona Jean Easter,
3430 South 29th, 7:30,
October 26th.

QUILTS AT LINCOLN CENTER: Sandy Anderson reported that over 300 people viewed the quilts on Saturday and also Sunday. A number of people told the hostesses how much they enjoyed the show and remarked about the good selection and variety. Since the elevators were closed on Sun. and the 5th floor diners took the escalator down, they said they were drawn in and intrigued by seeing Louise Howey's beautiful Star quilt through the doorway.

REMINDER: Please be sure to pick up your quilts October 5, Monday, between 12:00 NOON and 5 p.m. at the fourth floor auditorium, Miller & Paines.

NETV: Saturdays at 2:00 p.m., beginning October 3rd, for 13 weeks--Quilting. Features art, techniques, and history of quilting. A 60-page viewer's guide of patterns, diagrams and instructions is available for $6 from WBGU-TV, Bowling Green, OH 43403. Hosted by Penny McMorris with experts demonstrating each week.

Good News

RECORD NEEDLEWORK FIELD LED BY LINCOLN WOMAN, Omaha World Herald, a feature story about Carol Dunklau's blue sampler quilt being selected the overall winner in the Needlework Department at the State Fair.

Carol won the award over 1,200 other entries.

COMFORT IS FOUND IN QUILTING, Lincoln Journal and Star, Sunday, Sept. 13th, a feature story for World of Women about Floy Buell, her years of quilting, and president of the Bryan Memorial Hospital Kensington. RESOURCES, by Judy Fitzgerald. If you want to acquire one of those great, indispensable 18 x 2 inch rulers marked in 1/8-inch grid, save some money going to Pat Ash, Inc., 1320 P., where they are $1.75 compared to $3.50 or more when packaged as sewing notions. Also available there is acetate for permanent templates: by the sheet or a 20-ft. roll for $5-$6 versus $4 for a small sheet in notions departments. The House of Fabrics now has all-cotton quilting thread in several colors.
