Lincoln Quilters Guild

December 2024

---

From the President

Hello all! Hope you are all immersed in the joy of the holiday season -- enjoying the sights and sounds of December.

2025 Guild Dues

First of all, many of you have not paid your Guild dues as yet. They are $50 until the end of December, and $60 after that point. Check the Guild website for the membership form to include with your payment.

Sleep in Heavenly Peace Project

Rhonda Obermeier is heading up the Lincoln chapter of this organization. The Cuddle Quilt group is helping out by providing new twin sized quilts (50" x 70" is requested, but larger is also acceptable). If you have twin quilts to donate, contact Vicky Skuodas (402-580-5765, gs20937@gmail.com).

National Quilting Day

National Quilting Day is March 15th. If you are able to help during that day, contact Sheila Green to volunteer (402-440-3127, sheilagreen@windstream.net).

March Program and Workshop

Our speaker for March is Deanna Faimon from Wilber. She is a true artist, using different techniques in her work. Don't miss this lecture! And she is only accepting 15 for her workshop, so sign up early!

2025 Raffle Quilt

We will be unveiling our newest raffle quilt at the March meeting. This will be a surprise to all of us but our 2 quilt creators!

---

Block of the Month

Tammy Hensley created a Block of the Month all through this year. The BOM instructions are still available on the website if you missed a month or want to start over the winter.

Quilt Show for 2025 of the Month

Our Quilt Show will be on Saturday October 25th at Trinity Episcopal Church. It is a beautiful church that enhances the quality of our quilts. Think about your entry for the show, and spread the word!
