250th Anniversary of our Country. We have been approved by the Nebraska Historical Commission and the Governor to have our 250th Quilt on display in the Governors reception room throughout the month of July. There will be an unveiling of the quilt by the Governor on July 1st at 10AM, with a brief overview of the quilt and its meaning. [We have a few seats available for this event! Please email me directly at \[President@lincolnquiltersguild.org\]\(mailto:President@lincolnquiltersguild.org\) if you would like to attend.](#)

Please note that the 250th Quilt Raffle Tickets can be purchased at the Bernina Store as well as during our regular monthly Guild meetings.

Important Notice about LQG Meeting Locations in 2026 We will be meeting at the International Quilt Museum (IQM) for the months of June, September and November and at the College View Seventh Day Adventist (SDA) church the other months.

Access to the Guild Library- If you'd like to visit the Guild library during the months that the guild meets at the International Quilt Museum, please contact Vicky Skuodas at gs20937@gmail.com Vicky would be happy to meet you at the College View Seventh Day Adventist church and open up the library.

Good news! LQG received $2286 in donations this year through the Give to Lincoln Event. Thanks to all who donated! Each donation makes an even bigger impact because the Guild will receive an additional donation consisting of a proportional share of a fund made possible by the Lincoln Community Foundation and additional sponsors of this event. Our thanks to all who support this annual fund-raising event for nonprofits.

Policies, role and committee descriptions and bylaws review. During this year, the Board has been reviewing and updating role, committee descriptions. We are now in the process of reviewing the bylaws. If you have any input into the bylaws changes, please send a note directly to Liane Connelly, President at President@lincolnquiltersguild.org. The Guild membership will have the opportunity to vote on the bylaws later this year.
